

Mrs. Haywood E. Lynch Chairman Of Woman's Club Service Group

Mrs. Haywood E. Lynch has been appointed community service chairman of the Kings Mountain Woman's Club and announced Wednesday the Kings Mountain organization would participate fully in the help-a-home program recommended by the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs.

Under the plan, the Woman's Club committee works with the county welfare department in helping homes which already are making effort to help themselves but need some additional aid. The work will be carried on all over Number 4 Township, Mrs. Lynch said.

"The purpose of the program is two-fold, to help raise the level of living for a group of families in the community who, through no fault of their own, are unable to supply their homes with the items necessary for the maintenance of pride, self-respect and decency; and to put into use many household items that are no longer used, but that are entirely too good to discard," Mrs. Lynch said.

Mrs. Lynch added that the Woman's Club, through Mrs. J. N. Gamble, Red Cross secretary, will compile a list of available home furnishings and other usable articles and that they will be distributed to needy families certified by the county welfare department. She pointed out that no pick-ups of furnishings will be made until the certification had been made. Moving the articles will thereby be limited to one time.

Further information may be obtained by listening to a radio broadcast, featuring Mrs. Lynch and Jack Hoyle, welfare department case worker, who will be heard over Station WKMT Friday morning from 9:30 to 9:45.

Four Are Injured In Auto Accident

Two Kings Mountain men, Jack Martin and Jack Wells, both of route 3, were treated for injuries sustained in a two-car collision at a Gaston county hospital Saturday night.

Neither was hospitalized and two other persons in the wreck sustained minor injuries.

Grady Henson and Florence Henson, of Cooper Hill, Tenn., were passengers in a car driven by Mrs. Ruth Henson Newton of Cooper Hill, which collided with the car in which the Kings Mountain men were riding.

The accident occurred on Highway 74 west of Gastonia.

"Sinning" Still Gets City's Name In News

Kings Mountain was still in the throes of its "sinning" this week.

National publicity had become more widespread and at least one instance of the international variety was reported.

Mrs. Ben T. Goforth received a letter from her brother, Cpl. Lon Hardin, serving with the Marines in Japan, and Cpl. Hardin reported that Stars and Stripes, the service newspaper, gave big play on its front page to the "all-night sinning" story.

Mrs. Clyde Kerns received letters from relatives at Norman, Okla., and in New York city suggesting that Kings Mountain citizens "behave," and Mrs. Dot Lusley, of Abilene, Texas, wrote the Kings Mountain Chamber of Commerce that she wanted to come to the party.

All the above, and much more, gained Kings Mountain nation-wide publicity last week, all as a result of a simple printer's typographical error, plus some useful imaginations of publicity men boosting a songfest sponsored by the Woman's Missionary Baptist church.

"On the question of levying a special school tax, not to exceed twenty (20) cents, on the one hundred valuation of property, real and personal, in said territory, it being understood that if a majority of those who shall vote in said territory shall vote in favor of the special school tax, then this shall have the effect of creating a special school taxing district.
