

Belton Champ Again; H. R. Neisler Tops 2nd Flight, Carl Moss Third

Bill Belton, lanky Gastonia golfer, retained his Kings Mountain Country Club championship crown last Saturday, eliminating Bill Kelly of Clover, S. C., in the 36-hole title match.

Other flight winners in the recently completed tournament included H. R. Neisler, who defeated Dave Neill in the second flight, and Carl Moss, who downed George Houser in the third flight.

Action in the annual event was completed last weekend.

Charles Neisler had previously won the first flight title and Sam

Stallings garnered championship honors in the fourth flight.

Mr. Belton will get to keep the President's Cup for another year. Championship and runner-up trophies will be presented at the annual golfers dinner. No date for the affair had been set Wednesday.

Alley Cats Take Big Bowling Loop Lead

Captain Ralph Arrowood's Alley Cats edged the Mountaineers by six pins in Kings Mountain Bowling League action at Shelby Recreation Center last Monday night to push further into the loop lead.

The Luckies downed the Independents to go into a tie with the Mountaineers for runner-up honors.

Arrowood rolled a 319 set to pace the Cats over the Mountaineers by 1435-1429. Ed Early had an even 300 for the losers. Red Morrison hit 110 for high line during the match.

Captain Furman Wilson paced the Luckies 1412-1390 verdict over the independents with a 323 set and Bill Logan had a 304 for the losers. Wilson's 128 was good for high line.
