Macedonia W. M. U. Met With Mrs. Beck Page

The W. M. U. of Macedonia Baptist church met in the home of Mrs. Beck Page Monday night, October 12, with 14 members present.

Mrs. Ruth Lynn opened the meeting with prayer. Mrs. Bud Falls conducted the devotional.

Topic for discussion was "Sinful World—A Sufficient Savior." Those taking part on the program were Mrs. Ray Wright, Mrs. Jess Jenkins, Mrs. R. L. Hardin, Mrs. Ruby Stroupe and Mrs. James Bolin; Miss Dutch Cloninger read a very interesting article on "There Is a Fountain." Mrs. J. E. Dover closed the meeting with prayer.

Mrs. Ruth Lynn will entertain the members in November.

During the social period, sandwiches, doughnuts, potato chips, pickles, coffee and ice tea were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Childers, Mr. and Mrs. John Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. Haskell Wilson and son, Gary, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ganit, Miss Cornelia Gantt, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Faysour, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Larry Wilson and son, Beany, and Mrs. Robert Brackett, Jr. spent Sunday in the mountains of Western North Carolina.

Erskine Alumnae Met With Mrs. J. C. McGill

The Kings Mountain Chapter of the Erskine Alumnae Association met on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. J. C. McGill. Hostesses assisting Mrs. McGill were Mesdames W. E. Blakely, Mike Plonk and N. F. McGill. Upon arrival of guests the hostesses served a delicious dessert course with Russian tea.

The program topic was "Education of Women—Prior to the War Between the States." Miss Shirley Sellers gave an interesting talk on this topic. Mrs. Edgar Sellers reported on the opening of the 115th session of the college.

The president, Mrs. J. L. McGill, presided over the business session. During this part of the meeting, plans were made to invite the Erskine Choraleers to give a program of sacred music at the A. R. P. church. Pledges were made by individual members to support the Scholarship Fund for Erskine, a project of the association.

Those attending the meeting were: Mesdames Edgar Sellers, John Cheshire, W. E. Blakely, John Gamble, N. F. McGill, Mike Plonk, J. C. McGill, George Morrow, Grady Patterson, Lona McGill, J. L. McGill, Palmer Fulton, Misses Janet Scoggins, Elizabeth Anthony, Ava Ware and Shirley Sellers. Out-of-town guests were Mesdames George Lauderdale and Coin Davidson of Bethany, S. C.

Mrs. J. G. Darracott and Donnie Breedlove spent Sunday in Spartanburg.

Open Gate Garden Club Meets With Mrs. Shuford

The Open Gate Garden Club met on Wednesday afternoon, October 14, at the home of Mrs. Tolly Shuford, with Mrs. Tim Hord as co-hostess. Seventeen members and three visitors were present.

The home was made attractive with numerous arrangements of fall flowers and fruit. After the arrival of the guests, the hostesses served Japanese fruit cake with coffee and other accessories.

Mrs. Claude Hambright, president, called the meeting to order and introduced Mrs. Bob Lewis of Bessemer City, who gave the program for the afternoon. Mrs. Lewis talked on "Bulbs to Plant in Autumn" with emphasis on the preparation of the soil, the methods of planting and the arrangement of bulbs in a formal and an informal garden. She illustrated her remarks with colorful pictures.

During the business session, the club elected two new members, Mrs. Ben T. Goforth and Mrs. Gordon Weekley. Mrs. Clyde Kerns, chairman of the committee on conservation, presented the project of beautifying one and a half acres around the hospital. The members voted to undertake the project with the planting of trees at the initial expense of fifty dollars. A discussion was held on ways and means of raising money. The club decided to plan an antique show in the near future and Mrs. W. M. Gantt was appointed to investigate the matter further.

Outstanding arrangements of chrysanthemums were brought by Mrs. C. E. Cash, Mrs. B. T. Wright, Mrs. Hord, and Mrs. Shuford. Members brought colorful specimens of dahlias and chrysanthemums.

Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Bob Lewis and Mrs. W. A. Lindsay of Bessemer City and Miss Sarah Markham of Durham.

Mrs. J. C. Bridges Hostess At Bridge

Mrs. J. C. Bridges used chrysanthemums in a decorative decor Thursday night when her guests were members of her bridge club.

Tables were appointed after several progressions and a frozen dessert course consisting of molded Halloween figures was served with coffee.

The guests enjoyed contract bridge in progressions and at the conclusion of the last progression, cards were put aside and tallies were added. Mrs. Joe Hedden and Mrs. Bill Fulton were the most successful players winning high and second high respectively.
