Methodist Day Circle Met Monday Afternoon

Mrs. J. R. Davis was hostess to members of Circle No. 4 of Central Methodist church Monday afternoon. Ten members and two visitors were present.

Mrs. H. T. Fulton presented a short devotional program at the beginning of the meeting, and Mrs. J. H. Patterson presented the Bible study in the absence of Mrs. W. W. Tolleson, who was out-of-town Monday.

Mrs. H. C. Mayes, circle chairman, presided. Two visitors, Mrs. Patterson and Mrs. P. L. Shore, Jr., were present.

Mrs. Davis was assisted in serving a chicken plate with lemon tarts and coffee.

Mrs. I. B. Goforth, Sr. Monday Circle Hostess

Mrs. I. B. Goforth, Sr., was hostess to Circle No. 9 of Central Methodist church Women's Society of Christian Service Monday evening.

Thirteen members of the circle were present. The devotional was led by Miss Margaret Harmon, and a program on "Feeding the Modern Multitude" was given by Mrs. Delbert Dixon.

After the business session, Mrs. Goforth served refreshments. The meeting was adjourned with prayer led by Miss Kitty Lou Sutton.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Anthony and daughter of Key West, Fla., are visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Gunnells.

Miss Louise Carpenter Feted At Party Shower

Miss Joan Bridges and Miss Grace Carpenter entertained at the Bridges home last Tuesday evening at a surprise miscellaneous party-shower paying compliment to Miss Louise Carpenter, bride-elect, whose marriage to James A. Lybrand, Jr., took place last Saturday evening in Saint Matthews Lutheran church here.

Vases of fall flowers and arrangements of chrysanthemums were used as decorations throughout the rooms of the home.

Miss Carpenter was dressed in a two-piece suit of aqua blue with which she used matching accessories. A white bouquet of chrysanthemums, gift of the hostesses, was pinned to her suit shoulder.

Bridal games were played during the evening and a refreshment plate consisting of sandwiches, colas, potato chips with pickles, and fruit cake was served.

A shower of gifts was presented to the honoree, who opened gifts and displayed them.

Thirty-five guests of the couple made up the party list.

Mrs. Paul Patterson Baptist Circle Hostess

Mrs. Paul Patterson was hostess to members of the Cornelia Leavell circle of First Baptist church for the group's November meeting Tuesday night.

Miss Lethia Lankford, chairman, presided over the business session. Plans were made to send a Thanksgiving basket to shut-ins.

Mrs. Howard Ware, program chairman for the month, gave the program on "The Lottie Moon Christmas Offering." Ten members attended.

Following the meeting the hostess was assisted in serving fruit cake with coffee.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Pearl Adair of Martin, Ga., has returned to her home in Georgia after visiting her sister, Mrs. J. R. Davis and Mr. Davis here.

Miss Georgia Davis of Shelby was a Monday guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Hardin, Mrs. Woodrow Spake and children and Miss Katherine Mullinax and Frankie Mullinax, all of Shelby, visited Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Gunnells Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene White and daughter, Phyllis Rene' (Snow) White, of Sylvia, formerly of Shelby, spent the weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Chapman of Shelby and Mr. and Mrs. George White in Kings Mountain.

Lieut. Paul L. Downey, Jr., visited last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Allen. He was enroute from Mobile, Ala., to his home in Harrisburg, Pa. Lieut. Downey reports after a furlough with his parents in Pennsylvania for overseas duty in Guam.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Allen, Miss Gail Allen, Miss Martha Lou Bennett, and Lieut. Paul L. Downey spent Sunday in Banner Elk, N. C., as guests of Miss Ramona Allen, a student at Less-McRae college.

Pulliam Recital Sunday, Frances Sisk Accompanist

BOONE — On Sunday afternoon in the Fine Arts Building Auditorium, the Appalachian State Teachers college Music Department will present in recital Gall Pulliam, coloratura soprano, accompanied by Miss Frances Sisk.

Miss Pulliam, a junior, is a Primary education major. Besides the work in her major field she is closely associated with the music department, being a member of the Double Octet and Chorus. She has been featured as soloist with both groups during their concert season for the past two years. She is now studying voice under the direction of Hoyt Saffrit.

Miss Frances Sisk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sisk, of Kings Mountain and Bessemer City, a sophomore, will accompany Miss Pulliam and will also play one group of numbers. Miss Sisk is the accompanist for the ASTC Double Octet and Chorus. She will be featured as pianist on the presentation of the Messiah over the National Broadcasting system on December 6 and in Boone on December 13.

Miss Pulliam is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Pulliam of Winston Salem and is the sister of Mrs. Jimmy Dickey of Kings Mountain.

The program will be as follows:

"Rejoice Greatly, O Daughter of Zion" Handel
"Tu Lu Sai" Torelli
"Donzelle Fuggite" Caualli

"Si Mi Chiamano Mimi" and "Quando Me'n vo Saletta" from the opera La Boheme Puccini

"Maid With the Flaxen Hair" Debussy
"Novoletto" Schumann
"Spozalizio" Liszt by Miss Sisk

"The Kerry Dance" Molloy
"Ho! Mr. Piper" Curran
"My Johann" Grieg

Three Games Listed In New Bridge Series

Three additional bridge games in the "New Partner Series" remain to be played at Kings Mountain Country club, Mrs. C. E. Warlick announced Tuesday, before series awards are to be presented winners.

Mrs. L. E. Abbott is leading the scoring in the new series, she continued. The series award, a silver trophy, will go to the Kings Mountain player with the best five percentage scores in the seven game series.

A fractional point game in the new series is to be played Thursday (tonight) with a fractional point and a masterpoint game to be played the following Thursday night.

On December 3 a masterpoint game will conclude the bridge "New Partner Series."

Open Gate Garden Club To Hold Two-Day Sale

Plans are being completed for a sale of dried arrangements and Judas trees to be held at the home of Mrs. W. M. Gantt at 706 North Piedmont Avenue on Tuesday and Wednesday, November 17 and 18. The sale is sponsored by members of the Open Gate Garden club.

An admission fee of 25 cents will be charged, but this amount will be applied on the purchase of any arrangement or tree. The arrangements will be on display from 9:00 a. m. to 9:00 p. m. on both days.

A wide selection of arrangements will be offered for sale, with prices ranging from $1.00 up. Some arrangements will be in containers, others will be arranged on bases.

The public is invited. Invitations have been sent to all Kings Mountain garden clubs and to clubs in neighboring areas.

Mrs. W. R. Craig Entertains Circle

Circle No. 8 of Central Methodist church held its monthly meeting Monday night with Mrs. W. R. Craig as hostess at her home on Crescent Hill Drive.

The program was opened with a period of silent prayer. Miss Margaret Cornwell gave the devotional and the group sang "We Gather Together" and "Come Ye Thankful People, Come."

Mrs. Robert Neill had arranged a program on "United Nations Work." "The United Nations helps countries to help themselves," she emphasized, "by sending travel workers to the countries to teach their people better methods."

Committee reports were heard. Mrs. P. L. Shore, Jr., circle chairman, presided over the business session.

A committee composed of Miss Marion Arthur, chairman; Mrs. I. B. Goforth, Jr., and Miss Margaret Cornwell was appointed to make plans for helping a needy family at Christmas.

Following the business session, an auction sale of hand-made and home-canned items was held. Mrs. W. R. Craig was auctioneer. Proceeds from the sale are to be applied to the Building Fund of the church.

The meeting was closed with a reading on "Thankfulness". Fourteen members and two visitors, Mrs. C. A. Butterworth and Mrs. Paul Beam, attended.

The hostess, assisted by her daughters, Misses Peggy and Nancy Craig, served delicious refreshments.

Mrs. P. L. Shore, Jr., will be hostess to the December meeting of the circle.

Magnolia Garden Club Held November Meeting

Magnolia Garden club members held their November meeting Friday with Mrs. J. B. Plonk as hostess at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Carpenter, Sr., on W. Gold street.

Harvest arrangements of fruits and vegetables were used by both garden club teams and judges selected winners by a unit point system. Mrs. Martin Harmon's Team No. II was judged winner in club arrangements.

A sale of pot plants, bulbs, and shrubbery brought by each member was held during the meeting. Purchase money went into the club treasury.

Mrs. W. H. Page had arranged a program on "Growing of Iris and Peonies" and she used pictures to explain her discussion.

Mrs. Marriott Phifer, president, presided over the business session.

Following the meeting, the hostess was assisted in serving a congealed salad plate with coffee.

Mrs. R. D. Goforth Hostess To Rook Club

Mrs. R. D. Goforth entertained members of the La Fete Rook club and invited guests at her home on King street Thursday night.

When guests arrived, covers were laid and a salad and sweet course with Russian tea was served. Yellow chrysanthemums were used as dining table decorations, and bowls of red roses and arrangements of chrysanthemums with snapdragons were used in the living room and throughout the home.

Four progressions of rook were played and prizes presented to Mrs. E. T. Platt, who won high score for club members, Mrs. B. A. Murray, who won second high, and to Mrs. Hunter Patterson and Mrs. Will Bird, who won first and second high awards for visitors.

Mrs. Bun Goforth won the floating prize. Guests playing in addition to club members were Mrs. J. H. Arthur, Mrs. Harold Crawford, Mrs. Will Bird, and Mrs. Hunter Patterson.

Irene Ledford Circle Held Monthly Meeting

Mrs. Oran White entertained members of the Ellen Irene Ledford circle of Temple Baptist church when the group held its meeting Monday night.

Mrs. Agnes Cole, program chairman, had arranged a program entitled, "Advancing Through Suffering in Korea" and pictures were shown of Korea to illustrate her discussion.

Other members taking part on the program were Mrs. E. D. Cooke, Mrs. Paul Ledford, Mrs. P. C. Howell, Mrs. Pauline Bridges, Mrs. Graham, and Mrs. White.

The meeting was closed by a silent meditation directed by Mrs. Cooke. A short business session was held. Reports were read by the secretary and treasurer and other committees appointed by the chairman.

Nine members and one visitor were present for the meeting. Mrs. White, assisted by Misses Nadine White and Patty Ledford, passed a dessert course with coffee.

Mrs. Herbert Dover will be hostess to the circle in December.

Mrs. J. E. Lipford and Miss Margaret Kendrick attended a birthday dinner in Mount Holly last Sunday in celebration of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Lipford's sister, Mrs. T. L. Ware. The dinner was held at the home of Mrs. James Davenport in Mount Holly.
