EL-BETHEL - BETHWARE — Nov. 10 — The Women's Home Demonstration club of El-Bethel met Friday afternoon at 3:00 p. m. in the Home Economic Department at Bethware school. Mrs. H. A. Goforth gave the demonstration on freezing and curing meat. Mrs. Fred Anthony was voted club woman of the year for the local club.
 Plans were made to attend the fall federation meeting this Saturday.
 Hostesses were Mrs. Boyd Harrelson and Mrs. Hilda Goforth who served coffee, sandwiches, pickles and cake.
 The club planned to have a Christmas party to be held December the 18th at the school lunch room.
 The Women's Society of Christian Service met last Wednesday evening. Topic of the program was "Feeding the Modern Multitude." A good crowd was present. The Jesse Lee circle of the society met Sunday night at the church. Mrs. Hass Greene had charge of the program. The group met before the regular preaching service at 7:00 p. m.
 The Golden Link Sunday school class of El-Bethel met Saturday night at the club house for a social and oyster supper. Twenty-three were present. Games and contests were enjoyed and three birthdays were honored. M. C. Neal, Mrs. Robert Swafford, Mrs. G. F. Tallock, Mrs. John Queen, Mrs. W. M. Eaker and son, Richard, spent several days over the weekend in Goldsboro with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wallace.
 Mr. and Mrs. Myers Hambricht both returned last week from the hospital. Both are much better.
 Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Eaker spent Sunday in Cherryville visiting relatives.
 William Andrew McSwain of the U. S. Army spent the weekend here with his wife.
 Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Eaker spent the weekend at Wilmington visiting friends.
