Keeney-Huffstetler Vows Exchanged In Afternoon Ceremony Here Sunday

First Baptist church of Kings Mountain was the setting for a beautiful wedding of reverence and simplicity last Sunday evening at 5 o'clock uniting in marriage Miss Gloria Pauline Keeney of Myerstown, Pennsylvania, and Delvin Sylvanus Huffstetler, Hospitalman, USN, of Norfolk, Virginia.

The Reverend H. Gordon Weekley, Jr., minister of the church, heard the couple pledge vows of the impressive double ring service before an altar of Oregon fern medallions grouped around two all-white floor baskets of gladioli and flanked by seven-branched candelabrum holding white lighted tapers.

Guest pews where members of the two families were seated were marked with white satin bows tied with white ribbon streamers.

A program of nuptial wedding music was presented prior to and during the exchange of vows by Miss Bonnie McIntosh, organist, and B. S. Peeler, Jr., vocal soloist.

Organ program selections included "Ave Maria" by Bach-Gounod, "To A Wild Rose", McDowell, "Ichliebedich" by Grieg, "Claire De Lune" by Debussy, and the theme song from "Romeo and Juliet."

During the ceremony, Mr. Peeler sang "Through the Years" by Youmans, "Yours Is Mine Heart Alone" by Youmans, and as a benedictional prayer, "The Lord's Prayer," by Malotte.

The Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin by Wagner was played for the processional, and Mendelssohn's Wedding March from "A Midsummer Night's Dream" was used for the recessional.

Given in marriage by her father, Ralph P. Keeney, Sr., of Myerstown, Pa., the bride wore a gown of white pearl acetate satin styled with peter pan collar and V-shaped satin-top bodice filled in with imported lace of illusion and trimmed from collar to waist with pearl self-covered buttons.

Her fingertip veil of silk bridal illusion fell from a Juliet cap cloche of seed pearls trimmed with valley lilies, and her full length sleeves extended into callalily points at the hands. Her full skirt fell into a floor-length train.

She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses showered with nylon maline and white satin ribbon streamers.

Mrs. John Migliacolo of Myerstown, Pa., attended her sister as matron-of-honor and Miss Camilla Bright and Miss Patricia Wickham, both of Charleston, S. C., attended the bride as bridesmaid attendants.

Bridal attendants were gowned in yellow, orchid, and blue nylon taffeta with net over-skirts and strapless bodices topped with matching stoles. They wore Juliet caps of satin studded with lily-of-the-valley. They carried nosegays of bronze, Garza, and mixed chrysanthemums.

The matron-of-honor wore a

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many friends for their beautiful floral offerings and other expressions of kindness and sympathy during the sudden death of our son and brother, William Lawrence Bridges.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Bridges and Family.

SYNTHETIC FABRICS

Convertible car tops made of orlon, a synthetic fabric which is oil-derived, may break performance records for durability. Wet or dry, they stay in shape and are easy to clean with solutions of mild soap or detergents. They resist strong sunshine, chief cause of deterioration and shrinkage in convertible top fabrics, and they won't balloon excessively at high speeds. There are many new oil-derived products under the sun and they all add to the pleasure and convenience of Americans' daily lives.
