Margrace Girls' Club
Discuss Yule Activity

Margrace Girls club members held their regular meeting Thursday night in the Margrace Woman's club house.

Doris Sellers, club president, called the meeting to order and presided over the business session before a short program was given. Plans were completed for Christmas activities by the group. Hostesses for the meeting were Peggy Jo Smith, Doris Sellers, Linda Rhea, and Judy Medlin. Light refreshments and cold drinks were served.

A social hour was enjoyed by the group. Games were directed.

Ruth Swann Auxiliary Plan Christmas Tree

Ruth Swann Girl's Auxiliary of First Baptist church met last week with their leader, Mrs. H. Gordon Weekley, as hostess at her home on Gaston street.

Peggy Ware, president, opened the meeting and presided over the business session. Plans for Christmas festivities were announced, and members painted pine-cones on auxiliary handbooks for Christmas decoration to be taken to Kings Mountain hospital.

Following the business session, light refreshments were passed. A social hour was enjoyed after Christmas decoration had been completed.

Bethware School PTA Held Harvest Festival

Members of the Bethware school PTA sponsored an "Harvest Festival" Friday afternoon and evenings at the school. Sale of chicken pie plates and oyster suppers began at 5 o'clock and a program of entertainment followed in the evening.

Proceeds from the event benefited school PTA project funds. Mrs. Herman Goforth was chairman in charge of the project and M. C. Poston was chairman in charge of publicity for the festival.

Eastern Star Chapter Held Regular Meeting

Regular meeting of Kings Mountain Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, was held Friday evening at the Masonic Hall.

Mrs. Rowell Lane, associate matron, presided in the absence of Mrs. F. A. McDaniel, Jr., worthy matron.

Plans were discussed for aiding needy families of the community during the Christmas season.

Following the business session, Mrs. A. W. Kincaid and Miss Melba Tindall, hostesses, served refreshments. Christmas decorations were carried out in the dining hall.

American Legion Auxiliary Held Yule Gift Reports

Members of the American Legion Auxiliary met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Hal D. Ward with Mrs. John Kezziah as co-hostess.

Mrs. C. L. Jolly, president, opened the meeting and presided over the business session. Reports were heard from Mrs. D. E. Tate who told the group that 60 gifts had been presented to Veterans' hospitals at Oteen, Swannanoa, Fayetteville, and Salisbury from the auxiliary, and that $200 from the American Legion Auxiliary sponsored Baby Contest had been given to a local veteran from the chapter.

Members voted to send a dollar each to nine veterans in Oteen Veteran's hospital.

Mrs. Clarence Black read a devotional and the flag pledge was given. After the business session, the hostesses passed a dessert course with tea.

Christmas greenery and candles were used in decoration throughout the Ward home.

Friday Bridge Winners Are Announced Monday

Regular monthly masterpoint bridge session was held at Gaston Country Club in Gastonia last Friday morning. The Howell movement was used.

Mrs. George Houser and Mrs. W. K. Mauney, Jr., both of Kings Mountain, scored third high. Mrs. Edward Summerrow and Mrs. J. M. Gayle, both of Gastonia, scored high with Mrs. Phil Jackson and Mrs. Mart Reid winning second-high.

Fourth place winners in the Friday games were Mrs. B. C. Morrow and Mrs. A. C. Currant, Jr., both of Gastonia.

Special Winners' Game Played At Gaston Club

Mrs. W. K. Mauney and Mrs. Jacob Cooper were winners in fourth place in the winner's bridge game played last Tuesday, December 8th, in Gastonia.

The Mitchell movement was used, and thirteen tables were in play. Silver trophies were awarded at the conclusion of the game.

Other winners as announced this week were: Mrs. Phil Jackson of Gastonia and B. Evers of Charlotte, first for North-South; Mrs. Stanislas Czertwyrnski, Tryon, third; and Mrs. Connie Mitchell and Mrs. J. A. Andrews, Charlotte, fifth.

Scoring high in the East-West section were Miss Georgia Lee and A. M. Elliott, Charlotte, second; J. A. Postell and Miss Ann Zachary, Charlotte, third; Mrs. T. H. Wilkinson, Lincolnton, fourth; and Mrs. J. M. Gayle and Edward Summerrow, Jr., fifth. Mrs. J. A. Postell and P. H. Wuille, of Charlotte, were high score winners in East-West bridge positions.

Pulliam - Westbrook Vows Solemnized

Miss Carolyn Gail Pulliam of Winston Salem, sister of Mrs. James Dickey of Kings Mountain, and Jimmie Wylie Westbrook, of Greensboro, pledged marriage vows last Sunday afternoon, December 6, before the altar of Friedland Moravian church of Winston Salem in a five o'clock ceremony.

The Reverend Truett Chadwick, pastor of the bride, officiated. Miss Lillian Simmons and Lawrence Phillips, both of Boone, were vocalists and Jerry Johnson, of Winston Salem, was organist for the program of nuptial wedding music prior to and during the exchange of vows.

Roy C. Pulliam of Winston Salem gave his daughter in marriage, and Edward Westbrook of Rock Hill, S. C., attended his son as best man.

The bride wore an imported wedding gown of white slipper satin and Chantilly lace designed with lace bodice, high neckline with Peter Pan collar, and full bouffant skirt with matching lace panels extending to full length of train. Her finger-tip veil of bridal illusion was caught to a cloche of lace and seed-pearls and she carried a colonial bouquet of white Picardy roses showered with white satin ribbon streamers and lily-of-the-valley.

Mrs. Ralph A. Kretzer of Chambersburg, Pa., attended her sister as matron-of-honor and bridesmaid attendants were Miss Sara Schuyler of Lawgap, Miss, Miss Dorothy Byers of Forest City, Miss Nancy Waters of Forest City, and Miss Barbara Hines of Winston Salem.

Ruth Bayless, of Winston Salem, attended the couple as flower girl, and Kenneth Long, of Winston Salem, nephew of the bride, was ring-bearer.

Attending the couple as ushers-groomsmen were Robert Westbrook of Boone, brother of the groom, Dewey Marshall, Jr., of Rock Hill, S. C., Robert Marshall of Emory University, and James Cassells of Chester, S. C.

A reception immediately following the ceremony was held in the Moravian Church Parlor. Mrs. James Dickey, of Kings Mountain, assisted in the reception-room, where guests were greeted and presented to the receiving line composed of the bride and groom, their parents, and members of their wedding party.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Pulliam of Winston Salem, is a graduate of Glenn high school in Winston Salem and a junior at Appalachian State Teacher's college, Boone. She will resume her studies at Greensboro College, Greensboro.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Westbrook of Rock Hill, S. C., is a graduate of Appalachian State Teacher's college in Boone and is connected with the Wyeth Drug Company in Greensboro, where the couple will make their home following a wedding trip.

Miss Irene Greene Gives Wedding Plans

Miss Jewel Irene Greene of Kings Mountain and Charlotte today announces plans for her marriage to Herman David Wright of Kings Mountain, which is to take place Sunday at Patterson Grove Baptist church.

The Reverend J. J. Thronburg, pastor of the church, will perform the ceremony immediately after the morning worship services. The couple will enter the church unattended.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Greene of near Kings Mountain, and the bridegroom elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Travis Wright, also of Kings Mountain.

Following the ceremony, the couple will greet their guests in the church vestibule.

Margrace Woman's Club
Planned Yule Festivity

Plans for a community Christmas tree and party to be held for children of the Margrace village community were completed at a meeting of the Margrace Woman's club last Friday night.

The party is to be held on Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the Margraee Woman's club house. Gifts and treats will be distributed.

Mrs. George Sellers, chaplain, presented the devotional at the beginning of the program. Mrs. C. W. Falls, president, conducted the business session.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Grady Rhea, Mrs. Cleve Moore, Mrs. George Sellers, and Mrs. Clifford Kirkus. Congealed salad plates with sandwiches and pineapple tarts were passed with coffee.

Mrs. Bill Caldwell was welcomed into the club as a new member. Mrs. Caldwell, with her husband and daughter, Sandy, recently moved here from their home in Newberry, S. C.

Buffet Dinner Sunday Set At Country Club

A buffet dinner for club members, their families, and guests will be held at the Kings Mountain Country Club Sunday with dinner to be served from noon until 1:30 o'clock.

Mrs. B. B. Speidel, Kings Mountain Country Club manager, made the announcement this week and asked that reservations for the dinner be made at the club by noon on Saturday.
