Young Democrats Plan To Organize

Kings Mountain area Young Democrats are laying plans for the organization of a Number 4 Township Young Democrats club and have tentatively set January 8 as organization night, with a free barbecue and speeches by state leaders to feature the program.

Leading the formation of the organization are Jack White, Kings Mountain attorney, and Bob Cox, car salesman.

Mr. White said the local group already has the blessings of both county and state Young Democrat officials, as well as the full encouragement and support of the regular Democratic organization. While no official statements were forthcoming, there was some indication that the proposed organization is a partial answer to the recently organized Number 4 Township Republican club.

Mr. White said that Horace Kornegay, state YDC president, would most likely make the feature address at the organizational meeting. He said Red Bridges has been retained to serve a free barbecue dinner and plans call for holding the event at Masonic Dining Hall.

Attending a meeting last Thursday night to discuss plans for the organization were George Thomasson, Harold Phillips, Joe Hendrick, Martin Harmon, Jack White, W. K. Mauney, Jr., Bob Cox, W. G. Grantham, Glee A. Bridges, and Charles Dixon.

Committees named by Mr. White for the January 8 party include: finance, Jack White and Bob Cox; food, W. K. Mauney, Jr., Yates Harbison and Clavon Kelly; publicity, Martin Harmon, Bob Cox; invitation, Joe Hendrick, Joe McDaniel, Tom Owens, Otto Guyton and Harold Phillips; arrangements, Charles Dixon; speakers, George Thomasson, Jack White.
