GAMES TO PLAY

County Cage Event Begins On Thursday

The annual county basketball tournament is scheduled to begin at Shelby Community Center Thursday at 5:30 p. m.

Grover's boys finished on top and draw a bye opening day. The Grover girls finished in a four-way tie for top and drew second seeding and a Thursday bye.

Bethware's girls are scheduled against Mooresboro at 7:30 Thursday and at 8:30 the boys are to tangle with Fallston or No. Three.

Boys Cage Race In The Stretch

The race for the two top positions in the boys division of the South Group, Western AA Conference may be decided Friday night as Kings Mountain, Forest City is host to Lincolnton and Forest City is host to Rutherfordton-Spindale.

Kings Mountain, Lincolnton and R-S. are the only teams left in the running for the berths, with an invitation to the WNCN-SAA tournament the prize.

On Tuesday, Kings Mountain is scheduled at Belmont, while Lincolnton and R-S. clash.

WEDNESDAY FIRE

Firemen were called Wednesday afternoon to extinguish a fire at Bonnie Mill in the waste house. According to C. D. Ware, fireman, two bales of cotton and some waste were partially burned. The origin of the blaze was unknown.

Two Are Guilty Of Non-Support

A Gastonia resident was found guilty February 8 in Recorder's Court of abandonment and non-support of a minor child. Judge Jack White gave Raymond Cabe a 90-day sentence, suspended on condition that he pay via the clerk of recorder's court the sum of $5 each week for benefit of his minor child, Randall Cabe, until he reaches age of 18 or becomes self-sustaining.

Judge White also found Arthur Ligon guilty of abandonment and non-support of his six children in City Recorder's Court Tuesday afternoon, and sentenced him to serve eight months on the road. The sentence was suspended on condition that Ligon pay $20 each week through the court for support and maintenance of his six children. The defendant stated on the witness stand that he knew it was his responsibility to support his children, and added he was willing to live with his wife and support his children.

William R. Goins was found guilty on two counts of passing worthless checks in the amount of $75. Vernon Crosby, of East King Esso Station, stated on the witness stand that Goins issued a check to him for $25 February 1, and that the check was returned to him by the bank marked "insufficient funds." Basil Lovelace of Marlow's, Inc., also testified a $50 check given to his firm by Goins was also returned by the bank marked "insufficient funds." Goins defended his actions when questioned by Judge White by saying sufficient funds were in the bank when checks were issued, but that he later paid a jail fine in Lenoir, diminishing his account. The arresting officer was P. R. Saunders.

A Fort Jackson, S. C., soldier, Jessie Green, was found guilty of larceny of a stove lid from the skating rink owned by Mrs. Devola Houser, and of damage to city property in the amount of $100 while in jail. When questioned by Judge White as to his behavior, the only explanation the defendant could give was "Your Honor, I was drunk." On the count of larceny Green was given a 60-day sentence, suspended on condition that he pay a fine of $10, and costs of court. On the count of damage to city property, the defendant also was given a 60-day sentence, suspended on condition that he pay costs of court and costs of damage to city property estimated by a reliable plumber. Officers P. R. Saunders and R. P. Carrigan were the arresting officers.

Three were found guilty of public drunkenness, and one case was continued.

The cases of John J. Johnson, Elvia Anthony and Coy Fredell were transferred to Shelby by Judge White for jury trial. Judge White also ordered capias be issued for John Dawkins and William Mitchum.

Pressly Lists Radio Devotional Topics

Rev. W. L. Pressly, pastor of Boyce Memorial ARP church, will conduct the daily devotional program over Station WKMT next week.

His subjects will be: Monday, "Can A Leopard Change His Spots?"; Tuesday, "Why Do Good People Suffer?"; Wednesday, "Unanswered Prayer"; Thursday, "Angels Who Take Us by the Hand"; Friday, "The Cross of Christ".

For three of the programs special music will be given under the direction of Mrs. N. F. McGill, including solo work by Miss Mary Boyce McGill and Mrs. W. L. Pressly, and a duet by Miss McGill and Miss Shirley Sellers.

Guard Company Seeks Enlistees

The Kings Mountain National Guard Company's recruiting drive, with a goal of 50 enlistments in the unit, is still underway. Captain James Houston, commander, said yesterday.

"We still need qualified men to bring the company up to authorized strength," he said yesterday. Capt. Houston explained that the purpose of the National Guard is to furnish, in event of a national emergency, citizen soldiers trained and equipped in peacetime and effectively organized for rapid mobilization, expansion and deployment. The Guard also plays a major role, he added, in assisting in relieving civilian distress in tornados, floods and other civil disasters.

"Membership in the National Guard has several important advantages," he emphasized. "Among them are the fulfillment of a patriotic obligation to one's country, substantial pay and retirement benefits, educational opportunities, and opportunities for promotion for those taking an active part in National Guard activities."

Men interested in joining the company, Headquarters and Headquarters Company, 3rd battalion, 120th infantry, 30th division, are urged to contact Capt. Houston or call Sgt. Charles Wilson at the armory, Phone 606.
