LET'S TALK IT OVER

By: Grace & Selma

There's a saying that "It's a man's world", but on "Orchid Island", a tiny pimple of land 50 miles from Formosa, the women haven't got the word.

All a woman has to do to get a divorce here is to toss back a string of agate beads she got for her engagement. Sounds like a streamlined Reno.

If a couple goes childless, it is taken for granted that the husband is to blame and a slick, quick divorce is in order. On the other hand, over three children also constitutes grounds for divorce. Apparently the only solution for a husband on this piece of real estate is to adopt a pair of offspring and go into deep hibernation.

It also seems that the women are fond of a certain species of fish. You can catch a Brahma bull, with a butterfly net as easy as one of these spiny speedsters, but if the husband doesn't bring home the bacon—or is it barracuda?—the mis-sus goes husband-hunting.

Oh well, matrimony may be a shaky venture on "Orchid Island", but there are no taxes.

Matrimony may be a shaky venture, but patronizing ALLEN'S FLOWER SHOP certainly isn't, because we stand behind everything we sell. It may sound old-fashioned, but WE AIM TO PLEASE... so drop in and see how well we succeed, won't you.

Three Are Hostesses At Saturday Shower

Mrs. M. L. Bell, Mrs. Jim Bell, and Mrs. Carl Bell were hostesses Saturday afternoon at a shower in Mount Holly complimenting Mrs. Vernon Smith.

Games were directed throughout the afternoon by Mrs. G. L. Nichols and prizes presented to the honoree. The Bells are former residents of Kings Mountain. Mrs. Smith is the former Miss Betty Jo Bell, sister of Mrs. G. T. Stewart and Mrs. G. W. Sellers, of Kings Mountain.

Refreshments were passed by the hostesses, who were assisted by Mrs. Bruce Cash in serving cookies, mints, potato salad, sandwiches, and punch.

Guests at the party were from Kings Mountain, Belmont, and Mount Holly.

Hi-Lo Bridge Club Held Friday Meeting

Mr. and Mrs. Jack White were hosts to members of the Hi-Lo Bridge club and additional club guests at their home Friday evening.

Prior to bridge and canasta games, dinner was served. Places were set for Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bridges, Dr. and Mrs. John C. McGill, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Fulton, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. George and the host couple.

Guests playing in addition to club members, were Mr. and Mrs. Simpson and Dr. and Mrs. McGill. Mrs. Simpson and J. C. Bridges won high in bridge for the evening and F. F. Morrison and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. George won high in canasta.

Arrangements of spring flowers were used in decoration.

HERALD HOUSE OF THE WEEK

A SMALL HOUSE PLANNING BUREAU DESIGN NO. D-274

DESIGN D-274. Provision is made for two bedrooms on the second floor, which can be left unfinished, and one bedroom and bath on the first floor. In addition there is a large living room, combination kitchen-dinette, an attached garage and full basement except under the garage.

Wardrobe closets are used in the bedrooms and a coat closet, linen cabinet and a battery of closets in the bedroom hall are also provided. Wardrobes and a built-in chest of drawers are located in the hall of the second floor. Plans call for kitchen cabinets on opposite walls, large dining space, recessed tub, a picture window, wide siding and asphalt shingles. Area on ground is 832 square feet with 19,136 cubic feet. This does not include garage. For further information about DESIGN D-274, write the Small House Planning Bureau, St. Cloud, Minn.

use color. Prefinished wallpanel manufacturers have recognized this fact for a long time. This is the reason why these manufacturers offer such a wide variety of colors and patterns in this popular hardboard surfacing material. Available are plain colors, lined patterns, leather, marble, wood grain and tile patterns to fit any decorating scheme.

Because prefinished wallpanels come in large wall-sized pieces with a factory applied baked enamel surface, this paneling material makes an easy-to-clean and very durable wall and ceiling finish for the modern kitchen.

Kitchen Is Busiest Spot In Most Homes, Meriting A Lot Of Thought In Planning

Living begins in the kitchen for most families. From the time the gang assembles for breakfast until the last midnight snack is eaten and the cat is put out, the kitchen is the busiest spot in the house.

This is one of the reasons why most people give a lot of thought to the planning of the home kitchen, not only for the accommodation of the variety of appliances needed, but for more color and beauty to make it a room of pleasing appearance.

Floor coverings and curtains today are used for a touch of color. But the wall and ceiling surfaces are the perfect places to
