

School Trustees To Meet Monday

Regular monthly meeting of the Kings Mountain district board of school trustees is scheduled for 7:30 p. m. Monday at the office of Superintendent B. N. Barnes.

Mr. Barnes was in Raleigh Wednesday along with J. L. Beam, Jr., Cherryville architect, and final blueprint plans for the East Elementary school building program are expected to be presented for approval and advertisement for bids Monday night.

Another item that will be discussed Monday is the Davidson

Tom Owens Resigns For Job With Foote

Tommy Owens, city utilities clerk, is resigning his position and on Monday will assume the duties of assistant to the purchasing agent at Foote Mineral Company.

He re-joined the City last June after a previous tour of six months following his graduation from Kings Mountain high school in 1951. He attended Guilford College and Appalachian State Teachers College during the interim period.

school land purchase, being planned jointly with the city parks and recreation commission.

Lions Honor School Cagers

Members of the Kings Mountain Lions club heard a humorous address Tuesday night by H. A. (Humpty) Wheeler, veteran Belmont Abbey athletic director.

It was "Basketball Night" for the Lions, who had members of the Kings Mountain high school boys basketball team as honor guests.

Coach Don Parker introduced members of the team which finished third in the conference and missed the loop tournament in a three-point playoff loss to Lincolnton.

Coach Wheeler recounted a series of humorous anecdotes, and told the group he did not ascribe to the chronic saying, "Boy's today aren't what they once were." He said he knew that they were better in sports, citing records to prove it. He was presented by W. L. Plonk.

E. K. Whitener welcomed Rev. Douglas Fritz as a new member, on transfer from the club at Hillsbrand, and J. W. Webster, chairman, announced that the annual Lions club broom sale would be conducted on the weekends of March 25 and April 1.
