Pageant to Show Growth Of Home Demonstration

Thursday evening, June 10, will be the time for paying tribute to home demonstration in North Carolina — the adult education movement for farm women that's been 40 years "a-growin'."

William Neal Reynolds College at State College will be the scene of the unweaving of the home demonstration story. A two-act pageant entitled "Green A' Growin'" written by Mrs. Emily Selden and Mike Healey of Chapel Hill will be put on by the home demonstration women of North Carolina.

Counties in charge of the various scenes are Sampson, Madison, Johnston, Mecklenburg, Anson, Pamlico, Durham and Currituck.

Two Are Hostesses At Shower Saturday

Mrs. Ray Mullinax and Mrs. H. L. Wells entertained at the Margrace Woman's club Saturday evening paying compliment to Mrs. Bob Moore, a recent bride. Mrs. Moore was prior to her marriage, Miss Alberta Smith.

Bridal contests and games were directed throughout the evening with prizes presented to the honoree. Refreshment plates of ice cream, cake, salted nuts, and colas were served.

A shower of lingerie gifts was presented to the honoree after games had been concluded.

Mrs. E. L. Campbell and C. B. Campbell returned to their home here Sunday after a 10-day visit with Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Campbell, Jr., and family in Wilmington, Delaware.

Farm And Home Week To Feature Varieties

Women attending Farm and Home Week this year will have a wide variety of classes to attend, according to the Farm and Home Week committee.

For those interested in foods there will be "Desserts From The Country Kitchen," taught by Rita Dubois of State College; "Let's Eat Good Frozen Poultry," conducted by college freezing and poultry specialists; and "Preserves To Sell," taught by Iola Pritchard, extension food conservation and marketing specialist.

There will also be a Dairy Foods Exposition held on Wednesday afternoon, June 9, in the Textile Building auditorium.

The crafts demonstrations taught by master craftsmen of Western North Carolina will again be on the agenda for 1954. And those interested in clothing won't miss "The Well-Dressed Woman," taught by Mary Omen of the J. C. Penney Company.

Another feature of the Farm and Home Week class program will be the housing tour and the landscaping demonstration at the home of the "Tar Heel Gardner", John H. Harris.

HERE ARE THE FACTS, KERR SCOTT,

You said, Candidate Scott, in a speech at Durham as quoted in The News and Observer of May 22, 1954: "All the people want are the cold, hard facts and the opportunity to pass upon them. The people want from their political leadership clean, fair and honest campaigns."

THESE ARE COLD, HARD FACTS, KERR SCOTT:

1. You received from the State in 1952, while you were Governor, $12,658 for highway right-of-way through your 2300-acre plantation.
2. You leased a rock quarry on your farm to a contractor building roads for the State, and thus profited in another way from the road program.
3. Since you were acknowledged as Boss by your Highway Commissioner, a total of 19.5 miles of secondary roads were built in and around your 2300-acre plantation.
4. Your son used a State car to travel to and from Raleigh while he was a student in Duke University.
5. In violation of law, you accepted pay from East Carolina College for making a speech at this State Institution while you were Governor.
6. You accepted gratuities as Governor, including $1,141.87 worth of nitrogen solution delivered to your farm by the Liberty Manufacturing Company of Red Springs to fertilize your pastures for a political rally you never held.
7. You have refused to make public your income tax returns so the people can decide for themselves to what further extent you unlawfully enriched yourself as Governor.
8. You fired or attempted to fire numerous State employees because they did not vote for your hand-picked candidates as you dictated.

You Asked For The Facts, Kerr Scott! And You Got Them!

We agree with you: "The people want from their leadership clean, fair and honest campaigns." The people also want clean, fair and honest candidates.
