First Baptist YWA's Held Supper Meeting

Members of the Young Woman's Auxiliary of First Baptist church held their annual program for the "Heck-Jones Offering" at Lazy Lakes Monday evening.

The meeting was opened with the hymn, "He's Got the World in His Hands." Each member gave a report of the different missions that are being supported by the offering.

Mrs. Estelle Ware, mother of Miss Phyllis Ware, a member of the auxiliary group, served the group a chicken supper with a salad, sandwiches, pickles, ice tea, and ice cream and cake.

Miniature golf games were played during the social hour. The group meets July 8 at the church.

MRS. KENNETH LEE SPENCER

Miss Doris Violet Riddle Wed Saturday To Kenneth Lee Spencer In Church Rites

In a candlelight wedding of reverence and beauty, Miss Doris Violet Riddle became the bride of Kenneth Lee Spencer, Saturday evening, June 26, at 7 o'clock in Grace Methodist church.

The Reverend C. W. Kirby of Gastonia, and the Reverend C. L. Grant, pastor of the bride, were officiating ministers. Vows were exchanged in a double ring ceremony before an altar banked with emerald palms and seven-branch candelabra holding lighted cathedral tapers. On each side of the altar were baskets of white gladioli interspersed with garzer chrysanthemums and gypsophylla, and the white altar railing was draped with smilax vine.

Family pews and pews for the relatives were marked with colonial bows of white satin ribbon.

Wedding music was presented by Miss Margaret Huffstetler, organist; Mrs. Thomas Ellison and Luther McSwain, soloists. Miss Huffstetler played "O Promise Me" by DeKoven, "Because" by d'Hardelot and "Romance" by Debussy, "I Love You Truly" by Bond and Mrs. Ellison sang "Till Walk Beside You" by Murry. During the ceremony the organist played "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" by Stults. For a prayer, Mr. McSwain sang "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte.

The Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin by Wagner and Mendelssohn's Wedding March from "A Midsummer Night's Dream" were used as the processional and recessional music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a wedding gown of an original design of imported French Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over candlelight satin. The pointed bodice was fashioned with a deep flange of tulle applied with hand-clipped lace medallions and caught down the back with tiny lace covered buttons. Long fitted sleeves tapered to deep points over the hands. Her bouffant skirt of multiple layers of nylon tulle and lace over satin cascaded to the back to form a full cathedral train. Her double tiered fingertip veil of imported silk illusion was attached to a princess coronet of seed pearls, sequins and rhinestones. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid, showered with gypsophylla from which hung streamers of white ribbon.

Miss Dorene Ross was the bride's maid of honor. She was gowned in yellow organdy fashioned in colonial style of low neck-line and full ruffled skirt gathered onto the fitted waist. Her colonial bouquet was orchid tinted carnations over-laced with gypsophylla and plumosus fern and tied with orchid bows. She wore a small head-dress of orchid tulle medallions centered with seed pearls.

Bridesmaids were Miss Mary Helen Logan, Mrs. Samuel Crawford, Mrs. John Phifer and Miss Elizabeth Spencer, sister of the bridegroom, all of Kings Mountain; Miss Connie Bennett of Gastonia and Mrs. Bernie Allen of Charlotte. They wore gowns of lace and net over taffeta in pastel shades of blue, pink and orchid fashioned with fitted strapless bodices and lace boleros with French collars. Their full skirts were lace to the hipline where the net was gathered in fullness and stitched onto the lace in pyramid points. Their headresses and bouquets were

Beverly Willis Celebrates Birthday

Beverly Willis celebrated her seventh birthday anniversary Friday and was honored by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Willis, Jr., at a party at the home of her grandparents that afternoon.

Games were played on the Willis lawn before refreshments of also in pastel shades and designed like those of the maid of honor. Flower girls were Kathy Ellison and Kathy Martin, cousins of the bride, and Carolyn Heavner. Their floor length gowns with full skirts and low, round necklines with bertha collars, were of yellow organdy, pink organdy and blue organdy. They scattered white rose petals along the bridal path. Master Rickey Ellison, cousin of the bride, was ring-bearer.

Robert Spencer was best man for his son, and ushers were Donald Ellison, Robert H. Key, Robert Wells, Donald McCarter and Fred Kiser of Kings Mountain; and Thomas (Bud) Ballard of Bessemer City.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Riddle wore a deep sky blue lace dress over taffeta with white accessories and a shoulder corsage of pink rose buds. Mrs. Spencer, mother of the groom, wore a navy dress with white polka dots. Her accessories were white and at her shoulder was a corsage of white rose buds.

Following the ceremony, the bride and groom greeted their friends and relatives in the vestibule of the church.

Saturday's bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wesley Riddle. She was a member of the Kings Mountain high school graduating class of 1952 and is now employed by Southern Bell Telephone Company in Gastonia. The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Spencer, is a graduate of Bethward high school and attended State college. He is now employed by Foote Mineral Company as engineering clerk.

When Mr. and Mrs. Spencer return from their wedding trip in Florida, they will be at home in their new home on Linwood road.

birthday cake and ice cream with peanuts were served. The birthday cake, iced in green and pink served as a centerpiece for the refreshment table. Mrs. Willis was assisted in serving and directing games by Mrs. J. B. Simpson. Guests attending the party included Linda Roberts, Mary Jo Ford, Jo Bridges, Diane Ford, Donna Hardees, Susan Littlejohn, Kathy Willis, William Lawrence Mauney, Jr., Phillip Shore, Tommie Ware, James Lane, Johnny Caveny, and Pat Hill, the latter of Gastonia.
