The authorized strength of Marine Corps Aviation in 1953 was 112 airplanes of modern standard navy types, exclusive of spare experimental, training and obsolete machines.

The 1954 production of filberts in the four major producing countries, Turkey, Italy, Spain, and the United States, will be more than 25 percent greater than last year.

In February, 1777, Robert Morris wrote to John Paul Jones, "I think you should carry with you as many Marines as possible for they will be useful and necessary in all your land excursions."

RESURRECTION CHURCH NEWS

By Mrs. W. R. George

Members of the congregation were given the opportunity to hear Miss Melba Tindall and Miss Evelyn Cline sing a duet last Sunday.

The regular Union Service was held last Sunday night at the Resurrection Lutheran church. The address was given by Reverend P. L. Shore, Jr., pastor of the Central Methodist church, a large number of people in the community attended.

A new circle has been organized by the Women of the Church. Because of a large membership, Circle number two has been formed with Mrs. C. Q. Rhyme as temporary chairman. This circle will meet in the afternoon of the Mondays following each second Sunday of the month.

Circle No. 1 held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Eugene Gladden. Kenneth Hardin presented an interesting program. During the business session of the meeting, it was established that Mrs. C. Q. Rhyme would be the delegate to the State Convention for Lutheran Women at Hickory, N. C. Mrs. Paul McGinnis plans to attend this convention; also, as a visitor.

Also newly organized is a children's choir, which consists of children from age seven to thirteen. This choir meets every Wednesday afternoon at 4:00 and is directed by Pastor Fritz.

The Board of American Missions has requested a story and pictures about the installation of the new chimes. This information will be published by the Mission Board.

This week Pastor Fritz is teaching each evening the senior class of the Central Methodist church. His theme is entitled "What I Believe."

Regular Sunday morning services will begin this Sunday at eleven o'clock. Pastor Fritz will conduct the service, preaching on the subject, "A Higher Wisdom." Everyone is urged to attend.

A congregational meeting will take place after the service to discuss plans for the groundwork of the new parsonage which will be started in the near future.

Union Service will be held at the First Presbyterian church with Pastor Fritz speaking. His subject, scheduled to be given at this eight o'clock service, will be "Forgotten Concept."

Members of the Brotherhood will meet at the church this coming Sunday at 6:30. All men plan to attend. Ollie Harris will be the speaker.

Next week, Pastor Fritz and his family will be on vacation.

Central Methodist CHURCH NEWS

By Mrs. Baxter Paysour

Youth Activities Week is now in progress at Central Methodist church and two evenings remain. All young people between the ages of 12-23, are invited. Among the events of the week were a panel program, "I've Got a Secret" conducted for recreation on Sunday evening, when over sixty young people were present. The group attended the Union Service at Resurrection Lutheran church, where Rev. Phil Shore, Jr., delivered the message. On Monday evening, a wiener roast and Galleian Service were held at Lake Montona, with a worship program presented from a boat. The group returned to the church for discussion groups, followed by recreation.

Rev. Ralph Kayler, Assistant Minister of Dilworth Methodist church, Charlotte, delivered the message Sunday morning, while Rev. Phil Shore delivered the message at the church there.

Organist for morning worship Sunday was Shirley Falls.

Circle 1 has charge of the Nursery this month.

The Rev. E. W. Fox, beloved former minister of this church, will deliver the message Sunday morning at eleven o'clock.

The British Royal Marines has existed as an organization since 1664.
