MRS. WILLIAM BETTIS MCDANIEL

Morris-McDaniel Vows Pledged Sunday In Noon Ceremony At Bethlehem Church

Miss Nancy Helen Morris and William Bettis (Bill) McDaniel, both of Kings Mountain, exchanged marriage vows Sunday at 12 o'clock noon before the altar of Bethlehem Baptist church.

The Reverend R. E. Robbins, pastor of the bride, officiated, and palms with floor baskets of white gladioli and chrysanthemums were used for background decoration. Family pews were marked with sprays of white satin ribbon.

Mrs. Robert E. Gault, of Gastonia, presented a program of organ music before the ceremony, and Mrs. James Logan, of Kings Mountain, vocalist, sang, "O Promise Me" by deKoven and "The Wedding Prayer" by Dunlap.

The Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin by Wagner was used for the processional, and Mendelssohn's wedding march from "A Midsummer Night's Dream" was played for the recessional.

The bride, who entered the church with the groom, wore an afternoon dress of pale pink lace, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, a fitted bodice, and full skirt of iridescent sequins and corded embroidery in a leaf motif. Her hat to match was a tiny shell of velvet and soft veiling, and her accessories were in matching tone. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid, showered with satin streamers.

Usher-groomsman were Roy Dixon, Gene Carpenter, Jack Lail, and Naaman McDaniel, the latter a brother of the groom, all of Kings Mountain.

The bride's mother had selected for her daughter's wedding a navy linen dress with navy and white accessories, and Mrs. McDaniel, the groom's mother, wore a pink dress with black accessories. Each wore a shoulder corsage of white carnations.

After the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained at their home on Shelby road at an informal reception.

A lace cloth covered the refreshment table and cake with punch was served. The couple, the immediate families, and close friends made up the guest list.

For a wedding trip to the mountains of Western North Carolina and Tennessee, the bride wore a teal blue dress and coat ensemble with black accessories and the orchid taken from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. McDaniel, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Morris, of Kings Mountain, was graduated from Bethware high school and Shelby Hospital School of Nursing. She is employed at Garrison General Hospital, in Gastonia.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McDaniel, of Kings Mountain, was graduated from Grover high school, served in the armed forces, and is a member of the staff at Harris Funeral Home.

When they return from a wedding trip, the couple will be at home here on Gold street.
