Miss Ruby Hazel Green Wed Sunday To John P. Davis In Church Rites

Miss Ruby Hazel Green of Kings Mountain, and John Patrick Davis of Chicago, Illinois, exchanged marriage vows Sunday at 5 o'clock in St. Mary's Catholic church, Shelby.

Father Cary read the double-ring ritual for the couple. Altar baskets of white gladioli and white tapers provided background decoration.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a wedding gown of white satin and chantilly lace, fashioned with a scalloped neckline, long lace sleeves, and a scalloped lace bouffant skirt, which extended into an all-wide train. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was attached to a Juliet cap, and she carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid, showered with streamers.

Mrs. Bill King, of Kings Mountain, was her sister's matron of honor and only attendant. Her ballerina-length gown was of aqua net and satin, and she wore a headpiece of satin trimmed in seed pearls. She carried a nosegay of pink carnations.

James Davis, of Chicago, Illinois, was best man for his brother.

The bride's mother wore a street-length dress of pink lace with white accessories and a shoulder corsage of white orchids.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the home of

Garden Council Planning Joint Meeting October 1

The Kings Mountain Garden Council will sponsor a joint meeting of all garden clubs in the Kings Mountain area Friday, October 1, at 7:30 p. m. at the Woman's club.

Mrs. M. J. Boyer of Hickory, chairman of Junior Garden clubs in North Carolina, will make the principal address on "Junior Gardening." Mrs. Boyer has done outstanding work with Junior clubs.

Junior Gardening is a phase of garden club work that is receiving much stress this year in the state and also nationally.

Plans for the meeting are being made by the membership committee of the council.
