

Miss Susan Moss In College Play

Miss Susan Moss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Moss, and a freshman at Meredith college, Raleigh, portrayed the character, "Miss Willoughby" in a dramatics club production at the college last weekend.

The play, "Quality Street", was presented by the Meredith Dramatics club last Friday and Saturday nights. Miss Moss was active in the Kings Mountain Little Theatre last summer, playing the role of "Sally" in the "Sword of Gideon".

(Continued from front page) only one-fifth the daily requirements of the nation's steel industry. Major water problems facing the United States today include maintaining an adequate supply for the vast and increasing requirements of commerce, industry and individuals, and of removing impurities from the sources of supply. He said the fact that wells must now be drilled 30 to 40 feet more than formerly indicate that underground lakes are being tapped more and more and that this supply is being lowered.

Kiwanis To Fete Children Thursday

The Kings Mountain Kiwanis club will observe "Father and Child" night at their regular meeting Thursday evening at Masonic Dining hall at 6:45.

Parents will have their children as guests for an address and demonstration on steam locomotives by Dave Yoder, Gastonia superintendent of public works. It was announced that Mr. Yoder will have some miniature locomotives to demonstrate his lecture.

It was also announced in the club bulletin next Tuesday at 12:15 in lieu of the regular meeting which ordinarily would be held on Thanksgiving night.

Police Report Minor Thefts

Gene Bridges, of 206 Waco rd., reported to Kings Mountain Police department Saturday, the theft of a bicycle from his home.

The bicycle, Mr. Bridges said, was a cowboy style bicycle with orange fenders, plastic seat, red and white tail light, and had an under luggage carrier.

William W. Gilmore, of 118 Mountain street, also reported to police that sometime during Sunday night thieves stole from his 1954 Ford two chrome rims, The car, Mr. Gilmore said, was parked in front of the Gilmore residence.

Mrs. Heiman Cash reported to Chief Hugh A. Logan, Jr., that while her car was parked Saturday night in front of Southern Bell Telephone office, thieves took from her car an Anso Kodak with a flash attachment valued at $40 wholesale.

Hugh Mayhue Awarded Eagle Scout Rank At Court Of Honor Thursday

Hugh Mayhue, of troop 8, was awarded the Eagle Scout Badge, the highest Scout award, at District Court of Honor, Thursday night, November 11, at City Hall.

Mayhue, who became a Scout at the age of 11, achieved the Eagle rank in three and one-half years. He has already achieved the necessary merit badges for the bronze palm award.

Scout Mayhue, who will be 15 November 24, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Mayhue, of 820 Cleveland ave. He is a sophomore at Central High school.

A second ceremony presenting Mayhue with the Eagle Scout Badge was held Sunday at Grace Methodist church, where he is a member. The presentation was made by Rev. W. C. Sides, Jr., pastor of the church.

Two recommendations were made at the meeting, that of Kendall Bolin, of troop 7, for Star Scout rank, and James Presley, of troop 1, for Bronze Palm.

Advanced to First Class rank were: Jerry Blalock, Jerry Cloninger, DeWayne Caldwell, J. C. Bolheler, Bill Herndon, Billy Jones, Barry Smith, and Scoutmaster Forest Weaver, all of troop 7.

Advanced to Tenderfoot rank were: Charles Herndon, Floyd Morris, both of troop 1, and Lawrence Allen, of troop 8.

Merit badges were awarded to the following: Cooking — Rodger Blackwell, troop 5.

Firemanship — Scoutmaster Forest Weaver, troop 7.

Hiking — James Roper, Steve Kiser, Derch Smith, and Gilbert Brazell, all of troop 8.

Home Repairs — Billie Jones and Barry Smith, both of troop 7.

Life Saving — James Roper, of troop 8, Edward Blanton, and Steve Kesler, both of troop 1.

Swimming — Edward Blanton, of troop 1.

MORE ABOUT School Board

3) Authorized Supt. Barnes to allot extra funds granted for janitorial service.

4) Authorized Central P-TA use of the gymnasium on a Saturday night if the organization makes proper request.

Mr. Barnes reported the new Negro school building not completed, that the East school new addition was not ready for occupancy and that the temporary classroom in Central auditorium balcony had been completed.

The board agreed not to request bond money from the county before March 1.

All members of the board were present at the Monday meeting.

MORE ABOUT Walkout

Continued from Page One general manager: "This is not a strike, but I would call it a wildcat labor disturbance. We don't know ourselves what caused it. I understand the union is claiming to have signed up 27 of our 40 mine crewmen, but that claim is outlandish. I don't see how the union could have organized any of our men, since there must be an election called by the National Labor Relations board before that

House Damaged By Fire Saturday

A blaze originating from a faulty flue in a house at 104 Dilling street owned by B. S. Peeler was extinguished by firemen Saturday night around 6:40 p. m.

C. D. Ware, city fireman, said the blaze was confined to the attic. Damage to the house were estimated to total $1,000.

Fireman announced two other calls this week, one Saturday afternoon to extinguish a grass and brush fire on Meadowbrook drive, the other Friday morning to 400 block of East King street to extinguish a slight blaze in a truck owned by Ronson Richards Company.

could happen. We haven't had any notice. And we haven't been informed of a strike."

Girl Scout News

Girl Scout Troop No. 4 met at the Recreation building November 10th. The business was discussed first, then we played games. We chose our crest for the troop.
