MR. AND MRS. W. D. WEAVER

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Weaver Observed Golden Wedding Anniversary Tuesday

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. McGill entertained Tuesday evening, December 21, at a reception honoring Mrs. McGill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Weaver, who were observing their 50th wedding anniversary. The reception was given at the Weaver home, 508 W. Gold street.

A red urn filled with holly and tied with a red bow was used for decoration on the front porch. A large golden bell was used on the door and other decorations throughout the home carried out the golden anniversary theme.

Guests were greeted and presented to the receiving line by Mrs. Charles Alexander. Receiving with Mr. and Mrs. Weaver were their only child, Mrs. McGill, Mr. McGill, and Miss Ola Moss, Mrs. Weaver's sister who lives with her.

Mrs. B. T. Wright invited the guests to see the wedding picture of 50 years ago, which was displayed on an easel near the gift room door. Miss Annie Roberts and Mrs. Paul Horne received in the gift room and planned a souvenir of gold-fashioned double wedding rings tied with gold mauline on each caller. Guests were invited to the dining room by Miss Mary Ann Foster.

The dining room was in candlelight. The refreshment table was covered with a lace cloth caught up at each corner with a gold bow into which was tied a spray of gold-tinted cedar berries. Placed at one end of the table was a five-branched candelabra holding white tapers. At the other end was an arrangement of yellow rosebuds in a footed brass oval container. An arrangement of gold-tinted ivy, magnolia leaves, and gold-colored goblets containing white tapers was used on the buffet. Mrs. Stokes Wright, assisted by Miss Essie Marie Foster, Miss Nancy Plonk, Miss Rebecca Moss, Mrs. Laura Wolfe, and Mrs. Paul McGinnis served individual cakes with nuts and Russian tea.

In the hall, Miss Melba Tindall presided over the register. Good-byes were said to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Briggs.

Attending from out-of-town were Mrs. James McGraw, Asheville, Mrs. Thomas Caldwell, Rev. and Mrs. Paul Horne and Paul Horne, Jr., Charlotte, Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Moss and Miss Diane Moss, McAdenville, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Spake and Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Spake, Shelby, and Miss Nancy Plonk, Boston. Guests were invited to call between the hours of seven and ten o'clock.

December 21 was also the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. McGill and the birthday of Mrs. McGill.
