

MRS. DONALD PATRICK WILSON

Miss Myrtis Porter Wed December 18th To Donald P. Wilson In Church Rites

Miss Myrtis Elizabeth Porter, of Blacksburg, S. C., and Charlotte, and Donald Patrick Wilson, of Augusta, Ga., and Kings Mountain, exchanged marriage vows Saturday afternoon, December 18th, at 4 o'clock in an impressive candlelight ceremony in Blacksburg's Broad River Baptist church.

Rev. C. T. Cobb, pastor of the church, officiated at the double service. Wedding music was presented by Mrs. James Logan, of Kings Mountain, organist, and Robert Max Blackburn, of Charlotte, vocalist, who sang "Because" by D'Hardelot, "O Promise Me" by deKoven, and "Wedding Prayer" by Dunlap.

Given in marriage by her brother, Haywood Porter, the bride wore a street-length dress of Dior blue lace lined in taffeta, molded into an empire waist-line with draped V-front and short sleeves. The generous flared skirt was enhanced by bands of satin in graduating tiers, and her hat was a half-shell adorned with sequins and pearl studded lace with shoulder-length veil. She carried a white satin-covered prayer book topped with a white orchid and showered with satin streamers tied in love knots.

Miss Shirley Moss, of Charlotte, was the bride's maid of honor and only attendant. She wore a street-length dress fashioned with tightly-fitted strapless bodice with a short matching velvet bolero jacket with a crinoline high boy collar. She wore a velvet headband with veil and carried a nosegay of pink carnations with satin streamers tied in love knots.

Wares Entertained At Christmas Party

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Ware, Jr., entertained Thursday evening at dinner at Kings Mountain Country club. Forty-five guests attended the Christmas party.

The U-shaped dining table, covered with a green cloth, was decorated at each corner with frosted fruits, greenery, and candles. The buffet table held a miniature Christmas tree, angels, and red ribbon streamers. Other decorations carried out the red and green holiday theme.

Out-of-town guests attending were Buddy Hamrick, Bolling Springs, Miss Mary Etta McCurry, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis King, and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Legrand, Jr., all of Shelby, Miss Sally Lee and Miss Topsy McClain, both of Gastonia, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Reid, Miss Kitty Monte, Bob Huffstetter, and Miss Betsy Moore, all of Charlotte, and Miss Shirley Arthur, of Jacksonville, Florida.

Entre-Nous Club Schedules Dance

Members of the Entre-Nous Teen club will hold a dance at the Woman's club Friday night from 9 until 1 o'clock. Miss Judy Owens, a member of the club, announced Tuesday.

Dress for the dance is formal for the girls and semi-formal for the men. All members of the club are invited to attend.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Amos and family of Charlotte, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Amos.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Pike and children, of Martinsville, Va., spent the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hord.

Miss Margaret Kendrick and Mrs. J. E. Lipford spent Christmas with Mrs. T. L. Ware in Mount Holly.

Alexander Graham Bell, whose invention of the telephone enables people in different cities to hear each other speak, was an expert instructor of the deaf.

Scism Not Guilty Of Assaulting Wife

Earl Scism, of Oriental avenue, was found not guilty of assault on his wife, Juanita Scism, in City recorder's court Tuesday afternoon.

Scism pleaded not guilty and said his wife had slapped him, denying he had struck his wife. Mrs. Scism admitted the two had been arguing for several days before the alleged incident occurred but couldn't remember the exact cause of the argument.

Horace Everett Mathis, of Orlando, S. C., was handed an 18-months road sentence after a guilty verdict was handed down by Judge Jack White on a charge of abandonment and non-support. Sentence for Mathis, who stated he was willing to support his family, was suspended on condition that he make a payment of $18 each Saturday to the court clerk for the support of his family, and pay costs of court.

Submitting to a charge of possessing non-tax paid liquor for the purpose of sale netted Hillard Hunter, Negro, of 105 Davidson street, a six months road sentence. Hunter's sentence was suspended on condition that he be of good behavior and not sell intoxicating liquor or have it in his possession non-tax paid liquor for a period of one year, pay a $20 fine and costs of court.

J. W. Melton, entering a plea of guilty to a charge of issuing to H & M Food Store a worthless check in the amount of $23.83, was handed a four months road sentence. Melton's sentence was suspended on condition that he be of good behavior for four months, and pay costs of court.

A 30-day road sentence was handed to James O. McClain, Negro, of 314 Childers street, on a charge of failing to pay prosecuting witness, W. M. Nanney, Jr., of Gastonia, a $3.50 taxi fare. The defendant's sentence was suspended on condition that he pay the taxi fare and costs of court.

A six months road sentence on a charge of driving while drunk was handed Aaron Andrew Brooks with sentence suspended on condition that Brooks pay a $100 fine, and costs of court. In addition, the State of South Carolina is to be notified of the conviction with recommendation that the defendant's South Carolina license be revoked.

One case was continued, that of Jack Gaddy charged with assault on a female, and one capias was issued for a defendant charged with public drunkenness.

Three defendants were found guilty of public drunk charges.

These Were Lucky In Store Drawings

Pre-Christmas prize drawings by four local merchants, offered as trade stimulants, were reported won by the following:

Mrs. J. S. McSwain, route 2, won the Westinghouse television set offered by Dellinger's Jewel Shop.

Lloyd Fite, Waco Road, won the Dish-o-Matic dish washer offered by Cooper's, Inc.

Miss Peggy Ross, S. Church street, who works at Rose's, won the life-size doll offered by Belk's Department Store.

All of the drawings required registration only. No cost or obligation was involved to the participants.

Newton Escapee Re-Captured Here

An escaped convict, who fled from the Newton Prison Camp December 4, was apprehended Sunday by police as he sat in a parked car in front of Williams Grocery on Linwood Avenue.

Chief Logan stated that after information had been received that Albert Slaten, the escaped prisoner, was in the vicinity of

Newton Escapee Re-Captured Here

Newton, the Cleveland County Sheriff's department, and Highway Patrolmen were notified.

Slaten, a native of Cleveland County, was sentenced in Cleveland Superior Court in March to four to seven years for the breaking, entering, and larceny of Tillman's Grocery in Shelby.

CARDS OF THANKS

I wish to thank the many friends for their gifts and other kindnesses during the Christmas season. They have helped to make this Christmas a most enjoyable one for me.
