

NO FATAL ACCIDENTS As of Wednesday afternoon, the City of Kings Mountain had gone 1,199 days without a fatal accident, Kings Mountain Police department reported.

AT CONVENTION

Mrs. Helen Jenkins and Mrs. Ila Morrow are representing Helen's Beauty Shop at an International Beauty convention in session at Statler Hotel, New York, March 20-28.

COMMUNICATION

An emergent communication of Fairview Lodge No. 339, A. F. & A. M., for work in the third degree is scheduled for Monday night at 7:30 p. m. at Masonic Hall, Joe H. McDaniel, Jr., secretary, announced.

FAIRVIEW LODGE

Members of Fairview Lodge No. 339, A. F. & A. M., will attend the evening services at Grace Methodist church Sunday night. Members are asked to meet in front of the church at 7:15 p. m., at was announc-

METER RECEIPTS

A total of $179.75 was collected from the city's parking meters during the week ending Wednesday at noon, it was reported by the city clerk's office.

FULKERSON BETTER

W. J. Fulkerson, ill last week with a slight heart condition, has improved sufficiently to resume part-time du-ties at Neisler Mills, Inc.

First Presbyterian Revival Continuing

Evangelistic services are continuing this week through Friday at First Presbyterian church.

Dr. Z. V. Roberson, pastor of ators. Raleigh Court Presbyterian church, Roanoke, Va., and John Livingston, ministerial student at Mrs. Arnette said service would Union Seminary, are conducting probably be a little slower throuthe week's series.

Morning services at 10 a. m. and evening services at 7:30 p. m. are being conducted by Dr. Rober-son, Mr. Livingston is directing a week of youth activities, pro-grams being held each evening after the worship services.

gers, 22 army men, 12 marines and four sailors. It was an RD6

Rev. W. L. Harkey, a former pastor of Grace Methodist church transport and was enroute to California from Tokyo and had turnhere, will conduct pre-Easter sered back toward Hickam Field on vices beginning Sunday at El-Betthe last leg of its transpacific hel Methodist church, it was an-flight. nounced by the pastor, Rev. Boy-

Eight miles off course and in ce Huffstetler.

a heavy rainstorm the big plane Mr. Harkey is now pastor of plowed into Pali Kea Peak, about Avondale Methodist church, at 15 miles northwest of Honolulu Avondale. at the southern end of Waianae Services will be held at 7:30 gan on Monday.

operators, still picketing

Meantime, negotiations on new labor contract between the Communication Union of Amer-

Continued On Page Ten

Range. It was 2:03 a.m. each evening, beginning Sunday The pilot turned on his landing and continuing through April 2.

lights just before the crash, witnesses said. He apparently saw Special music by the church the mountain looming up in front choir will also feature the services, under the direction of Boband tried to bank away. It was by Anthony, choir leader. Wayne too late. The tragedy was the fourth L. Ware, Jr., is the church orga-worst disaster in aviation history, nist. and the second worst in the Paci-

Unchanged As Strikers Stay Out

duty since the strike began, said tance service disturbing.

The youth was a nephew of br. T. A. Campbell, of Blacksburg. He was a graduate of Blacksburg high school and was attending Erskine College when he enlisted in the navy on April 17, 1951. He was a member of Blacksburg ARP church. He was married to the former Miss By-

Mrs. Jack Arnette, a supervisor who has been on switchboard

service is being provided as well as possible, with five supervisory personnel and three non-striking switchboard operators

doing the work customarily handled by 25 regular duty opergh Friday, due to a three-day several citizens. A ten-minute were getting through, though formation.

ers on March 15, 1953.

Dr. T.

BUILDING PERMITS

Discussion of expansion of Cen tral and East Elementary schools' Building Inspector J. W. Webster issued two permits playground areas highlighted the during the week. A permit for construction of a one-story regular monthly meeting Monday night of the Kings Mountain building on Juniper street to board of school trustees. A. V. Yarbrough was issued The board has been seeking Saturday. A permit to build a for over a year to purchase adgarage on Tracy street was isditional land for East school from sued to William Arthur Mor-Consolidated Textiles, Inc. The plot lies west of Church street board that he hasn't received an answer to numerous letters to the firm's New York office since the firm promised to send a representative here after receipt of a The strike union employees of wait for the operator added to Southern Bell Telephone & Tele- the consternation of a harried letter offering $500 per acre au-thorized by the board on April 19, 1954.

graph company continued into its tenth day Wednesday, with little change here from the first days of the walkout. Interview the construction of a marted mother who found her youngster had swallowed some chlorox. A woman trying to reach her mo-ther, who had been reported in-At the February meeting, Mr. Barnes reported completion of a new survey of the land showing volved in an auto wreck, found 5.136 acres which the board wants the longer-than-usual long disto buy.

The board discussed an offer Striking Kings Mountain exby Mrs. Henry Jones to sell some change maintenance men and acreage facing Parker street and with yellow signs, reported no inforis to meet in special session soon mation had been passed to the to consider the matter. The board has talked of acquiring additionrank-and-file union membership. One remarked that, "The al land for Central school several Generally speaking, all calls union isn't giving out much intimes in the past but received no offers from adjacent property owners.

The board voted authorization for summer school band on the ica (CIO) and Southern Bell same basis as last year after hearing a request from J. C. Hedden, band director. T. W. Cothran, Shelby archi-Individual instances of tele-phone tie-ups were reported by is refusal of the union to incortect, met with the group and pre-sented preliminary plans for the Continued On Page Ten Monday.

school trustees call for construc. ed these inoculations, may also receive booster shots. The inocution of 14 classrooms at the new lations are required before a child elementary school location north of Bridges street, between North can enter school. Regardless of whether a child

Piedmont avenue and Ramseur The 55-piece Kings Mountain has had the necessary inoculastreet.

The building is to be construc- tions to enter the first grade next ted with two major wings, pri- fall, Miss Averitt said, it is urmary and elementary, connected gent the children be enrolled now by a long covered walkway with in order to determine the number a multiple - purpose room and of children entering first grades offices in the center. The building is to face Ram-term. Number of pupils determat opening of the 1955-56 school

DISCHARGED

Sylvia Stacy, 14, who was seriously injured in an automobile accident on Bessemer

City highway March 5, was seur street (to the west), with ines the number of teachers needed for the 1955-56 school term. a cafeteria and kitchen wing on the back side. The primary wing, Children must be six years old which is to house eight classby October 15 to enroll in the 1955-56 school term. rooms, is to be on the south side facing a proposed extension of Bridges street. The proposed extension of Bridges street would connect with North Piedmont avenue. The six - room elementary discharged from Kings Mounwing is to be on the north side. tain hospital Wednesday. at which point a possible future addition is planned. At that time two of the rooms to be construc-Kings Mountain Hospital Is Again ted now would become a library. The proposed library rooms will be partitioned at present to provide two classrooms. The primary wing, with an outdoor classroom on each the east and west side, will be comed an operating profit of $8,852.- cost $53,033.36, pharmaceuticals pleted, with no additions to-96 for the year ending December $10,609.03, X-ray work cost $5,wards the Bridges street exten-31, report of George G. Scott & 708.74, and laboratory expenses sion contemplated. Company, Charlotte certified pub- totaled $7,724.77. A 10-foot walk is to be con-lic accountants shows. structed from the school to The hospital, on the basis of tal agencies, voluntary contribu-Piedmont avenue at Fairview street.

previous auditing procedure, tions and non-hospital services to-would have showed a much lar- taled $9,783.12 and slightly ex-Some 31,000 square feet is ger profit on its 1954 operations, planned in the new building, Business Manager Grady Howard cost represented by the deprecianoted. For the first time, the au- tion charge-off. which will house a large number of students now attending Cenditors charged off depreciation tral and East Elementary expenses, in 1954 amounting to schools. The multi-purpose room $9,277.63. The profit figure, is to be used as an auditorium fore depreciation, was $18,130.59. During 1954, the Scott report seating around 450 persons. stage will be included and the board plans to construct the room to a size suitable for an elementary basketball court. Other rooms in the center portion are to be a teacher lounge and work room, a general office counts totaling $27,090.49, leaving ings, and equipment, and advanand a principal's office. Toilets net income of $156,423.06. are included in both the primary Operating expenses totaled 047, for a total of $380,581.35. and elementary wings. $148,075.59, including administrative costs of $15,290.41, dietary The preliminary plans were forwarded to Raleigh costs of $22,019.03, house and pro-Tuesday perty expenses of $14,621.42, and and await approval of state school board committees before profession and services of $96,bids will be asked. Supt. B. N. 144.73. The hospital's 1954 laundry bill totaled $4,717.30, house-Barnes said that he and Architect Cothran are to meet with keeping required $3,823.27, and on Medical and surgical expenses to- $356,769.37.

(published in today's Herald, page 5, section 2) shows, the hospital had gross income from patients of $183,513.55. From this figure was deducted charity allowances, discounts, and bad ac-would not seek re-election. and third place winners, while Mr. Webster, a former employ- tri-color awards will be given to ee of Elmer Lumber Company, the outstanding Horticulture and joined the city several months arrangement exhibits. A sweepago as gas tap salesman. He stakes award will be awarded to

First Presbyterian church, and of the Loval Order of Moose.

election momentarily.

In Black, Audit For 1954 Shows

There were numerous

Continued On Page Ten

Income items from governmenceeded the newly added operating

Assets

$433,470.51, and a surplus or ne

Included in the assets total are operating fund cash-on-hand of $12,578.05 and accounts receiva-

The plant fund had cash-onces to architects totaling $366,- ving a surplus of $42,889.16.

worth at $398,933.06.

ble of $30,371.56.

has since been assigned a num- the winner of the most blue ribber of duties, including inspec- bons in the show, tion of buildings and other in-Admission is 50 cents for adults stallations. He is a member of and 10 cents for children. the Kings Mountain Lions club, candidates. Ben H. Bridges, Jr., The board of city commissionsaid he would not be a candidate ers bought two dump trucks and for Ward 4 commissioner. C. E. confirmed street-paving assess-Warlick said he would not be a ments totaling $7,416.18 at a specandidate for Ward 3 commiscial session Wednesday, March 16. sioner. Paul McGinnis said he The board awarded the contracts for purchase of two twoton dump trucks on low bid of $2,-532.15 each to North Carolina Equipment Company, of Charlotte. The trucks will be Chevrolets with Galion dump equipment. N. C. Equipment Company edged the only other bidder, Bak er Equipment Company, of Char-Kings Mountain hospital show- taled $19,068.83, nursing service lotte, which had offered the trucks at $2,537.03 each, a difference of only $4.97 per truck, or $10.94 on the total purchase.

Mrs. Sam Davis and Mrs. George Houser are serving a cochairmen of the show.

The street assessment confirmation action was a carry-over from the March 3 meeting, when public hearing on the scroll had been advertised. The assessment scroll was adopted with two omissions from the hearing notice ad-Continued On Page Ten

The Scott statement showed to Vickers Managing tal assets at December 31 of Roses Dime Store

R. E. Vickers, of Lebanon Tenn., is the new manager of Roses Five & Ten Stores. He assumed his duties Monday, and hand of $14,534.35, land, build his family expects to move here during the weekend.

Fred Haitcox, former manager of the store, moved with his fami-Operating fund liabilities to ly last weekend to Lebanon, taled $10,725.47, including ac- where he assumes management counts payable, accrued salaries of the Lebanon store.

Mr. Vickers' wife is the former and wages, and payroll taxes, lea-Miss Ellie Mae White, of Hurst-Plant fund liabilities listed the ville. They have two children, depreciation reserve and a re- Lou, age 8, and Roy Vickers, age keeping required $3,823.27, and serve for plant improvements of 6. He has served as manager of plant operation cost $6,080.85. $14,534.35, leaving a surplus of Five & Ten stores for the past 17 years.

nuigs mountains Leading Jewelers directly behind the school building. Supt. B. N. Barnes told the Phone Communications Situation

unit as superior, and that the band played in the highest group

(IV) represented at the district

enne" and "New Colonial March".

Members making the trip were:

and Janice Gladden.

Flutes - Elizabeth Crawford

Clarinets - Jean Arthur, Flem

Mauney, Mason Hughes, Scotty

Wise, Rose Malcolm, Judy Early,

Continued On Page Ten

Board Discusses

Land Purchases

festival.