

"Justice" Meant Suspended Term

William Moore, Kings Mountain Negro, only wanted "justice" from Judge Jack White because of his six children, and received a six-month suspended sentence on a charge of illegal possession of non-tax paid whiskey for beverage purposes in City recorder's court Monday afternoon. Moore plead guilty.

A second charge against Moore, driving a vehicle after revocation of driver's license, was continued until counsel for the defendant could be present.

The defendant said the white liquor found in his home by Kings Mountain Police officers had been purchased for a party. Sentence for Moore was suspended on condition that he be of good behavior for six months, pay a $25 fine and costs of court.

Oscar Gladden, Jr., of Gantt street, was found guilty of abandonment and non-support of his wife, Katherine Gladden, and four children. Gladden, who plead not guilty, received a six-month road sentence, suspended on condition that he pay $20 each week to the clerk of court for the support of his wife and children as long as the couple are separated, be of good behavior for six months, and pay costs of court. Mrs. Gladden testified that for the past several months her husband has not properly provided for her and the four children.

A. J. Powell submitted to a charge of issuing a worthless check in the amount of $10 and received a 30-day road sentence. Powell's sentence was suspended on condition that he pay the amount of the worthless check and costs of court. The check was made payable to cash and had been endorsed by Bessemer City
