Woman's Club Meeting To Be Held Thursday

The Kings Mountain Woman's Club will hold its first general meeting of the year Thursday evening at 7:30 p. m. at the Woman's club, Mrs. Wilson Crawford, publicity chairman, said Tuesday.

It will be a joint meeting of all departments in the club. New members will be recognized and a business session will be held in addition to a program on "Our Federation and How To Be A Good Club Member." Mrs. E. W. Griffin is program chairman.

The Fine Arts Department, of which Mrs. Luther Cansler is chairman, will serve refreshments.

Mrs. Davis Hostess To Duplicate Club

Duplicate Bridge club members met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Sam Davis.

Bridge prizes went to Mrs. Paul Hendricks, who scored high, and to Mrs. Drace Peeler, who received second-high.

Between progressions, the hostess served a dessert plate with tea.

Joint Meeting Monday Of ARP Church Circles

A joint meeting of the Boyce Memorial ARP church circles will be held at the church Monday evening at 7 o'clock.

The meeting is sponsored by the Woman's Missionary Society with a covered dish supper to be served prior to the business meetings.

Miss Anne Dilling returned Monday to Limestone college, Gaffney, S. C., where she is a member of the sophomore class. She was accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Dilling.

Kings Mountain Women To Be Host To Church Women's Institute Thursday

The Kings Mountain Council of Churchwomen will be hosts Thursday (today) to an inter-denominational meeting of all church women in Western North Carolina at St. Matthew's Lutheran church.

Mrs. J. B. Simpson, president of the local organization, said the one-day institute would feature programs and discussions of all phases of church work for women and leaders of women. Registration begins at 9:30 a. m. with the meeting to get underway at 10 o'clock. Adjournment will be at 3 p. m.

Each person is asked to prepare sandwiches for her own lunch but drinks will be furnished by the sponsoring organization, Mrs. Simpson noted.

Program speakers will include

Mrs. J. Wilbur Burn, of Raleigh, state chairman of Christian World Missions, and a prominent church woman and a past president of the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs, Mrs. L. L. Lehr, of Raleigh, Kings Mountain native and chairman of migrant works and a past president of North Carolina Church Women, Mrs. Guy Johnson, of Chapel Hill, chairman of the committee on Christian social relations for United Church Women, and Mrs. E. L. Hillman, of Siler City, president of North Carolina United Church Women, and state chairman of leadership education.

Mrs. Simpson invited all area women to attend the session. It is the first institute to be held in Kings Mountain, she added.

Mrs. Cleveland Yawn, Recent Bride Is Honored Here At Sunday Reception

Mrs. Herman Yawn and Mrs. W. J. Spivey entertained Sunday afternoon at the Spivey home on Piedmont avenue at a tea complementing Mrs. Charles Cleveland Yawn, a recent bride.

Mrs. Yawn is the former Miss Jennie Lou Hartsell, of Concord.

Guests were welcomed by Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Roberts, and Mrs. Spivey, aunt of Mr. Yawn, introduced the receiving line which included the couple and their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Yawn, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Hartsell, of Concord.

Miss Gussie Huffstetler presided at the refreshment table where Miss Annie Roberts, Mrs. J. E. Mauney, Mrs. Paul Cole, and Mrs. Andy Huffstetler served punch, individual green and pink cakes and mints.

Mrs. M. C. Amos received at a table which held an album of photographs taken at the wedding and directed callers to the wedding at the register, Mr. and Mrs. James Martin, who recently moved here from St. Petersburg, Fla., directed guests to the den where goodbyes were said to Mr.

and Mrs. C. F. Stowe, Jr., and Mrs. C. F. Stowe, Sr.

A color note of green and pink was observed in the decorations. The refreshment table, covered with an imported maderia linen cloth, was centered with a bowl of purple asters and greenery flanked by a crystal punch bowl and green and pink bride's cakes in silver platters. White tapers completed table appointments.

A green and white arrangement of cut flowers and clematis centered the mantel in the living room, while the register table, covered with a white linen cloth, held an arrangement of yellow marigolds and greenery. A wicker basket of ivy and bachelor buttons provided decoration in the den.

The honoree wore a gold silk dress with a corsage of yellow rosebuds, a gift of the hostesses.

The ninety guests, who called between the hours of four and half after five o'clock, included Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fink and daughter, and Miss Harriet Hartsell, all of Concord, Miss Jane Johnson and Douglas Collins, both of Charlotte, Mrs. E. H.
