Jack Moss, operator of Uncle highway, was knocked unconsci ous and robbed of approximately $75 Tuesday morning by an uni dentified customer.

According to Cleveland County officers, Moss was getting some meat for the robber when he was struck from behind, His assailant then dragged him into a rest room, locked him in, and left him. Moss reported to the officers that about $75 was missing from the cash drawer when he recovered consciousness. Sheriff's department deputies working on the case reported Wednesday that no arrest had been made, but that several persons had been questioned about the robbery. It was reported that the robber was driving a convertable automobile with North Carolina December 5, according to Fred license plates. The car was said Plonk, chairman of the recreato be either a 1946-47 Plymouth or tion commission. 1946-48 Ford.

Board Legalizes Chief's Talkbox

It's now legal for the city police chief to use a loud speaker, a law he's been breaking consistently

Last Thursday, the board of commissioners amended the ordinance preventing the use of outdoor loud speakers within the city limits by adding the words, "The ordinance is not to apply to city affairs under the direction of the police department."

The chief's auto is equipped with a loud speaker.
