Project of the Junior class is "Spot Light on Junior Month." During January and February the Junior mothers have honored their sons and daughters with a round of social activities; a tea was given by Mrs. Lawyer Quinn at her home in the Compact community, January 15th for her daughter Yvonne, and Daisy Bryd.

On January 20th a trip around the world was sponsored by Timothy Goode, class president, Patricia Dye, Ann Mitchem and Andrew Brown. Each home represented a different part of the world. Many interesting games were played, and a variety of food was served. Parents who helped to make the evening a success were Mr. and Mrs. Isreal Goode, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Dye, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Brown, and Mrs. Annie L. Byrd. Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Gill, Misses Lestina and Equilla Williams.

An "Orange Slip" was given by Mrs. C. A. Adams, Mrs. Margaret Miller and Mrs. Whinstant on January 27th at Mrs. Adams' home on Gold Mine Road. Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. C. Jewell and Mrs. Delcina Morgan.

A coke party was given on January 21st by Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Erwin for their daughter, Susie.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayman Brown entertained thirty-six juniors and their friends at a "Drop-In" Sunday February 13. Among friends and parents present were Miss Annell Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Brown, Jr., Mr. J. S. Burris and Mr. C. A. Adams. The Browns' son Andrew, is the vice president of the Junior class.

The Junior class has issued invitations to a cupid and heart benefit dance to be held at the Compact school on Friday even-

January Arrest Sheet Totals 88

A total of 88 persons were arrested and processed through Kings Mountain City Police headquarters during the month of January, according to a police report made this week.

As usual, public drunkenness led the list with 35 arrests for this offense. Motor vehicle violators were second with a total of 27 defendants being arrested.

Four persons were arrested for violation of prohibition laws; while three each were charged with non-support and drunk driving. Next on the list, with two violations each, were charges of worthless checks, assault on a female, capias, and investigation. One defendant each was booked on breaking and entering, larceny of auto, larceny of money, resisting an officer, escape, crime against nature, contributing to the delinquency of a minor, and failure to pay taxi fare counts.

January's report showed a decrease from December's arrests, which numbered approximately 100.
