Mrs. Haywood Lynch On Radio Program

Mrs. Haywood E. Lynch appeared recently on the Rocky Mount radio program, "Behind the Story—from near and far" in an interview by Miss Margy Staton, radio reporter.

Mrs. Lynch had accompanied her mother to Rocky Mount with the Lynch family.

Questioned about Kings Mountain, Mrs. Lynch also talked with Miss Staton about the Woman's club and the Doll Festival staged here by the Woman's organization. According to Miss Staton, Rocky Mount's club had been very successful in its doll show presentation, and Mrs. Lynch invited Miss Staton to come to Kings Mountain next April to discuss with the local club organization of a doll festival.

Miss Staton talked with Mrs. Lynch about the State convention which Mrs. Lynch attended in Durham and of the election of Mrs. Aubrey Mauney to the office of state federation president. "Speaking on the air about Kings Mountain and our talented Woman's club president, Mrs. Mauney, was a thrill and quite a distinct honor," says Mrs. Lynch. She adds, "It was something I knew about and something I was very proud to talk about."

Radio reporter for Station WC-EC, Rocky Mount, Miss Staton is the author of two books, "Let's Talk About You" and "How To Win Your Life's Companion." She was formerly associated with the Washington Herald, Washington, D. C., and served as chairman of membership of the Woman's Press Club of New York during 1948-49.

Mrs. Lynch is an active member of Kings Mountain Woman's club, currently serving as first vice-president.
