Miss Yates Honored At Party Saturday

The Young Ladies' Sunday School class of Bethlehem Baptist church honored Miss Doris Yates, bride-elect, at a party Saturday evening in Bethlehem community center.

Miss Yates and Ken Smith, of Shelby, are to be married September 16th in Bethlehem church. Bridal games and contests were directed by Mrs. Bill Wells before the hostesses served decorated cakes with sandwiches, potato chips, and punch.

Miss Yates wore a light blue dress with a shoulder corsage of white carnations, gift of the hostesses.

Thirty-five guests attended and gave the honoree a shower of miscellaneous household gifts.

"Angel Melba Pie" Is Weekend Dessert

A luscious dessert that needs to be made a day ahead is just the ticket for week-end company. The meringue shell for this "Angel Melba Pie" softens on standing overnight in the refrigerator so it's easy to serve, and it literally melts in your mouth.

Juicy, golden canned cling peach slices with a glaze of raspberries fills it deliciously! If you want to use fresh instead of frozen raspberries, all you need to do is add more sugar to taste.

Angel Melba Pie

Shell:

- 3 egg whites
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon cream of tartar
- 1/2 cup sugar

Filling:

- 2 cups canned cling peach slices
- Glaze:
- 1/2 cup frozen raspberries (with syrup)
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- 1 tablespoon cornstarch

Shell: Beat egg whites with salt and cream of tartar until stiff but not dry. Gradually beat in sugar. Pipe lightly into well-greased eight-inch pie plate. Bake at 275 degrees for about one hour and 15 minutes. Cool, then chill overnight in refrigerator.

Filling: Drain peaches thoroughly and arrange in meringue shell.

Glaze: Heat raspberries. Add sugar and cornstarch blended together, and cook and stir until clear and thickened. Cool slightly and pour over peaches. Chill and serve. This recipe serves six hungry people.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Wilkins, Jr., welcomed guests and Mrs. Joe Carroll introduced the receiving line which included the couple, their parents, and the wedding party. Mrs. W. C. Moore presided at the register, and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Patrick received in the gift room.

Punch was served by Mrs. Clyde Borders, and assisting in receiving and entertaining were Mrs. Milford Smith, of Clinton, Mrs. W. C. Jones, Mrs. Bennett Wilson, and Mrs. Lee Lavender. Misses Susie Wilkins and Gail Smith gave guests match booklets as mementoes of the occasion, and goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Neal.

Traditional bridal colors of green and white were observed in the decorations. The bride's table, overlaid with a cutwork linen cloth, held a three-tier wedding cake flanked by lighted tapers and greenery. Cakes, nuts, and mints were served with punch.

Mrs. Yarbro, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Richard Carroll of Blacksburg, S. C., is a spring graduate of Limestone college, Gaffney, S. C., where she was a member of Kappa Kappa Kappa, Kappa Delta Epsilon, educational sororities.

Mr. Yarbro, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Ryburn Yarbro, Sr., of Kings Mountain recently completed two years service in the army. Prior to his enlistment, he attended North Carolina State college at Raleigh.

For a trip to the mountains of Western North Carolina and Tennessee, Mrs. Yarbro wore a navy blue ensemble with blue and gold accessories and the orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet.

The couple will make their home at 700 West Mountain street, Kings Mountain, where Mrs. Yarbro will be a member of the elementary school faculty and Mr. Yarbro will return to his position as chemist at Foote Mineral company.

Several parties held prior to the wedding honored Mrs. Yarbro.

Mrs. T. D. Wilkins, Jr., was hostess August 23rd at a luncheon in the Pine room of Hotel Carroll, at Gaffney, S. C. A color note of green and white was observed in the decorations. The table, covered with a green linen cloth, held a miniature bride and bridesmaids. Place cards were miniature wedding bells. The hostess remembered the honoree with a gift of china in her selected pattern.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Lavender, of Earl, uncle and aunt of the bride, were hostesses at a rehearsal party at their home last Thursday evening. White carnations, greenery, and wedding bells decorated the living room, and bridal cakes iced in green, nuts, and mints were served with punch.

Mrs. J. D. Patrick, Mrs. Clyde Borders, Mrs. Jake Hord, Jr., of Kings Mountain, and Mrs. Carl Neal were hostesses at a bridesmaids luncheon for Mrs. Yarbro the morning of August 24th in the Blue room of Hotel Carroll, at Gaffney, S. C. The luncheon was for bridesmaids in the Carroll-Yarbro wedding.

Joe Meek Ormand, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ormand, left Tuesday for San Antonio, Tex., where he will receive air force basic training at Lackland Air Force Base.

Miss June Rogers Married Saturday To Joseph C. Knox In Church Rites

Marriage vows between Miss June Rogers and Joseph Clyde Knox, Jr., of Wilmington and Fort Knox, Ky., were exchanged Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock in an all-white ceremony in Charlotte's Dilworth Methodist church.

The bride, of Kings Mountain and Charlotte, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie William Rogers, of Charlotte. Mr. Knox is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Clyde Knox, Sr., of Wilmington.

Officiating minister was the Rev. Harlan Creech, pastor of the church, who read the impressive ritual for the couple.

Traditional wedding music was presented by Miss Peggy Daniel and Fleet Kirkpatrick, organists, and Oliver Cook, vocalist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an original gown of white chantilly lace over satin. The dress featured a molded basque, long sleeves that tapered to points over the hands, and yoke of illusion with standing mandarin lace collar embroidered with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. Tiny buttons fastened the dress in the back. The bouffant skirt, accented by side cascades of tiny, white tulle ruffles, fell to the floor and extended into an aisle-wide train. Her two-tiered fingertip veil of Princess Elizabeth silk illusion was attached to a pearl tiara. She carried a white Holy Bible topped with a white orchid showered with valley lilies and ribbon streamers.

Mrs. James Guy McCann, of Dobson, was her sister's matron of honor, and bridesmaids included Mrs. Addie Allen, of Asheboro, Miss Toby Barrier, of Independence, Va., Miss Almeria Gordon, of Spray, Mrs. Robert Massengill, of Raleigh, Miss Kay Salzman, of Charlotte, and Mrs. Ray Vargas, of Fayetteville.

Attendants wore dresses of white crystallette styled with fitted basques, scoop necklines, three-quarter length sleeves, and bouffant skirts. They carried

Shipmans Celebrate 50th Anniversary At Family Gathering Here Last Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Shipman celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday, September 2nd, at an anniversary dinner attended by their children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren.

MRS. JAMES RYBURN YARBRO, JR.

Miss Martha Sue Carroll Wed August 24 To James R. Yarbro In Church Ceremony

Miss Martha Sue Carroll of Blacksburg, S. C., and James Ryburn Yarbro, Jr., of Kings Mountain, exchanged marriage vows last Friday evening, August 24th, at eight o'clock in Blacksburg, S. C., First Baptist church.

Rev. James P. Stokes, pastor of the church, read the double-ring ritual for the couple.

Emerald palms, simlax, and ferns and a candle arch of white tapers in wrought-iron candelabras provided background decoration.

Wedding music was presented by Mrs. James P. Stokes, organist, and Mrs. Bill Gibbons, of Gaffney, S. C., vocalist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a princess line gown of white cloque designed by Jacques Fath. It featured a bateau neckline ornated in sequins and pearls and long fitted sleeves that extended to points over the hands. The flared skirt fell to the floor and extended into a circular chapel train. Her headpiece, designed by Edward Berger, was a Juliet of dupioni silk lavished with lace medallions sprinkled with sequins and pearls. The attached veil was of nylon illusion and covered the entire length of her train. She carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids and bride's roses.

Mrs. Joe Hood, of Ridgeway, S. C., was matron of honor, and Miss Peggy Jones, of Newton, N. C., was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Anne Sparks, of Spartanburg, S. C., Miss Catherine Yount, of Newton, Mrs. Jake Hord, Jr., of Kings Mountain, Miss Barbara Borders of Earl, cousin of the bride, Mrs. Al Bumgardner, of Boone, and Miss Betty Lou Neal, of Blacksburg, S. C.
