MRS. CLYDE DEWEY BOSWELL

Miss Betty Sue Diffie Wed Sunday To Clyde Boswell In Church Rites

Miss Betty Sue Diffie and Clyde Dewey Boswell, both of Elon College, N. C., were married Sunday afternoon at four o'clock in a beautiful and impressive ceremony in Elon College Fairview Methodist church.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Roy Diffie, Sr., of Elon College, N. C., is the niece of Miss Grace Davis, Mrs. D. L. Saunders, and Mrs. D. E. Britt, all of Kings Mountain.

Rev. M. Dewey Tyson, minister of the church, officiated at the double-ring ceremony before an altar banked with palms, white gladioli, and white tapers. A white satin-covered kneeling bench completed the decorations.

Wedding music was presented by Mrs. Ralph Davis, of Elon College, organist, and Mrs. Thomas Griffin, of Graham, and John L. Amick, of Elon College, vocalists.

Organ selections included "Liebestraum" by Liszt, "Trameret" and "Romance" by Schumann, "I Love Thee" by Grieg, "O Promise Me" by deKoven, "Arioso" by Bach, and the traditional marches by Wagner and Mendelssohn.

Mrs. Griffin sang, "Through the Years" by Youmans, and "I'll Walk with God" by Brodsky. Mr. Amick sang, "Sweetest Story Ever Told" by Stults and he and Mrs. Griffin sang, "My Hero" by Straus.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white chantilly lace and tulle over satin. The dress featured a fitted basque with scalloped, scoop neckline and fitted sleeves that ended at points at the wrists. The full skirt of lace with scalloped hemline ended in a chapel train. Her veil of illusion was attached to a fitted headpiece, and she carried a white prayerbook topped with a white orchid from which extended ribbon streamers.

Mrs. Bill Diffie, of Elon College, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor, and Miss Shirley Underwood, of Elon College, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Carol Jones, Mrs. Bill Roach, both of Elon College, Mrs. Hilda Brooks, of Chatham, Va., and Miss Eva Boswell, of Chatham, Va., sisters of the groom.

Attendants wore ballerina-length dresses of aqua crystaletta made with draped necklines, fitted bodices, and flared skirts. They carried bouquets of bronze mums.

Little Miss Robin Saunders, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David D. Saunders of Kings Mountain, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Her dress of white tulle was made with low, ruffled neckline, fitted bodice, and tiered hooped skirt. She carried a flower basket of rose petals.

Honorary bridesmaids were Mrs. Bill Wrenn, Mrs. Eddie Ross, Mrs. Elwood Ray, and Mrs. Ralph Isley, all of Burlington.

Roger Boswell, of Chatham, Va., was his cousin's best man, and ushers were Bill Diffie, of Elon College, brother of the bride, Larry Barnes, Gurney Baines, both of Portsmouth, Va., Julian Boswell, of Durham, cousin of the bride, and Billy Forrester, of Burlington.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Diffie, wore a dress of royal blue lace with accessories in dusty rose. Mrs. Boswell, mother of the groom, wore a navy dress with matching accessories. Each of the mothers wore a shoulder corsage of white orchids.

Mrs. Boswell was graduated from Altamahaw-Ossipee high school and is employed as a teller at Security National Bank, of Burlington.

Mr. Boswell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Dewey Boswell, of Chatham, Va., received his A. B. degree from Elon college and is a member of the Elon college faculty. He is a member of Sigma Phi Beta fraternity.

Following a week's wedding trip, the couple will reside at 1017 Ingle street, Burlington.
