Miss Bernice Ross returned to New York City Monday after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Ross and her brother, John L. Ross, who will leave for overseas duty soon.
Mrs. Daisy Lee Smith had as her guest last week her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ella Smith Carter, of Philadelphia, Pa. Mrs. Carter made several calls to see and chat with some of her friends whom she has known for many years. She returned to her home Monday.

There will be a fish fry and weiner roast Friday night at the home of Mrs. Eugenia Brown on the lawn, given by the Secret Sisters Society. The proceeds will be used for the Gold Ladies Hospital Club.

There will be a group singing at St. Paul Methodist church Sunday night at 7:30 p. m. The Friendly Five and the Dawkins Brothers, Shady Grove Chorus, and the Gallilee Community chorus. Everyone is cordially invited to come and enjoy the singing.

Woman Charged After Shooting

Mrs. Mianie Crosby, Negress of route 1, Kings Mountain, was charged with assault with a deadly weapon following the shooting of another Negro, Robert Oglesby, at the Crosby home last week.

Oglesby was shot three times with a .22 caliber pistol, and is a patient at Kings Mountain Hospital. His condition is not considered serious.

According to reports, the injured man had been ordered away from the Crosby home by Mr. Crosby, and when he returned, Mrs. Crosby fired at him five times with the pistol.

Oglesby is charged with assault on a female, and trial of the two cases is expected to be held as soon as the wounded man is released from the hospital. Mrs. Crosby is free under $200 bond.

Kiwanis Carnival Set October 6

The annual Kings Mountain Kiwanis Club Carnival will be held October 6, at 7 p. m. on the Dean Motor Company car lot, according to an announcement by President B. S. Peeler, Jr.

This will mark the second year that the local organization has sponsored the Carnival and auction sale. Proceeds are used in the Kiwanis Club's community projects.
