Bible Comment: Revelation's Vision Is Attainable

It is a glorious picture that the saint-prophet-poet who wrote the Book of Revelation paints for us in his description of the New Jerusalem.

It is instructive that the writer represents the Holy City, the New Jerusalem, as "coming down." In his conception there is to be an earthly realization of God's triumph; it is not merely a matter of earth ascending toward heaven. The picture that he gives is in striking contrast with the earth and world as we know it.

For those to whom the author of the book was writing, even with their Christian faith and fortitude, the world was a place of sorrow and trial. Yet God was to wipe away the tear from every eye; there would be no more death, no mourning or crying.

Instructive also is the fact that the seer saw no temple or church in the Holy City. The city itself had become the Church. All of life in this New Jerusalem was holy, and all its relationships were the relationships of worship and truth.

Is this only a dream, or is it something for the attainment of which men may live and work and pray? Shall we see the nations walking in the midst of the light of this Holy City and the kings of the earth bringing their glory into it?

It is a vision that has been realized in the lives of some men. There are those who have lived unselfishly and nobly in the spirit of a world made perfect. If it has been realized for some, is not this the hope that may be realized for others and that earth and heaven shall yet truly meet in the New Jerusalem?

If the whole of humanity were as good as some good men whom we have seen and known, the dream would be realizable. Who can say that humanity may yet, be as good as those who represent humanity at its best?

Boy Scout News

Scout Troop 11 met at Central Methodist church for our first meeting of the year on Monday September 17, 1956. The meeting was called to order by President Sara Hendricks. The laws and Promise were said, then Sara asked the Secretary, Pattie Howard to call the roll and take up dues. Afterwards the President asked if there were any business to be taken up. After the business our leaders, Mrs. Delbert Dixon and Mrs. Bruce Thorburn told us our plans for the following year. The president adjourned the meeting.

The University of North Carolina School of Medicine is one of the units making up the UNC Division of Health Affairs. Other units within the DHA are N. C. Memorial Hospital and the Schools of Dentistry, Nursing, Pharmacy and Public Health.
