Miss Carolyn Bell Married Saturday To Jay H. Patterson In Church Rites

Miss Carolyn Geneva Bell and Jay Hart Patterson, Jr., both of Kings Mountain, exchanged marriage vows Saturday evening at six o'clock in a candlelight wedding ceremony in Oak Grove Baptist church.

The Rev. James Holder, minister of the church, was assisted by the Rev. Arnold Bell, uncle of the bride, in performing the double-ring ceremony. Vows were said before a background of greenery interspersed by cathedral tapers in wrought-iron candelabras and floor baskets of white gladiolus. Tapers in the church windows and a satin-covered prie-dieu completed the decoration.

Wedding music was rendered by Mrs. Aubrey Mauney, pianist, and B. S. Peeler, vocalist.

Selections by Mrs. Mauney included "Largo" by Handel, "Ave Maria" by Schubert, "Arabesque" by Debussy, "Moonlight Sonata," the first movement, by Beethoven, "O Lord Most Holy" by Franck, and "O Perfect Love" by Barnby.

Mr. Peeler sang "Sweetest Story Ever Told" by Stults, "Because" by d'Hardelot, and the benediction selection, "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte. Traditional marches by Wagner and Mendelssohn were used for professional and recessional music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown designed by Maurer of rosepoint chantilly-type lace and nylon tulle over slipper satin. The dress featured a lace bodice accented by scalloped necklines outlined in iridescent sequins and long pointed sleeves. Crystal pleated ruffles complemented the very full skirt which was fashioned with front and back panels of lace which formed a chapel train. Her triple-tier veil of illusion was attached to a tiara of pearls and she wore a single strand of pearls, gift of the groom. She carried a white prayerbook topped with a white purple-throated orchid from which extended satin streamers.

Miss Nancy Bell, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Mrs. Giles Bell, aunt of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Betty Ann Bell, aunt of the bride, Miss Juanita Lovelace, Miss Becky Thornburg, cousins of the bride, Miss Jeanne Plonk, cousin of the groom, and Miss Kay Ellen Isley, of Burlington, cousin of the groom.

Frankie Hamrick and Ann Hamrick, cousins of the bride, were junior attendants. Flower girls were Nadine Bell and Annie Ray Williams, cousins of the bride.

The attendants wore floor-length dresses of amber iridescent taffeta. The gowns featured snug-fitting bodices accented by low scooped necklines, brief sleeves and bouffant skirts complemented by butterfly bustles. They wore white gloves and matching pearl tiaras with nose veils. Their colonial nosegays were of blending shades of gladiolus interspersed by valley lilies tied with matching satin ribbon.

Jay Hart Patterson, was best man for his son, and ushers included John Butler Plonk, uncle of the groom, David Plonk, cousin of the groom, Jacob Dixon, and Giles Bell, cousin of the bride.

Jack Bell, cousin of the bride, was ringbearer. The bride's mother, Mrs. Bell, wore a blue braided sheath dress trimmed in rhinestones with winter white accessories. Mrs. Patterson, mother of the groom, wore blue lace and chiffon trimmed in rhinestones and pearls with sequin hat. Each of the mothers wore a corsage of purple orchids.

Mrs. Paul Bell and Mrs. Bill McGinnis presided at the register. After receiving in the church vestibule, the couple left for a trip to Florida. For traveling, Mrs. Patterson wore a beige wool-fitted suit with brown accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Patterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace L. Bell, was graduated from Bethware high school and is employed in the offices of Margrace Mill here.

Mr. Patterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Patterson, was graduated from Kings Mountain high school and is employed by Lithium Corporation of America.

Traditional bridal colors of green and white were observed in the decoration. White cutwork and linen cloths covered the refreshment tables. Decorations on the bride's table featured the green and white wedding cake, two large handmade candles tied with satin ribbon, and nosegays of gladiolus and lilies of the valley. Candles, white satin bows, and wedding bells together with the punch service were used on the punch table. White satin rings, wedding bells, and candles decorated the mantel and piano.

Mrs. Wray Plonk cut and served the cake. Punch was poured by Mrs. Bobby Ware. Salted nuts were served with cake and punch.
