Bethany Pastor Accepts New Post

George S. Lauderdale, pastor of Bethany A.M.E. Church near Clover, S. C., will leave next month for his home county and state to assume the pastorate of Ebenezer and Spring Valley congregations in Rockbridge County near Lexington, Va. Mr. Lauderdale began preaching at Bethany in September 1951, in his senior year at Erskine Theological Seminary.

A pulpit committee was selected Sunday by the congregation composed of G. T. Davidson, J. Cohen Davidson and C. P. Barry. Mr. Lauderdale served as superintendent of Missions of Catawba Presbytery during his Bethany pastorate. He also began the circulation of a weekly religious feature column, "Missions Messages", which is now being carried by newspapers in four Southern states and in religious journals here and in the Midwest. In 1954 he conducted a radio Bible study broadcast on WKMT.

Student Council Held Last Meeting

The Student Council of K. M. H. S. had its final meeting of the school year on Monday, May 20th. President James Pressly called the meeting to order and secretary Jane Byars call the roll and read the minutes. A final report was made by each committee chairman concerning the work of his committees this year.
