

Society

Elizabeth Stewart, Editor

Phone 167

MRS. JOSIAH MILLER BUTLER

Miss Mary Jane Sisk Married Friday To Josiah M. Butler In Church Rites

BESSEMER CITY—The First Baptist church was the scene of a lovely wedding on Friday afternoon, August 2, at 5 o'clock of Miss Mary Jane Sisk and Josiah Miller Butler.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Franklin Sisk are the parents of the bride, and Mr. Butler is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Butler of Elizabeth City.

Rev. J. L. Teague, grandfather of the bride, and the Rev. A. A. Bailey, pastor of the bride, officiated, using the double-ring ceremony.

Vows were spoken before a background of palms, seven-branched candelabra set with white tapers and floor baskets of white gladioli and snapdragons. A white wrought-iron arch was interspersed with ferns and white rosebuds, and the choir loft held an arch of white candles which accentuated the cross of the organ chamber.

Mrs. D. V. Matthews, organist, and Mrs. L. C. Ward, soloist, presented the nuptial music. Mrs. Matthews played "Ave Maria" by Schubert; "Jesu, Joy of Mans Desiring," by Bach; and "To a Wild Rose," by MacDowell. Attendants entered during the processional "Trumpet Voluntary in D Major" by Purcell, and traditional marches were used for the bride. "Claire de Lune" by Debussy, was heard as pledges were spoken.

Mrs. Ward's numbers were "Be-cause" by de Hardelot; "If God Left Only You," by Densmore, and for the benediction, "Prayer Perfect" by Stenson.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a Maurer original of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle. The fitted bodice of ivory over white satin was embroidered with iridescent sequins and seed pearls. The high neckline of net was appliqued with lace, and long fitted sleeves ended in points over the hands. Buttoned to below the waist-line in the back with tiny self-covered buttons, the pointed bodice was caught to a full skirt created of alternate tiers of lace and tulle, which ended in a chapel length train. Her cap of Chantilly lace, pearls, and sequins was dropped with a double tier veil of imported net, and she carried a nosegay of white roses.

Miss Elizabeth Sisk, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Mrs. Ted Barnett, sister of the bride of Charlotte, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Jane Linder of Bessemer City, and Miss Wilba Alexander, of Monroe.

All the attendants wore identical Jenny Prince original formal of ice blue crystallette and nylon net. The strapless bodices, bustle bows, and back panels were of crystallette, and the fronts were shirred nylon net which formed bouffant billows ending in double tiers. They had matching net stoles, bandeau of shirred net trimmed with stephanotis, and each carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations.

Flower girls were Miss Adele Teague, cousin of the bride, and Miss Nina DeLorenzo, niece of the bridegroom. Their dresses were in ice blue crystallette and nylon net designed like those of the other attendants, and they carried net baskets filled with rose petals.

Honorary attendants were Miss Sue Suggs, Charlotte; Mrs. Robert Sigmon, Lincolnton; Mrs. Bill Lightfoot, Bessemer City; Mrs. Preston Holt, Grover; Mrs. Lindsey Stafford, Lowell; Miss Celia Tomberlin, Matthews; Miss Katherine Gabbard, Hickory; and Miss Pam Dennis, Lylesville.

Each wore a wrist bouquet of white carnations. James Butler served his brother as best man, and ushers were Jimmy Brown, Gastonia; Jerry Garrison, Lowell; Lindsey Stafford, Lowell and Steve Trudnak of Dallas.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Sisk selected toast chiffon over taffeta in sheath styling, with which she wore matching accessories. She wore a shoulder bouquet of gardenias.

Mrs. J. L. Teague, the bride's maternal grandmother, wore embroidered silk in orchid tone, white accessories and a gardenia corsage.

Mrs. George DeLorenzo of Sumter, sister of the bridegroom, wore a dress of blue chiffon over taffeta, matching blue accessories and a shoulder corsage of gardenias.

Mrs. Butler is a graduate of Bessemer City high school. She attended Gardner-Webb college and completed her education at Appalachian State Teachers college, Boone. For the past two years she has been teaching in the Lowell school system.

Mr. Butler is a graduate of the Elizabeth City high school. He attended Chowan college and graduated from Western Carolina college. For the past year he has been teaching in the Lowell high school where he also is serving as assistant coach.

For a wedding trip to Florida, Mrs. Butler wore a sheath dress of beige silk shantung with a matching jacket, toast colored accessories and the bouquet from her wedding flowers.

Upon their return, Mr. and Mrs. Butler will be at home at 1617 Poston Circle, Gastonia.

Among the out-of-town guests were J. H. Rickert and Charles Rickert, Statesville; E. S. Teague and Mrs. H. C. Fox, Hickory; Mr. and Mrs. George DeLorenzo, Sumter; Mr. and Mrs. James Butler, Florence; Mrs. Joseph Lee, Plymouth, N.C. Mr. and Mrs. Archie Layton, and Mr. and Mrs. Jake Bellenger, Merry Hill; Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Surratt and daughter, Kathy, and Mrs. G. M. Sanders, Spartanburg.

Following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a wedding supper for 60 guests.

The event was held at Bessemer City Woman's club where Mrs. J. T. Hamrick and Mrs. Pink Thorne greeted the guests. The club lounge was decorated with arrangements of white flowers and greenery. A line arrangement of chrysanthemums, gypsophylla, white roses, and fern sprays decorated the mantel. Large containers holding hydrangea completed the decoration.

A white linen cloth covered the refreshment table which was centered by roses and cut fern in a crystal bowl.

A secondary table honored Mrs. Sisk's parents, the Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Teague, on the occasion of their 53rd wedding anniversary. The table, spread with white linen was centered with an anniversary cake frosted in green and white inscribed with "53rd Anniversary."

Miss Summers Honored At Luncheon Saturday

Mrs. B. S. Neill and Mrs. R. S. Lennon entertained Saturday morning at the Neill home at a bridge-luncheon complimenting Miss Virginia Summers, bride-elect of Sunday.

Decorations in white and green were used throughout the Neill home. Bridge was played at six tables, and prizes went to Mrs. J. R. McPhail, of Charlotte, who received high score, and to Mrs. Robert Hackney, of Gastonia, who won second high.

Miss Summers wore a dress of white linen with a shoulder corsage of pink and white carnations, gift of the hostesses.

The hostesses gave Miss Summers a crystal beverage set as an honor gift.

Social Calendar

Thursday:
7:30—Fourth in a series of Study courses at Central Methodist church sponsored by the Women's Society of Christian Service.

Friday:
3:00—Friday Afternoon Bridge club, Mrs. Jack White, hostess.
6:30—Mr. and Mrs. William Herndon are entertaining at their home on Edgemont drive for Miss Virginia Summers and Lawrence Hinnant.

7:00—Rehearsal for the Davidson-Chambers wedding in First Presbyterian church.
8:00—Kings Mountain chapter 123, Order of the Eastern Star, at Masonic Hall. Rob Morris Day program. Hosts Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Caldwell.
9:00—Mrs. A. T. Randall and Mrs. Jesse Niven are entertaining in the fellowship hall of First Presbyterian church at an after-rehearsal party for the Davidson-Chambers wedding party.

Saturday:
3:00—El Bethel Methodist church Women's Society of Christian Service at El Bethel clubhouse.
4:00—The wedding of Miss Gloria Dolores Davidson and Ervin Hunter Chambers in First Presbyterian church.
4:30—Informal reception for Davidson-Chambers wedding party in the fellowship hall of First Presbyterian church. Hostesses: Mrs. S. S. Weir, Jr., and Mrs. Jack Moss.

6:30—Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Summers are entertaining at the Country club for their daughter, Miss Virginia Summers, her fiancé, Lawrence Hinnant, and the Summers-Hinnant wedding party.

8:30—Cakecutting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Herndon on Battleground avenue honoring Miss Virginia Summers and Lawrence Hinnant.

Sunday:
5:00—The wedding of Miss Virginia Eloise Summers and Lawrence Hinnant in St. Matthew's Lutheran church.

Monday:
2:45—Duplicate Bridge club, Mrs. Jacob Cooper, hostess.
3:00—Kathleen Mallory circle, of First Baptist church, Mrs. W. F. McGill, hostess.

3:30—Annle Bell circle, of St. Matthew's Lutheran church, at the church.
3:30—Ann Hasseltine circle, of First Baptist church, Mrs. C. C. Edens, hostess.

3:30—Lula Herndon circle, of First Baptist church, Mrs. Dewitt Patterson, hostess.
7:00—Elizabeth Bunyon circle, of First Baptist church, Covered dish supper. Miss Annie Roberts, hostess.

7:30—Circle 1, Resurrection Lutheran church, Mrs. Wray Plonk, hostess.
7:30—Hattie Gardner circle, of First Baptist church, Miss Beatrice Spratt, hostess.

7:30—Myrtle Derrick circle, of St. Matthew's Lutheran church, at the home of Mrs. Carl Finger.
7:30—Rachel Mitcham circle, of St. Matthew's Lutheran church, at the home of Mrs. Fred Finger. Mrs. Dick Mc Ginnis, co-hostess.

7:30—Stender circle of St. Matthew's Lutheran church, Mrs. Johnny Kerns, hostess.
7:30—Circle 4 of Central Methodist church at the home of Miss Grace Davis.

8:00—Circle 6, of First Presbyterian church, at the home of Mrs. H. R. Hunnicutt.

Tuesday:
9:30 a.m.—Dozier circle, of First Baptist church, at the home of Mrs. A. T. Quakenbush.
10:00—Nellie Parks circle of St. Matthew's Lutheran church at the church.

3:00—Contract Bridge club at the home of Mrs. Martin Harmon, 403 West Mountain street.
3:30—Circle 2, Resurrection Lutheran church, at the home of Mrs. Fred Plonk on Crescent circle.

6:30—Joint meeting of Altha Satterwhite and Sophia Nichols circles of First Baptist church, Mrs. John Beam, hostess.
7:30—Circle 8, of Central Methodist church at the home of Mrs. Ellen Petrosino.

7:30—Circle 9, of Central Methodist church at the home of Mrs. Ralph Mauney.
8:00—Circle 5, of Central Methodist church at the home of Mrs. M. H. Biser, on Gold street.

Wednesday:
7:30 a. m.—Credit Women's Breakfast club at Sterchi's Furniture Company.
9:45 a. m.—Circle 1, Central Methodist church, at the home of Mrs. Delbert Dixon.

4:00—Frances Hord circle, of First Baptist church. Picnic at Maple Springs.

Thursday, August 15:
7:00—The wedding of Miss Betty Ann Braswell and Garland Evans Still, Jr. in Bethel Methodist church, Wadesboro, N. C.
7:45—Regular Duplicate bridge game at Kings Mountain Country club.

Home Arts Club Met On Tuesday

Mrs. John E. Gamble was hostess Tuesday afternoon to the regular meeting of the Home Arts club at her home on Mountain street.

Mrs. George Moss, vice-president, presided in the absence of Mrs. John C. McGill, president. The program, "Cooking With Flowers", was presented by Mrs. Carl Finger who pointed out that flowers can be used in food both for flavor and color.

The hostess served a salad course with accessories. Pink, yellow, and white glads were used for decoration.

Bride-Elect Honored At Dessert-Bridge

Miss Virginia Summers, whose marriage to Lawrence Hinnant will be an event of Sunday, was honored by her aunt, Mrs. J. E. Herndon, at a dessert-bridge Thursday evening at the Herndon home.

Guests were present for four tables of bridge, and prizes went to Mrs. Gorman Collins and Miss Jill Allen, both of Charlotte, and Mrs. William Herndon, of Kings Mountain.

A color note of white and pink was observed in the decorations and on refreshment plates. Mrs. Herndon served an ice course.

The honoree wore a beige dress with shoulder corsage of pink split carnations, gift of the hostess. Miss Summers received a gift of crystal from Mrs. Herndon.

Mrs. White Honored At Party July 25th

Miss GuyAnne Henderson entertained the evening of July 25th at a bridal shower paying compliment to Mrs. Winfred White, recent bride. Mrs. White is the former Miss Martha Matthews.

Bridal games and contests were directed after which the hostess served decorated cakes with potato chips, mints, and cold drinks. Twenty-two guests gave Mrs. White a shower of miscellaneous household gifts.

Dance Held Saturday At Woman's Club Here

Miss Billie Gibbons, Jerry McCarter, Gary Allran, and Bill Mitcham entertained Saturday night at a dance at the Woman's Club.

Present for the party were a large number of young people of the community. Assorted cookies were served with potato chips and cold drinks.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwain Lynch served as chaperones.

Miss Jack-Mr. Peter's Betrothal Announced

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Marion Louise Jack, daughter of Mrs. E. Reginald Jack, of 3627 Lyndale Avenue, S. Minneapolis, Minnesota and the late Mr. Jack, to John Ernest Peters, of 1240 Sheridan Avenue, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Peters, of Mexico, Texas.

Mr. Peters was formerly process engineer for the Lithium Corporation of America, Bessemer City, recently transferred to St. Louis Park, Minnesota. The wedding will take place October 5th.

Recent Bride Honored At Party On July 26

Mrs. Winfred White, recent bride, was honored the evening of July 26th at a bridal shower and party at the home of her mother-in-law, Mrs. J. E. Welch, sister of Mrs. Welch, was co-hostess.

Mrs. Edward Bell assisted the hostesses in directing bridal games and contests after which decorated cakes were served with salted nuts, potato chips, and punch.

Miscellaneous household gifts were given to the honoree from the 24 guests from Kings Mountain and Grover who attended.

Miss Summers Honored At Bridge Party Friday

Mrs. C. E. Neisler, Mrs. Harry Page, and Mrs. H. E. Hunnicutt were hostesses Friday evening at the Neisler home at a dessert bridge party complimenting Miss Virginia Summers, bride-elect.

Miss Summers' wedding to Lawrence Hinnant, of Raleigh, will take place Sunday in St. Matthew's Lutheran church.

Pink and white decorations were used throughout the Neisler home. The hostesses served an ice course with tea. Prizes went to Mrs. J. A. Neisler, Jr. and Miss Summers.

The honoree wore a dress of blue cotton with a white shoulder corsage, gift of the hostesses.

Miss Summers received gifts of silver in her selected pattern from the hostesses.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Lockridge announce the birth of a daughter, Thursday, August 1, Kings Mountain hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Quay Adams announce the birth of a daughter, Friday, August 2, Kings Mountain hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Roberts announce the birth of a son, Sunday, August 4, Kings Mountain hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gossett, announce the birth of a daughter, Sunday, August 4, Kings Mountain hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. William (Bill) Cashion, of Taylorsville, N. C., former residents, announce the birth of a son, William Zouri Cashion, Jr., Sunday, August 4.

Transition dresses

your passport to fall...

In all your travels around town, by daylight or dark, these are the dresses that will take you most gracefully through the rest of summer and into fall. The colors and styles look very fashion-fresh... you'll find what you like, whether you prefer bright or dark hues, slim or full skirts. And the fabrics are in ideal weights for this between-season of the year.

MYERS'
Is Featuring
Transition Cottons
For Now and into Fall
by
FRANKLIN
KAY WINDSOR
MANSFORD
And Many other
Style Leaders
In Dress
Manufacture

Prices Begin at $8.95
All Sizes

Special Group
New Transition Cottons all sizes $5.95

Special This Weekend

Large Group
HOUSECOATS

Another Group
HOUSECOATS

NOW
1/2
PRICE

NOW REDUCED
by
1/3

Includes Shorties of Nylon and Seersucker and long models in French Crepe and Seersucker.

Not all sizes in all groups—Come early for best Selection!

MYERS' Dress Shop

Second Floor