Couple Honored At Cakecutting

Miss Kathryn Ann Ware and John Ronald Kincaid, whose wedding was an event of Thanksgiving Day, were honored after their wedding rehearsal last Wednesday evening at a cakecutting at the home of Mr. Kincaid's parents in Bessemer City.

Hostesses for the event, attended by some 65 guests, were Misses Sara, Jane, and Penny Kincaid, sisters of Mr. Kincaid.

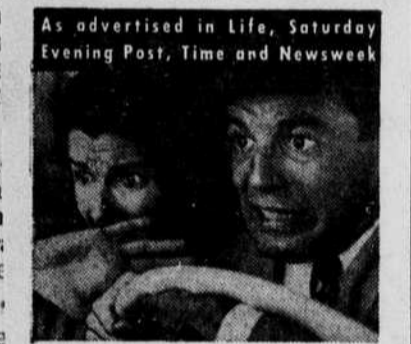

Decorations in mint green and yellow were featured throughout the Kincaid home. In the dining room, the bride's table was spread with lace over yellow taffeta and held the decorated yellow and green five-tier wedding cake ornamented with miniature bride and groom. Tapers were used in silver candelabras, and arrangements of yellow chrysanthemums also provided decoration.

Mrs. William S. Eaker, of Gastonia, cut and served the cake, and lime punch was poured by Mrs. Bill Kincaid, of Stanley. Assisting in serving and entertaining were Mrs. L. P. Barker, Jr., of Bessemer City, Miss Evelyn Cloninger, of Dallas, Mrs. Charles Alexander and Miss Lyvonne Lindsay, both of Kings Mountain, all of whom were honorary attendants in the Thursday wedding.

Miss Ware wore a full skirted white evening dress accented by mint green cummerbund and a shoulder corsage of yellow chrysanthemums.

The couple presented gifts to their attendants including tiaras to the bridesmaids which they wore in the wedding and tiaras to the male attendants.

Miss Phyllis Jones and Carveth Wells spent Sunday in the mountains and toured Asheville, Lake Lure, and other scenic spots. They returned Sunday afternoon.

MRS. JOHN RONALD KINCAID

Miss Kathryn Ware Married Thursday To Ronald Kincaid In Church Ceremony

In an exchange of vows Thursday evening at eight o'clock in First Baptist church, Miss Kathryn Ann Ware and John Ronald Kincaid were united in marriage. The Rev. Aubrey T. Quakenbush, minister of the church, performed the Thanksgiving Day wedding in a double-ring ceremony before wrought-iron candelabra holding cathedral tapers and a fan-shaped arrangement of white gladioli accented by gold chrysanthemums used on the altar against a background of Oregon palms and emerald ferns.

Miss Sara Houser, of Kings Mountain and Winston-Salem, was organist, and James Chastain, of Bessemer City, brother-in-law of the groom, was vocalist for the program of traditional music.

Organ selections included "I Love Thee" by Edward Grieg, "O Promise Me" by Reginald DeKoven, "Adantino" by Edwin Lemare, Schubert's "Ave Maria", "Evening Star" by Wagner, "Liebestraum" by Liszt, and the classical marches, "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin" by Wagner and Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" from "A Midsummer Night's Dream."

Mr. Chastain sang, "I'll Walk With God", "Because", and the benediction selection, Malotte's "The Lord's Prayer." The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of imported chantilly lace over net and bridal satin. The dress featured a low neckline accented by yoke of illusion outlined with clusters of seed pearls and jaonicas. The off-shoulder long sleeves formed points over the hands, and the fitted bodice extended to a point in front joining a full gathered skirt that ended in an aisle-wide train. Her fingertip-length veil of imported silk illusion was outlined in matching lace and was caught to a princess crown of seed pearls. Her bouquets of bronze cymbidium orchids was carried on a white lace-covered Bible from which were attached satin streamers.

Miss Martha Lou Ware attended her sister as maid of honor, and bridesmaids included Miss Jane Kincaid, Miss Sara Kincaid, all of Bessemer City, sisters of the groom, and Miss Jerrie Lea McCarter, of Kings Mountain.

The attendants wore formal gowns of romance blue, nylon sheer and net over taffeta. The dresses were styled with fitted bodices created of alternating rows of miniature ruffles and silver lurex braid and were accented at the waistline by crushed taffeta cummerbunds which draped to the backs to form large bustle-bows. Folds of net formed brief cap sleeves, and the bouffant skirts were accented by rows of sheer ruffles underscored with silver lurex braid and finished around the bottom with deep net dust ruffles. White formal length gloves and blue sequin princess crowns completed their ensembles. They carried cascade bouquets of bronze pom-pom chrysanthemums nestled in blue flocced gypsophylla and blue metallic ribbon.

Little Miss Sara Beth Simpson, cousin of the bride, was flower girl and wore a white floor-length dress with short white gloves and carried a basket of flower petals. Pete Ware, young brother of the bride, was ringbearer, and Tommie Ware, brother of the bride, lighted the altar candles.

Honorary bridesmaids included Mrs. L. F. Barker, Jr., of Bessemer City, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Evelyn Cloninger, of Dallas, Miss Lyvonne Lindsay, of Kings Mountain, and Mrs. Charles Alexander, of Kings Mountain and Charlotte.

Ira Raymond Kincaid, of Bessemer City, was his son's best man. Ushers included Jamie Washam, of Kannapolis, Bruce Ross, of Spruce Pine, Dan Mitchell, of Statesville, college roommates of the groom, and William I. Kincaid, of Stanley, brother of the groom.

Presiding at the guest register were Mrs. James Chastain and Mrs. Roy Rhyme, of Bessemer City, sisters of the groom.

Mrs. Ware, the bride's mother, was gowned in blue lace with which she wore elbow-length white gloves and a corsage of red roses. The groom's mother, Mrs. Kincaid, wore a light blue formal-length gown with white gloves and a red corsage of roses.

Mrs. Kincaid, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Howard Ware, of Kings Mountain, was graduated from Central high school in 1956 and is employed in Bessemer City as secretary in the engineering department of Ideal Industries, Inc. She made her debut in 1956 at the Shelby Junior Charity League's Sub-Debutante ball in Shelby.

The couple received wedding guests in the church vestibule and left for a wedding trip. For traveling, Mrs. Kincaid wore a brown wool sheath dress with beige accessories, a brown mouton coat, and the orchids from her bouquet. After a trip through the Southern States, the couple will reside in Bessemer City with the groom's parents on West Virginia avenue. Among wedding guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Blalock, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Falls, Mrs. W. F. Eaker, Mr. and Mrs. Lester D. White, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. McDonald, and Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Coggins, all of Gastonia, John Floyd, of Lincoln, Mrs. Mary Harmon, of Statesville, Don, Saines, of Washington, Miss Patsy Washburn, of Durham, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Washburn, of Kannapolis, Charles Helms, of Boone, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Mitchell, of Statesville, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Metzger, Buster Whitworth, Ray Owensby, Mrs. L. W. Matthews and Janice, Mrs. Earl Harmon, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Steele, Miss Sara Lutz, Bob Sellers, Paul Barringer, Jimmy Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. John Ormand, Jr., Gene A. Fronberger, Mrs. J. Rance Pigg, L. F. Barker, Jr., Mrs. Fred Falls, and Jane Sara L. White, Miss Brenda Nivens, Bobby Richardson, Miss Ann Woody, Miss Jessie Loveless, Dan Lynch, Miss Myra Jean Whitehurst, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Whitehurst, Bobby and Nancy, Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Whitehurst, Larry Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kincaid and Karen, Paul Long, Lewis Ormand, Robert Bess, Mrs. Spitz Rhyme and Lynne and Randy Rhyme, all of Bessemer City.

Contract Bridge Club Meets With Mrs. Fulton

Members of the Contract Bridge club were entertained at the home of Mrs. W. S. Fulton, Jr. on Ridge Street, recently. Mrs. Hal Plonk was high scorer with Mrs. Hugh Logan, second high. The hostess served a dessert course with coffee.

Dessert Bridge Party Honors Miss Moore Miss Betsy Moore, of Charlotte, bride-elect, was honored by Mrs. B. F. Maner and Mrs. Charles Neisler at the Neisler home on Pifer Road at a dessert bridge party Thursday evening. Miss Moore, whose wedding to Dick Webb of Kings Mountain will be an event of December, wore for the occasion a black watch plaid full-skirted party dress. The honoree was presented a silver berry spoon by the hostesses. A yellow color scheme was observed in the decorations of chrysanthemums and camellias arranged at the base of a candelabra containing yellow tapers. Other decorations in the predominant color decorated the living and dining rooms. High scorer at bridge for the evening was Mrs. Paul Neisler, and Miss Polly Page won the consolation prize. Mrs. I. L. Moore, of Charlotte, mother of the bride-elect, and Mrs. R. H. Webb, mother of Mr. Webb were among the guests. Out-of-town guests included Miss Prudy Moore and Mrs. David Neill, both of Charlotte, and Mrs. Dick McMackin, of Chapel Hill.
