Order Of Rainbow Officers Installed; Nancy McClure Heads New Organization

Formal installation of officers of Kings Mountain Assembly, Order of Rainbow for Girls, was held Tuesday night at Masonic Hall.

The service of institution and initiation was held Saturday evening, with the Shelby Assembly officiating, assisted by Mrs. Estella Bell, Supreme Inspector of North Carolina of the Order of the Rainbow; Mrs. Janie D. Kincaid, Mrs. Jo Kelly, Mrs. Lillian Harmon, and Miss Kittie Lou Sutton, all of Kings Mountain chapter 123, Order of Eastern Star.

Mrs. Wanza Y. Davis, of the Eastern Star Chapter, is Mother Advisor, and Miss Nancy McClure, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. McClure, is Worthy Advisor.

The Order of Rainbow, sponsored here by the Eastern Star, is under supervision of an advisory board including Mrs. Kelly, chairman; Mrs. Harmon, Mrs. Kincaid, Mrs. Davis, all of the Eastern Star, and F. R. McCurdy, C. G. White, and Thomas Ballard, all of Fairview Lodge 339.

Eligible members need not be daughters of Eastern Star members but may be recommended by a Rainbow Girl. The initiation fee is $10, dues are $4, and officers are elected every three months. The group meets each second and fourth Tuesday.

Installing officers were Miss Kittie Lou Sutton, worthy matron of Chapter 123, OES, who installed the officers; Mrs. Janie D. Kincaid, district deputy grand matron who served as recorder; and Mrs. Lillian Harmon, chaplain.

Preview Of Spring, Summer Fashions Featured Junior Club Program Monday

Junior Woman's club members previewed Spring and Summer fashions at their Monday night meeting, and a large crowd of members and visitors attended.

Prominent in the showing were suits featuring blouse backs, some with belts, and full skirted dresses featuring modified shirtwaists. The sailor hat was also prominently mentioned as "good" this year as were wash n-wear cottons and clothes accenting color.

Mrs. W. S. Fulton, Jr. and Mrs. Tom Trott, both of the sales staff of Fulton's Department Store, presented the program with Mrs. Trott serving as commentator for the show.

Mrs. Carl Mayes modeled an all-occasional suit in black and white with green scarf and black and white sailor. She also modeled a housedress and sports outfit and a black cotton sheath with checked jacket and red hat.

Mrs. Jack White's sports outfit in green silk had detachable stand-out collar, and sailor hat. The other sports outfit she modeled was a three-piece suit in blue cotton which had striped blouse and detachable jacket.

Mrs. Bill Allen modeled a fitted checked linen suit which had matching hat, a pink cotton modified shirtwaist dress with accessories to match, and a smart black suit featuring blouse back and worn with matching wide brim or red hats. She also modeled a swim suit.

Mrs. Joe Hedden modeled a checked suit featuring wide collar and short jacket, a brown silk shirtwaist dress, both worn with harmonizing accessories and a sports outfit complete with wrap-around skirt, jacket, blouse and shorts.

Mrs. Fred Wright's tailored navy suit had navy accessories, and she also modeled a cherry cotton-silk with matching brim hat and a black and white princess-style dress featuring polka dot trim and complete with sailor hat.

Mrs. Dan Finger and daughter, Ann, modeled a mother-daughter outfit in blue pin-striped cotton. Ann Finger also modeled a white and navy dress with beret to match.

Carl and Corky Fulton and Linda Ann and Libby Trott modeled children's clothes, both for sportswear and dress-up occasions. The full-skirted dresses were complete with dusters-to-match or sweaters.

Mrs. Margie McDaniel's printed suit in off-cotton had blouse back. A beige hat completed her costume. She also modeled a lime two-piece cotton.

Mrs. Johnny Kerns modeled a full-skirted pink lace and cotton dress with pink hat, a black and white cotton, and a modified shirtwaist dress with wide belt and fullskirt.

Miss Maude Owens modeled suitable clothes for the teenager, both for sportswear and other occasions. The orchid cotton she modeled had empire lines and it was worn with pique hat. She also wore a blue full-skirted cotton featuring scoop neckline, a blue shirtwaist cotton, and a Bermuda shorts-shirt outfit.
