Miss Margaret Costner Wed Saturday To James Vick Smith In Church Rites

Miss Margaret Costner of Gastonia and James Vick Smith of Kings Mountain pledged marriage vows Saturday in a 3 p. m. wedding held in First Presbyterian church.

Dr. Paul Ausley, the minister, heard the exchange of vows in a double-ring ceremony.

The church altar was arranged with white gladioli and palms and interspersed with cathedral tapers in wrought-iron candelabras.

Mrs. Darrell Austin, organist, and Charles Costner, soloist, rendered a program of traditional music.

Organ numbers included "A-dagio" by Sonata, "C Minor" by Guilman, "Evening Star" by Wagner, "To A Wild Rose", McDowell, "O Perfect Love", Barnby, "Dreams", McAmis, and "Andante". Mr. Costner sang "I Love You Truly" and "Seal Us O Holy Spirit."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a waltz-length gown of chiffon and taffeta. Designed with fitted bodice and bouffant skirt, the dress had a fitted jacket with three-quarter-length sleeves. Her matching headpiece was dropped with filtration veil and she carried a white lace-covered prayerbook topped with gladioli and satin streamers.

Miss Gail Costner, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor and only attendant. Her full-skirted dress of blue chiffon and taffeta was designed with scoop neckline and three-quarter-length sleeves. She wore a matching headpiece and carried a nosegay of daisy mums.

The bridegroom's father was best man. Ushers were Ken Stines of Gastonia and Charles Alexander of Charlotte.

Mrs. Costner's the bride's mother, wore a street-length dress of blue eyelet with matching accessories and an orchid shoulder corsage.

The bridegroom's mother was dressed in rose chiffon and taffeta. She wore white accessories and a shoulder corsage of orchids.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Alexander of Charlotte and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Westmoreland of Grover entertained at a reception immediately following the ceremony in the church fellowship hall.

The bride's table, done in pink, held the three-tier pink and white wedding cake as the focal point of decoration. The large punch bowl was used at one end of the table, and a mass arrangement of pink and white flowers marked the center of the table which was overlaid with ruffled net and linen.

Mrs. Paul Ausley cut and served the wedding cake. Lime punch was poured by Mrs. Lloyd Alexander. Mints and nuts were also served with the cake and punch.

Goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. Hall Goforth. The new Mrs. Smith is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Costner of Gastonia. She is a graduate of Ashley high school in Gastonia.

Mr. Smith is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Smith of Kings Mountain. He is a graduate of Kings Mountain high school and is employed by Firestone Textiles in Gastonia.

For a trip to the mountains Mrs. Smith wore a two-piece blue and white linen suit with accessories to match and the flowers from her bridal bouquet.

The newlyweds are residing temporarily with the bridegroom's parents on Phifer road.
