McKee Visiting At Chapel Hill

CHAPEL HILL — Michael T. McKee, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. McKee, of Kings Mountain, has been in Chapel Hill participating in the Pre-Registration and Visitation Program. The purpose of this program is to enable a student to take required placement tests in advance, to select his subjects for the fall, and to have opportunity to consult officials of the University in regard to loans, scholarships, jobs, housing, and ROTC opportunities. This program is sponsored by the General College, the Admissions Office, the Office Student Affairs, and the Testing Service. It is anticipated that approximately a thousand members of the class entering in September will come to Chapel Hill on one of the eighteen designated days to participate in the program.

James E. Query Succumbs At 83

Funeral services were conducted Friday for James E. Query, of Concord and father of Mrs. Jack Barham of Kings Mountain. Mr. Query, 83, died Wednesday of a heart attack at Timrick Hall Nursing Home in Concord. He had been in declining health for four months, but death was unexpected. A retired farmer, and native of Cabarrus County, Query was the son of the late James Victor Query and Mrs. Martha Barnhardt Query. He was active in the Democratic party circles of North Carolina and was an active member of Back Creek ARP church. Services were conducted at 3 p. m. from Back Creek church near Newell with the Rev. S. A. Boyce officiating. The body lay in state at Lady's Chapel here from 2 p. m. Wednesday to 2 p. m. Friday. Burial was in the church cemetery. Survivors in addition to Mrs. Barham include: the wife, Mrs. Fanny Orr Query of the home; five sons, Robert E., Charles C., and Fred A., all of Kannapolis; Marion O. and James L. of Concord; two daughters, Mrs. E. Brown Morgan, and Mrs. Spurgeon Helms, both of Kannapolis; one sister, Mrs. Laura Galloway of Charlotte; and 12 grandchildren.

Scouts Enjoy Monday Outing

Catawba Lake was full of Mountaineers Monday when 32 boys and 9 men from St. Matthew's Lutheran Troop 2 covered the river with shouts of laughter as they rode motor boats, surf boards and water skis. Boat captains included Zip Rhea, Aubrey Mauney, J. V. Pressly, Harold Ledford and Billy Mauney. Scoutmasters Charles Ramsey and Otis Falls kept the boys ready and waiting as Luther Barnes and Phil Mauney instructed water skiing.

Bell Names Sam Davis, Jr.

Sam M. Davis, Jr., of Charlotte has been named Public Relations Manager for the Gastonia District of Southern Bell Tel. & Tel. Co. The announcement was made by Robert E. Wood, Gastonia District Manager. Mr. Davis began his telephone career in Charlotte in 1950 as Directory Advertising Salesman. He was transferred to Commercial Engineering in 1954 as a Survey Engineer with headquarters in Charlotte. Reared in Mt. Olive, N. C., Mr. Davis attended public schools in Mt. Olive, N. C. He is a graduate of Bowling Green Business University, Bowling Green, Ky., and also attended Davidson College and Mrs. Hill College. Mr. Davis is married and has three children, Sammy, Anne, and Peggy Lynn; and they are members of the First Presbyterian Church in Belmont. He has been active in civic affairs and is an officer of Belmont Masonic Lodge No. 627 and American Legion Post No. 144. Mr. Davis is also an Elk, 32 degree Mason, Shriner, and member of the Gastonia Voiture of 40 and 8.

The Davis' plan to continue to live in Belmont at 24 W. Woodrow Ave. In 1957, the gross national product of the U. S. was 40 times that of South Asia, 20 times that of Africa, ten times that of Latin America.

Lutheran Troop At Jamboree

Ten boys from Troop 2 attended the Lutheran Scout Jamboree held last Friday, Saturday and Sunday at Lutherdale, Lutheran church camp near Arden, N. C. The boys spent three days in tents. Swimming, scouting and Religious activities kept the boys busy. The ten included Danny Finger, Carl Weisener, Ray White, Gene White, Ronny Dover, Rodney Smith, Larry Gantt, Tommy Limbaugh, Larry Adams and Neal Cooper. Bob Wilson stayed in camp with the boys. Aubrey Mauney, Harold Hunnicutt and Leonard Smith furnished transportation.

Farmers Home Administration made and insured loans totaling $308,872,000 during the fiscal year ended June 30. This compared with $361,629,000 during fiscal 1959, and an average of $332,600,000 during the past five years.
