The president who served the shortest time in office was William Henry Harrison, who died one month after his inauguration. But World Book Encyclopedia says David Rice Atchison, a senate president, is supposed to have served as acting president for one day. (That was March 4, 1849, a Sunday - and Zachary Taylor refused to be inaugurated on the Sabbath.

The president of the U. S. may be the most powerful man in the world but his wife can't redecorate her home without the approval of Congress. World Book Encyclopedia reports that it requires an act of Congress to change any feature of the state rooms, which are used for public affairs, in the White House.

MEMO TO ADVERTISERS
 "Here's someone wants to buy a Xiphias Gladius"
 Whether it's a used "swordfish, a surplus display case or a grandfathers clock that you wish to buy or sell, tell the readers of this newspaper about it with an advertisement in our classified columns. These inexpensive messages may be used effectively by business men to supplement their display advertising and by others to locate items needed or to dispose of those no longer wanted.
 When you advertise in this paper your investment is made on the basis of facts—verified circulation. Ask for a copy of our A.B.C. report. It gives you complete, audited information about the circulation your advertising will get when it is published in these columns.
