Tuna Chowder Can Be a Cold Day Blessing

BY DOROTHY MADDOX When the cold wind's blow, then it's time for a steaming pot of hearty tuna chowder. Here's the recipe, plus an extra recipe for corn, tomato and tuna chowder. Hearty Tuna Chowder One-half cup butter or margarine, 3/4 cup chopped onions, 1 cup chopped green pepper, 1 cup sliced celery, 1 cup sliced carrots, 2 medium-sized tomatoes, diced; two 7-ounce cans tuna, drained; 2 teaspoons salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 2 teaspoons dry mustard, 1 quart milk, 1/2 cup chopped parsley, 3/4 cup dry sherry or juice of half lemon. Melt butter or margarine; add onions, green pepper, celery, carrots and tomatoes. Cook until onions are tender, stirring occasionally. Break tuna into pieces. Add tuna, salt, pepper, mustard, milk and parsley to onion mixture. Cover and cook over low heat 30 minutes, stirring occasionally. Add sherry or lemon juice and mix well. Garnish with additional parsley, as desired. Serve with hot crusty bread and relishes. Corn and Tomato Tuna Chowder (Serves six) Two 7-ounce cans tuna, drained; 1/4 cup butter or margarine, 1 cup sliced onions, one 12-ounce can whole kernel corn, one 1-pound 13-ounce can tomatoes, 1 teaspoon dry mustard, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 1 quart milk. Tuna chowder adds warmth to you and your spirits. Break tuna into pieces. Melt butter or margarine; add onions and cook until tender. Add corn, undrained tomatoes, mustard, salt, pepper and tuna. Cover and cook 30 minutes, stirring occasionally. Gradually add milk and heat to serving temperature over low heat, stirring constantly.

Junior Clubwomen To Meet Monday. Help-A-Home Project To Be Discussed

The Junior Woman's Club will hear a program of Christmas music at their regular Monday night meeting at the Woman's Club. Members of the women's organization will also complete plans for their Help-A-Home project at Christmas, following the program which is being arranged by Mrs. Bill Jonas, program chairman. Mrs. James Gibson and Mrs. Furman Wilson will be co-hostesses for the evening. The Help-A-Home project, of which Mrs. Jonas is chairman, includes this committee: Mrs. John H. Gamble, Miss Jackie Blanton, and Mrs. Bill Jonas. The club plans a project of providing Christmas cheer to some needy family in the area by providing toys, clothing and food. Members are again making gifts to Caswell Training School at Kinston, a state institution opened in 1914 for the purpose of providing care and treatment, training and education for the mentally retarded. At present the school is approaching the capacity of 1,975 students ranging in age from six years through old-age, some of whom are severely retarded (those incapable of speech, feeding themselves, or avoiding common dangers) to those who at adulthood are capable of self-support in the community. Gifts brought to Monday's meeting for Caswell should not be wrapped. Also a feature of the club's December meeting will be a report of the Clothing Closet Project underway. Mrs. John H. Gamble is chairman of the project and headquarters for the clothing drive is the Home Economics Department at Central school. Many school children, in addition to adults, benefit from the annual drive to collect used clothing.
