"COUNTRY PLAYERS"
 LES CARROLL

Recently songs based on history have been proving highly popular. Now, during these centennial years of the Civil War, with so many commemorative events planned around the country, we will be hearing many new songs based on those unhappy times.

The late Johnny Horton sprang into prominence with his recordings of historical songs, one of which was his touching tribute to "Johnny Reb." This song, along with them, making for good listening and pleasant memories.

In the Folk Song field there are two albums by top folk singers you will find very enjoyable: "The Rainbow Quest" by Pete Seeger (with his 5-string banjo) and "Cisco Houston Sings Songs of the Open Road" by Cisco Houston, of course. (Both Folkways).

In the Gospel music field, the Stanley Brothers have a single with two fine sides, "Jordan" and "The Angel of Death" (King).

Love ballads are always popular and there are several excellent singles in this field such as Johnny Humbird's "Ghost of Misery" (Columbia); "Your Old Love Letters" by Porter Wagoner (RCA); Hank Thompson's "Two Hearts Deep in the Blues" (Capitol) and "Yes, I've Made It" by Billy Walker, Columbia).

Other fine singers: "Gosh, I Miss You All the Time" (Jim & Jesse, Columbia); "What About Me" (Don Gibson, RCA); "High as the Mountains" (Buck Owens, Capitol); "The Cabin" (Surratt & Smith, King); "Train, You Took My Baby" (Wilma Lee & Stony Cooper, Hickory); "Greener Pastures" and "Wedding Bells for You and Him" (Stonewall Jackson, Columbia); "Flight 303" (Ed-winn Bruce, RCA); "Cotton Pickin' Heart" (Perlin Husky, King) and "The Little Sweet Girl" (Hank Locklin, King).

many of his big numbers, is included in an excellent new LP, "Johnny Horton's Greatest Hits" (Columbia).

And Folkways Records has released a 2 LP Record Set, "Songs of the Civil War," with various folk artists singing 33 of the songs that were sung in those times. A booklet with lyrics is included, making an excellent history in song for your record library.

Decca's "All-Time Country and Western, Vol. II" is a collection of 12 old "hits" by the stars who originally made
