Consolidation To Be Studied

The initially named committee of the Cleveland County Citizens Committee for Better Schools will make a survey and report on the pros and cons of consolidation of all schools into one county administrative unit. Harold Love, of Shelby, chairman of the county committee, announced appointment Wednesday of the organization's administrative and organization committee, with Lloyd Bost, of Shelby, as chairman.

"There has been considerable conversation concerning the advisability of consolidating all schools of a county into one administrative unit," Mr. Love commented. "The duties of this committee will be to survey results of consolidations in other counties and to report the pros and cons to the full committee. At the present there are only two accredited high schools in Cleveland County, Shelby and Kings Mountain, and the consolidation idea has developed in interest in equalizing educational opportunity for all children of a particular county.

Local area citizens named to the committee are Mrs. W. L. Mauney and George H. Mauney, of Kings Mountain, and Bill McCarter, of Grover. Other members are James Cornwell, Lattimore, Vaughn Whitaker, No. 3, Wye D. Royster, Fallston, J. Bailey Phelps, Shelby, Lawton Lawman, Casar, James Elam, Lawndale, Ed Cline, Waco, and Jack Vincent, Dover.

(Continued From Front Page) "The high cost of food comes from processing by distributors," Dameron said. He noted that labels and packaging materials on an example car of tomatoes cost much more than the actual food inside.

The agriculture specialist said that the farmer got only three cents out of the average retail price of 19.3 cents for a loaf of bread in 1950.

Quoting from the survey of the Agriculture Department again, he added, "Retail food prices have increased 20 per cent in the past 10 years. But prices received by farmers for food have declined eight per cent in the same 10 years."

Presidents of the co-sponsoring Jaycee clubs are Robert Goforth of Kings Mountain and Martin Whisnant of Shelby. Jack Lutz was the Shelby Jaycee award chairman for the event.

2 Nabbed After Break-In Try

Bobby Howard Wilson, 24, and James Clifford Smith, 33, both of Gastonia were arrested early Wednesday morning by county officers and are being held in jail on attempted breaking an entering charges.

The arrests came after a passing motorist notified police he had observed someone attempting to enter Blalock's Park Inn on U. S. 74, west of town at about 3:00 a. m.

When officers Paul Byers and Gus Huffstetler arrived no one was in the area, but a broken window at the rear of the building indicated an attempt to enter had been made, Byers said.

An alert was sounded to be on the lookout for the two men who were seen by the motorist, and then later spotted walking along a street toward town.

They were arrested in a car near the Gaston County line.

MORE ABOUT Harris

Dr. Young, the president, told the coroners they would do well to concern themselves with highway safety as an initial program, and other spokesmen criticized as archaic and old law which requires a coroner's jury to be sworn in the presence of the body of the deceased.

Mr. Harris said the organization contemplates a sub-organization of perhaps four districts.

(MORE ABOUT) School Library

(Continued From Front Page) like the library because I find all most anything I need. It helps me to understand things I don't understand. I can do more work in the library because it is so quiet I can hear a pin drop. I also like the people who work in the library because they are so nice and are willing to help me find anything I need."

From a freshman boy and a newcomer to Kings Mountain were these comments: "To me the library is a way to provide enjoyment for others and me. It provides good books and magazines for students to read. It also provides encyclopedias and dictionaries to help students with their homework. I myself could not get along without the library."

A senior girl said, "I think Kings Mountain high school has one of the nicest libraries I have seen. Now that a new wing has been added, there is more room for study and reference work. The library is also quiet and I can concentrate on my work. The books are arranged neatly and orderly on the shelves and are easy to find. The librarian and her assistants (members of the Library club) are always willing to help me find things I cannot find."

had been purchased. 3) Voted not to buy a twenty-year bond for the roofing work done at Central School recently since the bond only covered faulty materials and improper installation.

4) Heard a report from Supt. Barnes that Mrs. Nell Self Griggs of Cherryville had been hired to replace girls physical education teacher Mrs. Nancy W. Hartsoe who resigned recently.

5) Elected Charlie Parrott as janitor at Davidson School, replacing Roger Schenck who quit recently.

6) Unanimously voted to leave the $90 per year teacher salary supplement on the schedule of 180 days per year as originally stipulated. Since the enactment of the supplement the state has raised teacher duty days to 183.

7) Approved payment of a $22.75 bill from Davis & White for legal work in connection with options on the Phifer Road school site.

8) Heard a letter from Dr. Charles Carroll of the State board of education surveying athletic policies of the state schools. Dr. Carroll requested that the school fill in the state board on its administrative policy concerning athletics.

Supt. Barnes told the board the system has a policy, although it is not a written one. He stated the Kings Mountain schools operate within the regulations of the Western Carolina Activities Association and the rules of the State Advisory Board.

However, he noted it appears the school needs a formal table of regulations concerning extracurricular activities.

The board tabled action until a later date.

9) Voted to pay mileage expense of seven cents per mile incurred by Davidson School Principal on trips to Salisbury and Greensboro to attend professional meetings.

10) Voted to give an eight day extension on the sick leave of Mrs. Carl Logan, East Elementary school teacher. Mrs. Logan was ill for 28 days and the leave only covered 20.

11) Instructed Supt. Barnes to employ Attorney J. R. Davis for the condemnation of the property adjacent to Central School needed for a service road and owned by Mrs. Garland E. Still. The board for some time has been trying to purchase the plot, but had come to no satisfactory arrangement due to a controversy over boundary lines.

12) Heard a report from Supt. Barnes that a dissident group of school patrons is seeking a session bill from the state legislature to allow them to withdraw from the newly consolidated No. 4 Township schools. Mr. Barnes said the aforementioned is the extent of his information, but he felt the board should be informed.

Franklin To Face Larceny Charge

George Franklin, 17-year-old Kings Mountain youth, is scheduled to face charges of grand larceny in next Monday's session of City Recorder's Court.

The charge, a felony, resulted from the alleged theft by Franklin of money from Thriftly Street Station on E. King Street where he was employed.

Desk Sgt. Earl Stroupe said Wednesday he was not informed as to the amount allegedly taken, but a grand larceny charge is brought on the basis of $100 or more.

Caroline Kennedy Likes Rag Doll

One of Caroline Kennedy's favorite dolls is a gift from Ralph Tucker, Cleveland County's assistant tax collector.

It is a rag doll which Mr. Tucker purchased from Mrs. Sallie Mauney, of Shelby, and forwarded as a birthday present to the President's daughter.

Mrs. Mauney is an invalid who specializes in making rag dolls. The doll and Caroline were featured recently in a pictorial story in Look Magazine.

Bethware Wants More Voters

The county board of commissioners was informed by the elections board chairman this week that the elections board feels a new registration is needed and that a card-index system should be installed county-wide to speed voting in future elections.

Meanwhile, Bethware Democratic precinct committee members have stated the Bethware precinct can be expanded and can provide election facility to more voters with ease.

Mrs. J. H. Arthur, West Kings Mountain registrar, said the West Kings Mountain pollbooks now list over 2700 voters.

With a big turnout of voters, as occurred at the November 8th general election, processing of voters couldn't keep pace with long lines which formed and counting chores weren't completed until 5 a. m. the following morning.

Chairman Ralph Gilbert, of the county elections board, specifically mentioned the West Kings Mountain situation in his conversations with the county board of commissioners Monday.

He said the card-index system is more costly, since the cards must be re-alphabetized following each election, but he said the savings in time to the voters would justify the cost. He noted that Shelby precincts employ the card-index system advantageously.

He also told the commissioners that the elections board has authority to order any of the changes desired, but that the elections body felt it a courtesy to inform the county commission, since the cost would accrue to the county.

Mr. Gilbert was invited to present an estimate of costs involved in modernizing the system.
