

Registration Starts Saturday For May 9 Elections

ARP Property May Be Sold To Catholics

church will vote Sunday on a proposal to sell their church plant to the Roman Catholic church at to the Roman Catholic church at a congregational meeting to be Mohair, Lithium held following 11 o'clock services.

The proposal was discussed at a congregational meeting Sunday. John A. Cheshire, Jr., chairman of the congregation, reported that the Catholic organization had posted a binder together with an offer to purchase the with an offer to purchase the property for $50,000. The property, located at the corner of West King street at North Piedmont avenue, fronts about 275 feet on West King and 158 feet on North Piedmont. It includes a church sanctuary, connecting educational building, and two residences.

The proposed transaction was approved by the combined boards of elders and deacons of Boyce persons were first-time donors, Memorial ARP church on April while 63 donors gave blood for replacement.

Sale of the ARP church plant Sale of the ARP church plant call with 30 donors, and indus- SPEAKER - Dr. J. M. Lesesne, ris and Herald Editor Martin RITES HELD - Funeral services struction of a new ARP plant. trial participation was heavy.

Affer church purchased a art action and the functional data art action and the functional data art actional data are members of the still searce and expanded facilities. They expressed appreciations for the ARP church and to Kings Mountain Baptist Ratterree, N. F. McGill and John Ratterree M. F. McGill a Ratterree, N. F. McGill and John and to Kings Mountain Baptist He was educated at Wofford col- to state an opinion. and to kings Mountain Baptist church, where the Bloodmobile was set up. Donors included: Hazel L. Gill, Varies Poherts James J. Bennett Cheshire, Jr. Father Thomas Clement, area was set up. Catholic priest, is agent of Bish-op Vincent S. Wattres, D. D., of the Raleigh diocese in negotiat-ing the transaction. -Father Clement said there are 15 Catholic families in Kings Catholic priest, is agent of Bish-

To Catholics Members of Boyce Memorial Associate Reformed Presbyterian Total 202 Pints

Employees Gave 17 Pints Each

Kings Mountain area donors responded to the call for blood ious physical reasons. Mrs. O. W. Myers, blood pro

Grover citizens honored the Aim of the church had been to launch building of a new plant in 1962. If the sale is consumma. ted, construction will begin this year'on an educational building on Edgemont avenue, where the ARP church purchased a 4.7 acre ite several months are Kiwanis Speaker ten donors and Park Yarn Mills

Blood Collections Mayor Seekers Discuss Issues On WKMT Quiz

range of municipal issues Monday, as they answered guestions on the first of a series of five-WKMT madio programs entitled the "Race for Mayor".

MONDAY PROGRAM

Second in the series of the 'Race for Mayor" programs will be broadcast over WKMT Monday afternoon, beginning at 6 o'clock, with the coming week's panel of questioners to include Dr. Nathan H. Reed, Kings Mountain optometrist, Haywood E. Lynch, realtor and former Herald editor, and Herald Editor Martin Harmon, lone regular member of the pa-nel. WKMT Manager Jonas Bridges moderates the pro-gram. Listeners are invited to telephone questions they wish to ask to WKMT.

Mountain Kiwanis club Thurs-day night. wide spectrum of city affairs, in-cluding taxes, blue laws, city Wednesday afternoon. limits extension, public recreation and other subjects.

The candidates gave these views on the Monday program: On Taxes — Mr. Still said he favored cutting taxes and utili-

Gault Files For Re-Election Of Three Days Three mayoral candidates – Glee A. Bridges, Kelly Dixon and Garland E, Still discussed a wide

Five Incumbents Among 21 In Race For City Posts

Boyce H. Gault, Ward 2 city commissioner, is seeking re-election to a third term. Mr. Gault, Kings Mountain grocer, filed notice of candidacy early Wednesday afternoon. Incumbent since 1957, Mr. Gault is being challenged for the Ward 2 position by Eugene Go-forth and John W. Gladden. He is the fifth of six elected city officials to seek re-election. Only Ben H. Bridges, Ward 4 commissioner, has not filed, and his entry is anticipated.

Mr. Gault was the only additional candidacy of the past week and brings to 21 the number of died candidates seeking six city hall held elective positions

Two candidates, H. O. (Toby) Williams and Holmes Harry, have filed for the two school trustee positions to be filled May 9, from Kings Mountain school

Saturday First For Registering

Registration books for the May 9 city election and school trus-tee elections will be open for the first time at all precincts on Saturday.

It will be a new registration for all citizens of the Bethware, Grover, Compact and Park Grace county school districts, who are eligible to register for the school trustee voting,

No new registration has been called within the city limits.

City Clerk Joe McDaniel announced this week that Marvin Wright will serve as a judge at the Bethware precinct, filling a vacancy. Under terms of a recent state statute amending the election laws, new voting precincts have been created at Park Grace and Bethware schools and at Grover, for purpose of school district voting. Citizens who live within the bounds of the Grover county voting precinct will register and vote at Grover fire station. Park Grace-Compact area citizens will register and vote at Park Grace school. Bethware citizens and those formerly in the Kings Mountain school district, but outside the city limits, will register and vote at Bethware school.

All registered voters will be eligible to vote for two school trustee candidates.

The Grover town election will be held the same day. Another change effects Ward 5 voters. Location of this pre-cinct has been moved to West elementary school from Victory Chevrolet Company.

Registration books will be open three consecutive Saturdays at the several precincts. Saturday, May 6, is challenge day.

Following are precincts, location of precincts and registrars: Ward 1 - City Hall, C. L. CANDIDATES — Boyce H. Gault, Black. above, filed Wednesday for re- Ward 2 — City Hall, Mrs. H. election as Ward 2 commission- R. Parton. er. H. O. (Toby) Williams, below, Ward 3 - 1 is a candidate for school trustee. Ruth Bowers. Ward 3 - Phenix Store, Mrs. Ward 4 -Kings Mountain Manufacturing Company club-room, Mrs. Paul Cole. Lutherans Plan Ward 5 - West school, Mrs.

Karl Whitener's

OPTIMIST MEETING

Kings Mountain Optimist club will meet at 7:30 Thursday night at the American Legion building. Rev. J. W. Phil-lips will address the club.

AUXILIARY MEETS

The American Legion Auxi-liary will meet Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock with Mrs. C. A. Goforth, Sr.

LEGION DANCE

American Legion Post 155 is sponsoring a dance for members and guests at the Legion Hall Saturday night beginning at 8 p. m. A new band will furnish music, and an exhibition of western-style square danc-irg will be featured.

SUPPER

Next Sunday, April 16, a covered dish supper will be held at Saint Matthew's Lutheran church for new members who were recently received into the church. Prospective members are also invited to join in this fellowship evening with the entire congregation. Arrange-ments for the supper are un-der direction of Joe Hedden, Mrs. Jacob Cooper and Bob

POSTPONED

The Sunday dinner, schedul-ed by the Woman's Club for this Sunday, has been postponed, according to announce-ment by Mrs. George Houser, president.

PRE-SCHOOL CLINIC

Pre-school clinic for pupils entering the first grade next year at Bethware school will be held on April 18th beginning at 9 a.m., Principal R. G. Franklin has announced.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETS Kings Mountain City School Board meets in regular mon-thly session Monday night at Central School at 7;30 p.m.

vin Moss, Kenneth Metcalf, Bos-sie G. Martin, W. D. Bowles, Hel-en H. Jennings, Lucille Randall, William Jackson Rob Hinos William Jackson, Bob Hines, He is a past president of the Lloyd Peterson, Walter Lynn and South Carolina Historical asso-Raymond Cox, Tillman Pearson, ciation.

John F. Ledford, Lester C. Eaker, Joe Wyte, Eunice Smith, Larry D. Anderson, Fred S. Pritchard, Bids For Armory

Also, Yates Harbison, William A. Pryor, Martin L. Wilson, Eu-gene Patterson, Dorie Camp, Dr. Meantime, the federal National Guard bureau has released $104,-A. Pryor, Martin L. Wilson, Ed. Guard bureau has released (10), gene Patterson, Dorie Camp, Dr. 000 in federal funds for the Kings D. F. Hord, Elsie Dixon, Robert A. Hullender, Martha Essary, Myr-Basil L. Whitener reported last

(Continued On Page Eight) weekend.

Optimist Club Formally Organized; Charter To Be Given At Banquet

The Kings Mountain Optimist club was organized formally last

The charter by Optimist Inter-national is scheduled to be con-veyed at the club's initial ladies night banquet, tentatively set for May 27 at the American Legion building

Here last week for the organization meeting were Leonard Laye, lietenant-governor of Dis-trict 18, Optimist International, and Ed Stowe, president of the Gastonia club, which sponsored the Kings Mountain organization.

IndianCharter members, in addition to Mr. Payne, are Lawrence H.
C. Parsley, Bobby L. Pearson,
Shuford K. Peeler, Rwilliam
nett, Bobby Bridges, Kenneth D.
Bunkowski, W. D. Byers, John Dilling, Fred A. Dixon, Jake W.
Dents Jerry A. Ross, Winthford A.
Dents, Jerry A. Ross, Winthford A.
Dewitt T. Guyton, James L. Guyton, Robert W. Hurlbut, Valentine, Mearl D. Valentine, Merndon, Robert W. Hurlbut,
William N. King, Lawton W.
Carl Weisner, Carl F. Wilsonviews.ticular contest piece.
Dr. Earl Stocum, head of the London, Jack R. Mercier, WilliamConted its progress, which he
the Bennett, Lu
Dr. Earl Stocum, head of the
Dr. Earl Stocum, head of the Davidson col-eve, May S. Mr. Bridges had an-pownit T. Guyton, Jack R. Mercier, WilliamCarl Weisner, Carl F. WilsonStation Manager Jonas Bridges Station Manager Jonas Bridges
Mr. Baunders has a standing invitation to appear on subsequent ontinue weekly through election other the same spect.On the association with 475 shares of stock West, head of the Davidson col-with assets totaling $4750. By during the depression did the association assets show a drop, 4 ation listed only $262,000 in assets in 1930.In the district con-sets in 1930.Index Strate Barne, K.
William N. King, Lawton W.
London, Jack R. Mercier, WilliamNerver Carl F. WilsonValentine, test for the live broadcast.State manager Jonas Bridges
the state Barne, K.
Barly, H. Dean Spears, Jack N.
atter State Barne, K.
E. Stone, Eugene Tignor, Gerald
tation due to the impromptu advance of the live broadcast.Jack White, to the work of the state con-
tation due to the impromptu

nd added he regarded the pre-ent blue law as obsolete. On the city manager proposal All gave aquivocal approval -All gave equivocal approval. He is survived by his wife, the though Mr. Dixon said he sus-former Dollie Cornwell; one son, tions open) — H. O. (Toby) Wil- gregation, Rev. George Moore Mrs. Frank Ware. pected the city was somewhat E. K. Whitener, Jr., of Madison, liams and Holmes Harry. small for manager-type opera-tion. Mayor Bridges said it's a Jurney of Golden, Colo.; a bro-Lions Conducting

D. Anderson, Fred S. Pritchard, Mrs. Peggy Wells, Joyce Howell, George H. Mauney, Ray W. Cline, Fred A. Bradley, Samuel Adams, Charles E. Wilson, Herschel L. Wright, Betty A. Bowen, John Cheshire, Bertha Guffey, Walter McKinney.

The final rites were conducted by Rev. George Moore.

Active pallbearers were Charles E. Dixon, Wesley Bush, Paul McGinnis, Sherman Perry, John Caveny and Carl Goforth.

decline an invitation to appear on the "Race for Mayor" inter-view program series being broad-cast by Station WKMT, said this week he felt his appearing on the II Rating voter as well as myself."

(Continued On Page Eight)

Saunders Says

Mr. Saunders stated, "I felt program and attempt to answer questions asked me in a min-state band contests at Marion ute's time is unfair to the voter Saturday. as well as myself. If I am going to answer questions, I think that As the smallest band (36 memthe individual asking the ques- bers) in Group III, the Kings tion expects me to put some thought into the question in or-der to give him a complete and honest answer and I did not feel that being on this program would enable me to do so." A. H. Patterson, recently re-directors at a testimon-ial dinner last Friday night. A. H. Patterson, recently re-of Home Savings & Loan assort ciation, was honored by the as-sociation directors at a testimon-ial dinner last Friday night. A. H. Patterson, recently re-of Home Savings & Loan assort ciation, was honored by the as-sociation directors at a testimon-ial dinner last Friday night. A. H. Patterson, recently re-tired as chief executive officer of Home Savings & Loan assort ciation, was honored by the as-sociation directors at a testimon-ial dinner last Friday night.

the Kings Mountain organization. Dean Payne is the newly-elec-ticd president. Mayor Bridges said Wednesy-day he isn't sure sufficient time the added, "May I say that I feel I am running a clean race ing at the Grace Methodis church fellowship hall. The club is especially active in the field of boys work. Last week, it yoted to sponsor a team in the Kings Mountain Little League program. Charter members, in addition

Boyce H. Gault, incumbent, Eu-

ber and benevolence treasurer of Resurrection Lutheran church, a For school trustee (two posi- highlight in the life of the con-

Annual Broom Sale

Members of the Kings Mountain Lions club are conducting their annual sale of brooms for benefit of the blind.

In the Lions club inventory are residential-type brooms, at $1.50, industrial-type brooms, at $2, and whisk brooms at 75 cents.

Profits on the sale will be used by the Lions club for benefit of blind citizens and for other work in sight conservation.

The brooms are made by blind persons at North Caroli-na Industries for the Blind in Greensboro. Grady Yelton is chairman of this year's broom sale committee.

Honors Veteran Executive Officer

vice.

credited chiefly to the work of paid by Ed Goodlow, of Charlotte.

J. T. McGinnis, Jr. Grover — Grover fire station, Mrs. J. B. Ellis.

Park Grace - Park Grace school, Mrs. James Cloninger. Bethware - Bethware school, has announced. A special service of Blessing will mark the comof Blessing will mark the com-pletion of the new steeple. The City Manager Reverend F. L. Conrad, Sr., D. D., Vote Unlikely President of the United Evange-lical Lutheran Synod of North Carolina will be present. He will Mayor Glee A. Bridges said preach Sunday morning and will Wednesday he doubted that the participate in the Service of board of commissioners will call Blessing which will come at the an election on adopting the city conclusion of the regular Ser- manager form of government for the May 9 voting.

The General Assembly passed The new steeple adds a beautiful example of Colonial archi- an enabling act in June 1959 to tecture to the skyline of Kings empower the city commission to Mountain, rising almost 100 feet order a city manager election at above the ground. Topped by a gold-leafed Celtic cross, it is vi-Previous discussion by board members indicated the referensible for quite a distance. Lightdum might be called for the reging will make it visible at night. ular biennial May 9 election. Under terms of the act the cl-The steeple is another step along the way in the plans for tizens would vote for or against future expansion of the facilia modified Plan D city manager ties at Resurrection according to system. If, approved, the commission would have the power to employ a city manager, who would be the city's chief administrative officer, or to name the elected mayor as mayor-mana-

(Continued On Page Eight)

The commission would retain authority to name the city judge. attorney, clerk, treasurer and Calling attention to the observance, Mrs. Charles Dilling, librarian at Jacob S. Mauney Memorial library, invited the interested public to visit the library during the week. Purpose of the observance is to "make the community more library-minded", Mrs. Dilling noted. "The Freedom to Know--America's Greatest Weapon" -is the theme of the promo tion.

Quiz "Unfair"

David L. Saunders, lone Kings Mountain mayoral candidate to urrection Lutheran church.