

TO GIVE CONCERT — The Central Wesleyan College choir of Central, S. C., will present a concert of sacred music Saturday evening, May 6 at 7 p. m. at the East Gold Street Wesleyan Methodist church according to the pastor, Rev. C. R. Goodson. During its 11th annual concert season, the choir is touring Washington, D. C., Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, and Alabama. It is making numerous appearances in churches and schools throughout these states. Leonard C. Brank, director of the Department of Music, will lead the choir in a program of religious music. Selections will include "He Watching Over Israel" from "Elijah" by Mendelssohn, "Beautiful Savior" by Christensen, "Thy Word Is a Light" by Morgan, selections from "The Holy City" by Gaul and "Battle Hymn of the Republic" by Steffe Ringwald, and others. A girls' trio and sextet and male quartet are special features of the choir. The choir members, undergraduate students of Central Wesleyan College, are all members of the Southern Area and Miss Brenda Goodson of Kings Mountain is a member of the choir.

Spice CABINET

Don't Pour

For more evenly cooked strips, when frying bacon do not pour off the fat. Bacon will be more crisp. And you will not run the risk of splashing hot fat on yourself while tipping the pan.

Fifty percent of the water used in this country is used for agricultural purposes. By 1980, the United States is expected to use 600 billion gallons of water per day, twice the present gallonage.

A SAMPLE OF WHAT A GOOD MAYOR DOES

THE PICTURE ABOVE SHOWS THE RECENTLY-INSTALLED CURBING AND GUTTERING ON THE YORK ROAD. BIDS HAVE BEEN OPENED ON THE PAVING AND, WHEN THIS IMPROVEMENT IS COMPLETED, IT WILL BE KINGS MOUNTAIN'S WIDEST STREET.

WHILE THIS PROJECT IS BEING COMPLETELY PAID FOR BY THE STATE HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT, I LIVE ON THIS STREET AND KNOW THE WORK MAYOR GLEE A. BRIDGES DID IN OBTAINING NECESSARY RIGHT-OF-WAY AND WAS ABLE TO GET THE STATE HIGHWAY APPROVAL FOR A BETTER PAVING JOB THAN WAS FIRST PLANNED.

I LIVE ON THIS STREET. I'M PROUD OF IT AND FEEL EVERYONE WHO USES IT WILL BE PROUD OF IT, TOO.

IT'S ONE OF THE REASONS I'M VOTING TUESDAY TO RE-ELECT GLEE BRIDGES MAYOR.
