

BUICK'S NEW ELECTRA 225 FOR 1962 — The clean, uncluttered styling of Buick for 1962 is exemplified in the Electra 225 series with its sporty new roofline and its tailored rear deck lid with the windsplit down the center. The long, sweeping lines of the front and rear fenders make the car look bigger without increasing its size. The new roofline with its wide, sloping rear pillars identify the Electra 225 series.

ies, one of the most luxurious cars in the fine car field. Passenger comfort has been improved for 1962 by the almost complete elimination of the transmission hump in the floor of the front passenger compartment. The Electra 225 is powered by a 401 cubic inch V-8 engine with four-barrel carburetor, coupled with Buick's smooth Turbine Drive transmission.

(Items this week from Washington, Stanly, Sampson, Forsyth, Surry, and Franklin Counties.)

SPECIALTY FOOD FROZEN

"Freezing frog legs will add variety to Mrs. Bill Hardison's meals and reduce the grocery bill during the year," says Mrs. Frances Darden, home economics agent in Washington County.

Mrs. Hardison of the Chapel Hill club in Plymouth reported her son had good luck frogging so she froze about 10 pounds of legs. This will be a delicacy since frog legs sell for about $1.50 per pound.

BUYS QUALITY SEED

Fifteen cents can go a long way if you do as Mrs. John Crawford, garden leader of Richfield Club did. She told her club members about Valient tomatoes recommended by the Extension Service.

According to Miss Elizabeth Watson, home economics agent in Stanley County, Mrs. Cranford bought 15 cents worth of seed and produced more than 250 plants. Over 30 bushels of tomatoes have been produced for table use and canning for four families.

OLD FURNITURE RESTORED

Mrs. I. R. Daughtry of Sampson County is glad she doesn't throw things away. Years ago she painted a dresser base and replaced the hardware with glass knobs.

Mrs. Virginia Evins, home economics agent, says after a demonstration on "new furniture from old," Mrs. Daughtry refinished her chest and placed the original hardware back on the chest. The dresser now occupies a place of importance in the home.

CHICKENS FINANCE OTHER PROJECTS

Gloria Jean Smith belonged to the chicken chain two years ago. She still has 70 of the chickens and with high production, she has managed to make ten to twelve dollars a week from egg sales.

According to Mrs. Virginia Sutton, assistant home economics agent in Forsyth County, Gloria has used her money to buy supplies for 4-H demonstrations and also bought the material for a suit so she could enter the dress revue.

DO-IT-YOURSELF PROJECT

Mrs. Wayne Marsh, Mount Airy, Rt. 3, has learned to bottom chairs two different ways. She has been using Hong Kong grass for Colonial chairs and stools and used rattan can in an antique chair.

Miss Ella Hampton, assistant home economics agent in Surry County, says it would cost Mrs. Marsh about $10 to hire each chair done and she can do it for about one dollar.

SUPPLEMENTS HER INCOME

Mrs. Charlie Edwards of the Justice Club in Franklin County, is interested in bottoming chairs as a method of supplementing her income.

Mrs. Lillie Mae Dean, home economics agent, says Mrs. Edwards has been bottoming chairs with corn shucks and now has started working with Hong Kong grass.

Howard Completes Basic Training

FORT MONMOUTH, N. J., (AHTNC) — Pvt. Paul A. Howard, Jr., whose parents live at 402 Battleground ave., Kings Mountain, N. C., recently completed the eleven-week basic ordnance electronics course at The Army Signal School, Fort Monmouth, N. J.

Belmont Abbey Lists Faculty

New appointments to the Belmont Abbey College faculty were announced by the president, the Very Rev. John A. Oetgen, O. S. B., today.

Additional faculty personnel were added to the Classical Language, English, and Economics Departments, he announced, and many priest-faculty members have returned from leaves of absence to resume their teaching duties at the college.

Dr. Michael J. Dunn, III, was appointed assistant professor in the Classical Languages Department, teaching Latin and Greek and the ancient classics. He received his doctorate at the University of Wisconsin in the classical disciplines, have earned his M. A. at Wisconsin and his A. B. at Marquette University.

Dr. Dunn was formerly on the faculty at Woman's College of the University of North Carolina in Greensboro, where he taught Latin and the Classics for two years, having previously held a teaching assistantship at the University of Wisconsin.

He is well known in North Carolina for his many publications in Southern journals and his interest in North Carolina local histories. He is well known for his research in railroad history and has written extensively about them.

He was awarded an Adams Fellowship in Classics for 1955-57 and a Southern Fellowship in 1960. He is a member of Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society and Eta Sigma Phi Classics honor society.

Mrs. Isabelle Ellis Hart of Charlotte was appointed instructor in the Economics Department. Formerly of New York, but a resident of Charlotte for the past ten years, Mrs. Hart is a graduate of Vassar College earning her A. B. in English, and received her Master's degree in social studies from Duke University where she pursued graduate work on a Ford Fellowship, receiving the advanced Master Teacher's degree.

Mr. John M. McCaffrey, of Richmond, Va., was appointed an instructor in the English Department. He is a graduate of Belmont Abbey College where he majored in English and is a graduate student at the University of Virginia. Mr. McCaffrey will for the present teach the lower division English courses.

The Rev. Raphael Bridge, O. S. B., has returned to the teaching faculty at the Abbey, having been absent for one year on assigned duties. He will resume his position in the History and Latin Departments.

The Rev. Donald Scales, O. S. B., has also returned after a year's absence. He will resume his position on the Library staff at the Abbey.

The new appointments were made under the inaugurated faculty improvement program at Belmont Abbey College. The constant strengthening of the faculty, both in numbers and depth, keeping the student-teacher ratio at 1-12, is part of the Centennial Development program at the Abbey.
