

Outing Attracts Area Families

Kings Mountain families, including young folk, and parents, numbered 1700 at the annual employee outing held recently by Neisler division of Massachusetts Mohair Plush Company. Claire Gilstad snapped this typical family at the picnic and the youngsters seem to enjoy the barbecue meal and picnic weather at Lake Crawford.

Miss Linda White, November Bride-Elect Honored At Tea Here Saturday

Miss Linda White, bride-elect of November, was paid compliment Saturday afternoon when Miss Charity Goforth, Miss Jackie Merrill and Miss Martha Motley of Concord entertained at a beautifully appointed tea at the Woman's Club.

Guests who called from three until six o'clock were friends of the honoree from Kings Mountain, Gastonia, Concord, Charlotte and Goldsboro. Mrs. Don Carpenter, Mrs. Horace Hord and Mrs. Jacob Dixon greeted arriving callers and Mrs. G. V. Petty headed the receiving line which included Miss White, her mother, Mrs. James White, Miss Charity Goforth, Miss Brenda McDaniel, Miss Jackie Merrill, Mrs. Shuford K. Peeler, Sr. of Charlotte, mother of Miss White's fiancé Shuford Peeler, Jr., and Miss Martha Motley.

The honoree wore a blue full-skirted party dress with dyed-to-match slippers and white shoulder corsage, gift of the hostesses.

Miss Brenda Thornburg and Mrs. Doris Bennett served punch and assisting in receiving and entertaining were Mrs. Fred Motley of Concord, Mrs. Ralph Fitch of Concord, Mrs. D. B. Wallace of Goldsboro and Mrs. Bill Wallace of Gastonia.

The refreshment table, overlaid with white linen cloth, was decorated in traditional bridal colors and green and white also featured the bride's cakes, mints and punch served throughout the reception. A eight-branched candelabra at one end of the table held white tapers and was decorated with ivy. The silver punch bowl at one end of the table was also decorated with green fern and white flowers.

White flowers with greenery were used decoratively in the foyer and lounge of the club house. The hostesses' gift to the bride-elect was a toaster.

Clothing Drive Is Continuing

If you have clothes you or your children have outgrown, don't throw them away!

The Children's Clothing Closet a project of the Junior Woman's Club, is now underway and many usable garments are needed to clothe school children as well as adults.

Mrs. John H. Gamble, Project chairman, says children's shoes are especially needed. Other needed items include good, warm clothing for school children.

Headquarters for the annual drive is the Home Economics department of Central school and clothing may be delivered to the high school plant or Junior club members will pick-up the bundles of clothing at homes of donors.

Mrs. Gamble, in commenting on the drive, noted that the Kings Mountain club distributed over 1,000 items of clothing to the area needy during the drive last fall. All clothing is distributed locally either via the schools or the County Welfare Department.

Other members of the Woman's club committee are Mrs. Jacob Dixon, Miss Jackie Blanton, Mrs. Bill Bates, Mrs. Bill Jonas, Mrs. James Yarbrow and Miss Margaret Harmon.

MRS. MILLER

Mrs. Miller, 98 Notes Birthday

Mrs. C. P. Miller of Virginia, mother of Mrs. J. A. Neisler and Mrs. Fred Finger of Kings Mountain, celebrated her 98th birthday this week.
