RICE ANNIVERSARY RECIPE QUEEN

Charleston, S. C.—The growing of rice in America reached its 275th anniversary year with appropriate recognition in the city where rice was first planted in 1686.

With the Rice Council of Houston, Texas, as sponsor of the event, Charleston staged a pageant re-enacting the historical event when a ship's captain brought less than a bushel of rice seed to the Carolina colony.

The seed was planted by an early settler and from this beginning the great rice plantations of the Carolinas and Georgia were founded. Later the rice industry moved westward to Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas, Mississippi and California.

This year's rice crop is estimated at 5½ billion pounds.

Among the features of the observance recognizing rice as the oldest non-native American food crop, was a contest among homemakers of Charleston and the South Carolina lowcountry to find an official 275th anniversary recipe.

Mrs. E. Delance Poston of Johnsonville was judged winner. Her recipe:

275th Rice Anniversary Prize-Winning Recipe

- Red Rice and Peppers
4 slices bacon or 1/2 cup sausage, or boiled shrimp
1 cup chopped onion
1 cup chopped green peppers
1 medium can tomatoes
4 medium green peppers
1 small can tomato paste
1 cup rice
1/4 teaspoon celery salt
1/4 teaspoon garlic salt
1 bay leaf
Dash each of thyme, tabasco sauce, and pepper
Cut bacon in small pieces; fry until crisp in heavy skillet, OR fry sausage until brown. Remove.

Saute onion and peppers in bacon fat, or fry onion and peppers in sausage fat with 1/4 cup water. Add tomatoes, tomato paste, seasonings, rice and meat. Cover tightly and cook slowly for 30 minutes.

Clean 4 medium green peppers, removing core. When rice is done, stuff peppers with mixture and bake in baking pan filled 1/4 full of water until peppers are tender. Peppers can be topped with grated cheese the last few minutes of baking. Salt may be substituted for the bacon or sausage.

Music Theme Of Ice Capades

CHARLOTTE — The accent is on music in the 1962 version of Ice Capades in Charlotte Coliseum, Thursday, Feb. 8, through Sunday, Feb. 11.

And beautiful music, the kind you like to hear. The kind you like to sing and hum.

Some are the opera numbers of past years. In their place are haunting, lilting themes best loved by Americans.

Tchaikowsky's Great Fifth Symphony is the background for the matchless skating of the ice adagio team of Romayne & Steele.

There's Liszt's dynamic Hungarian Rhapsody, the beautiful Sleeping Beauty Ballet, not to mention the wonderful music from the Lerner & Loewe hits "My Fair Lady," "Paint Your Wagon," "Camelot" and "Brigadoon."

All these plus the thousand and one other great melodies to be played during the 10 big productions and 20 acts of the two and one-half-hour ice show.

The glittering, glamorous show will be seen here for night performances Thursday, Friday and Saturday, with two matinees Saturday and Sunday. Charlotte will be the only city between Miami and Washington to see the show. The troupe will come here by train from Washington.

Tickets are $3.50, $3.00, $2.50, and $2.00. Children will be admitted for half price Thursday only. Tickets are on sale at the Coliseum and may be ordered by mail.

Farmers Begin Sign-Up Period

The initial sign-up for the 1962 AC Program will start February 1 and will continue through February 15, 1962. All farmers have some conservation needs which can partially be met by participating in the Agricultural Conservation Program.

Practices approved for Cleveland County are as follows:

Permanent pasture or hay. Additional vegetative cover in crop rotation.

Liming materials on farmland. Contour stripcropping.

Initial establishment of a stand of trees on farmland for purposes other than wind or water erosion.

Permanent pasture or hay improvement.

Farm ponds as a means of protecting vegetative cover and/or for irrigation water.

Forest improvement.

Sod waterways. Terracing. Tile drainage. Winter cover crops.

Summer annual legumes.

Establishment of vegetative cover providing wildlife food plots and habitat.

Farmers interested in performing any of the above listed practices are urged to make their request during the sign-up period.

Auto Dealers To Convention

ATLANTIC CITY — A large delegation of North Carolina franchised new car and truck dealers will arrive in this north-eastern city Sunday for the 45th annual National Automobile Dealers Association Convention and Exhibition.

Mrs. Bessie B. Ballentine, executive secretary, Mrs. Elizabeth D. Herring and Mrs. Grace S. Mahler are here representing the Executive Office of the North Carolina Automobile Dealers Association. State Association officials attending the meet include: President and Mrs. Rupert E. Atkins of Atkins Motors, Inc., in Raleigh; Vice President and Mrs. Arthur P. Harris of City Chevrolet Company in Charlotte and Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Williams of North State Chevrolet Company, Inc., in Greensboro. Mr. Williams is the NADA director for North Carolina.

The five-day meeting will get underway with the opening of the always exciting equipment exhibition. Featured on the Convention speakers roster are: James J. Clarkson, president of the New York State Automobile Dealers Association, who spoke to Tarheel dealers in Raleigh last November; Lee H. Bristol, Jr., director of public relations for the Bristol-Myers Corporation; C. J. Staufenbeil, assistant merchandising manager of the Cadillac Motor Car Division; Leroy Collins, president of the National Association of Broadcasters; Harold D. Draper, NADA business management consultant, who made a lecture tour of North Carolina early in December of last year; and James M. Roche, vice president of General Motors, a speaker at the North Carolina Convention last May.

Janet Blair, George Gobel, the Harmonicats, Carmen Cavallaro and Florian Zabach will highlight the entertainment program of the Convention. Kings Mountain dealers attending the Convention include:

Jones Serving At Camp Lejeune

inside — PFC JONTES Story Camp LEJEUNE, N. C. (FHT-NC) — Marine Pfc. Thomas B. Jones, Jr., son of Mrs. Rose Dixson of 305 Sims street, Kings Mountain, N. C., is serving with the Third Battalion of the Sixth Marine Regiment at Camp Lejeune, N. C.

He recently was promoted to his present rank.

An infantry unit of the Second Marine Division, the regiment conducts training in the latest tactics of modern warfare. Included is the Marine Corps' concept of vertical envelopment which employs both helicopters and armored landing craft to attack an enemy simultaneously from front and rear.

Before entering the Marine Corps in July 1961, Jones was graduated from Holbrook high school in Lowell.

Farmers Approve Marketing Quotas

Final returns from the flue-cured tobacco marketing quota referendum, held Dec. 12, show that 98.1 per cent of the farmers voting approved quotas for the 1962, 1963 and 1964 flue-cured tobacco crops.

This is the highest favorable percentage ever voted for a 3-year marketing quota on flue-cured tobacco, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Official returns show a total of 194,121 growers voting, of which 190,515 approved quotas and 3,606 opposed them.

Since more than the necessary two-thirds of those voting favored the 3-year quotas, the marketing quota program will continue in effect for the next three crops of flue-cured tobacco.

In North Carolina, 121,959 growers out of 124,033 who voted approved the quotas.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Grantham, Victory Chevrolet Company, Inc. Mr. Grantham is Area Chairman for Cleveland County.

VA Assistance Is Explained

Any North Carolina youth eligible for schooling or vocational training under the War Orphans Education Assistance Program who serves in the Armed Forces during the legal age period for the program may still enroll under the program after his release from service.

This point was brought out today by J. D. DeRamus, regional manager, Veterans Administration, Winston-Salem, because the step-up in enlistments and draft calls has resulted in many inquiries.

Mr. DeRamus explained that the law provides that an otherwise eligible orphan who serves in the Armed Forces for a period preceding his 23rd birthday may still take advantage of the provisions of the War Orphans Education Assistance program within five years after his first release or discharge and prior to his 31st birthday.

Any North Carolina youth whose veteran - parent's death was attributed to an injury or disability incurred in wartime service, or in some cases of extra - hazardous peacetime service, is eligible for enrollment under the program.

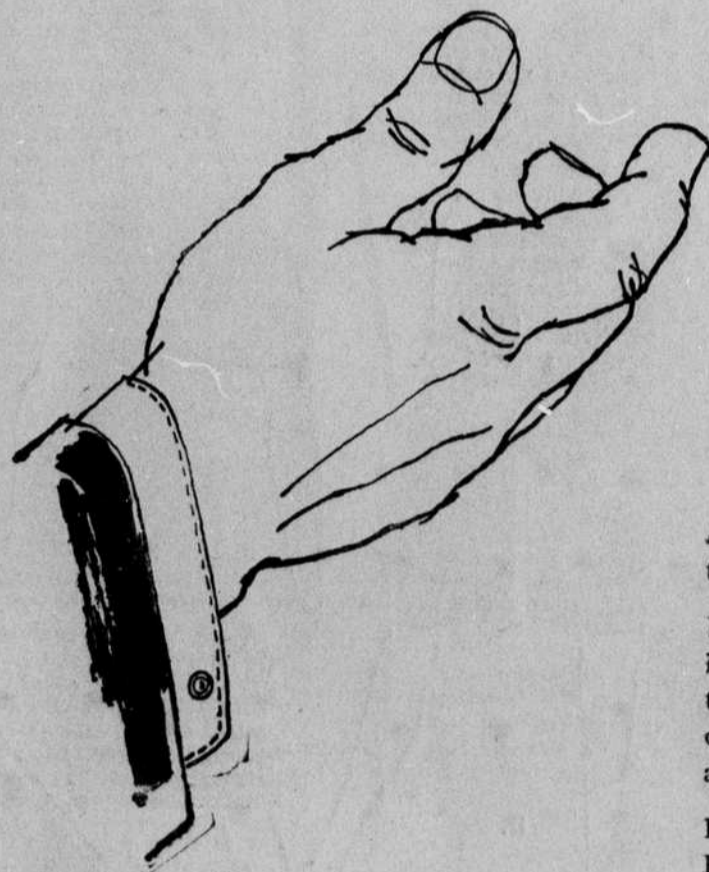

Generally between the ages of 18 and 23, these students may receive as much as $110 a month for as many as 36 months of training when enrolled in full-time, approved courses of higher education or vocational training, Mr. DeRamus explained.

VA educational or vocational counselors will assist the youth on determining the most suitable course of training to pursue.

Mrs. R. L. Godwin, of Dunn, the former Nettie Rudisill of Kings Mountain, has informed relatives here she is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Julia Romney, in Arlington, Va. Subsequently she will make an extended visit to Puerto Rico to visit her son, stationed there with the army.

How This Newspaper Helps Advertisers...

By earning this symbol

A well known symbol is like a good reputation—difficult to establish and even more difficult to maintain.

During your daily activities—in your store or in your home—you come into contact with many trade marks that symbolize an assured measure of performance or quality. They may range from initials on an electrical appliance to words like "sterling" or "prime."

Like its counterparts, the membership symbol of the Audit Bureau of Circulations* provides you with a reliable measure of our circulation performance, based on the highest standards known for either print or broadcast media.

The A.B.C. symbol cannot be purchased—it must be earned through performance. Continued use of this symbol is predicated on our ability to maintain these highest standards of circulation value.

Whenever you think of advertising media, it will pay you to ask, "Does it measure up to A.B.C. standards?" You can be sure it does if you use the advertising columns of—
