Party Honors Bride-Elect

Miss Molly Wrape of Burlington, bride-elect of September, was honored here Saturday evening at a bridal party given by Miss Doris Dixon of Shelby at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Ralph Mauney.

The 16 guests attending presented Miss Wrape a shower of household gifts which were arranged in a white-and-lace-covered umbrella.

Overlaid with white lace cloth, the refreshment table held a miniature bride and groom standing under an arch of orange blossoms as the focal point of decorative interest. Green punch was served from one end of the table from a crystal punch bowl surrounded by ivy, greenery and white blossoms. White glads in a crystal bowl were used with candles at the opposite end. Sandwiches were served with cheese rings, nuts, and decorated cakes.

The bride-to-be wore a navy polka-dot dress with novelty shoulder corsage, gift from the hostess.

Mrs. Van Wrape of Burlington, mother of the honoree, Mrs. Holland Dixon of Shelby, mother of the hostess, and Mrs. Mauney and daughter, Myra, assisted the hostess in entertaining.

Miss Wrape, granddaughter of Mrs. John F. Ware of Kings Mountain, will marry Milton Gray Newton of Burlington on Sept. 8th.
