ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED — Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Robinson of Tekamah, Nebraska, announce the engagement of their daughter, Joyce Elaine, to A/1c Oscar S. Gregory, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry O. Gregory of Kings Mountain. Airman Gregory is presently stationed at Offutt AFB in Nebraska. The bride-elect, graduate of Tekamah high school, is employed by a Omaha Insurance company. The couple will be married September 8th in Omaha.

Drop-In Honors Bride-Elect

Mrs. Ralph Goforth entertained Saturday evening at her home in Grover at a drop-in shower honoring Miss Phyllis Ann Smith, bride-elect of September 8th.

Guests presented the honoree with miscellaneous household gifts.

The hostess headed a receiving line which included the bride-to-be, her mother, Mrs. J. H. Smith, Jr., and her future mother-in-law, Mrs. Kelly Dixon.

Mrs. J. P. Cook served punch in the dining room and Mrs. Wayne Appling and Mrs. R. H. Ponder assisted in serving cheese biscuits with bridal cakes and nuts.

Overlaid with mint green net over imported linen, the refreshment table was centered by a miniature bride and her bridesmaids, all dressed in the wedding colors Miss Smith has chosen — pomegranate and champagne. The cloth was caught up at the corners with clusters of wedding bells tied with tulle and ribbon. A flowing fountain of tinted water reflected through the mirror of the buffet which was lighted by candles in brass candelabras.

Miss Smith was remembered with a corsage of tinted carnations which she pinned to the shoulder of her black and white party dress.

Thirty-five guests called.

MRS. JOHN O. HORTON

Miss Juanita Cook, John O. Horton Exchange Vows In Double-Ring Rites

New Hope Baptist Church of Charlotte provided the setting Sunday for a 4:30 p. m. exchange of wedding vows uniting Miss Juanita Cook of Matthews, formerly of Kings Mountain, and John O. Horton of Charlotte.

The bride's father, Rev. Howard T. Cook, a former pastor of Kings Mountain's Second Baptist church, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Edward T. Cook escorted his sister to the altar and gave her in marriage. Her formal gown was of silk organza and Chantilly lace and was fashioned with basque bodice featuring a Sabrina neckline and long traditional sleeves. The colonial skirt was designed with Chapel train. Her waist-length veil of illusion was draped from a beaded pearl headpiece and she carried a semi-cascade of white hybrid orchids and gypsophila arranged on a white lace-covered Bible showered with yellow ribbon.

Miss Marjorie Cook attended her sister as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. William H. Carder of Bowling Green, Ky.; sister of the bride; Miss Judy Horton of Columbia, S. C.; sister of the bridegroom, Miss Janice Griffin of Charlotte and Miss June Brumley of Concord.

Cindy Childers of Kings Mountain, niece of the bride, was flower girl.

YELLOW AND WHITE
Bridal attendants wore bouffant street-length dresses of yellow net over taffeta with matching headpieces dropped with circular veils and dyed-to-match satin slippers. They carried cascades of yellow and white summer flowers.

The flower girl, who wore a white full-skirted dress, wore a white hat with yellow bow and carried a white basket of yellow flower petals.

Dalton Horton of Barnesville, S. C., brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Russell P. Clark, Larry McGraw, both of Charlotte; William H. Childers, Kings Mountain, and William H. Carder of Bowling Green, Ky., brothers-in-law of the bride.

The bride and bridegroom received guests in the church vestibule immediately following the ceremony.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM
The bride is a daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Howard T. Cook of Matthews, former residents. She is a graduate of Kings Mountain high school, Class of '58 and attended Campbellsville college in Campbellsville, Ky. She is employed by A. M. Pullen & Company of Charlotte.

Mr. Horton is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene K. Horton of Newberry, S. C. He is a graduate of Newberry high school and is employed by the City of Charlotte.

Charlotte will be home for the newlyweds after a trip to New Orleans, Louisiana.

FIRST LT. AND MRS. ROBERT H. EDENS

Miss Eunice Parnaby, Lt. Robert Edens Wed In England; Now At Home In France

Miss Eunice Parnaby of Warkshire, England, and First Lt. Robert H. Edens of Kings Mountain were wed June 30th, in England.

The ceremony was performed at 12 noon by Rev. Mr. Clifford in Leicestershire's St. Nicholas church, built in 1220 at Mowsley.

Traditional congregational singing of "Love Divine All Loves Excelling" and "Now Thank We All Our God" preceded the service, all of which was recorded and sent to the bridegroom's family. "Wedding March" by Mendelssohn was played as the bride entered the church with her father.

The bride's gown was a formal design of ice blue satin, featuring cap sleeves appliqued with white lace daisies and a full sweep train accenting the bell skirt. Her veil of illusion was worn chapel-length with a circlet of cream rosebuds. She carried a bouquet of cream roses, valley lilies and white stephanotis.

Miss Christine Parnaby was her sister's maid of honor and one of two attendants. Their dresses were street-length designs of lemon brocade with which they wore circlets of the same flowers with a matching lemon bow tied in the back. They carried pale pink carnations and white lily-of-the-valley.

Capt. Earl McClintock was best man for the bridegroom and ushers were members of the groom's plane crew, including Capt. Rufus Johnson and First Lt. William Robinson.

A reception was held after the ceremony on the lawn of the rectory of St. Nicholas church. The bride and bridegroom cut a three-tiered wedding cake made and decorated by the bride's mother. The middle tier also had an airplane for decorative highlight. Members of the groom's family have received the top tier of the cake from the bride's family.

For a wedding trip to South Wales, England, the new Mrs. Edens wore a navy blue suit with white accessories and the roses from her bouquet.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM
Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Christopher Parnaby of 87 Fulwell Road, Durham, England, are parents of the bride who is a former school teacher. Prior to her marriage, she was employed at Bruntingthorpe RAF Base in Leicester, England.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Christopher Columbus Edens Sr., of Kings Mountain and the late C. C. Edens. He is an honor graduate of Kings Mountain high school and before entering the service was employed at Neisler Mills. He is a Navigator in the U. S. Air Force, presently stationed at Toul-Rosiers Air Base near Nancy, France.

France will be home for the newlyweds.
