'Genevieve' To Star With Kapen

Genevieve of Jack Paar Show fame will star in "Can Can," August 7 through August 12 at Ben Kapen's Charlotte Music Theatre.

A spectacular success on Broadway, "Can-Can" played for two years and seven weeks for a record of 895 performances. Following its triumph in New York, "Can-Can" in its original Broadway production toured the country from June, 1955 to May, 1956.

The delightful story takes place in Paris in 1863. A young judge who disapproves of the new-fangled can-can sets out to expose the owner of an illicit night club where the laundresses do wild dances and, naturally, falls in love with the owner, played by Genevieve. He goes in business with her and tries to prove her innocence.

Cole Porter, who is remembered for such song hits as "Night and Day" and "Begin the Beguine," wrote the outstandingly beautiful musical score. Among the more memorable song hits from the play are "C'est Magnifique," "I Love Paris," and "It's All Right With Me."

Delightful, witty Genevieve began her career in her native France and became a success in this country four years ago. She has appeared all over the country and in Canada and Puerto Rico, becoming a favorite wherever she has performed. Genevieve's greatest fans come from millions of viewers of the Jack Paar Show, where she has been featured many, many times. Appearing as Boris in "Can Can" will be Ben Kapen, Charlotte Music Theatre producer in his first role of this season.

The public will readily perceive that the advantages of this company to protect property for the benefits of orphans or others, or to answer any special purpose, are far greater than those of any individual executors or other trustees, who are always liable to casualties which no foresight can guard against.

"IN TRUST..." one hundred and forty years old this week!

On August 6, 1822, the New York Evening Post published the first Trust advertisement on the occasion of the founding of the first trust company, the Farmers Fire Insurance and Loan Company. An excerpt from this advertisement is shown above. The company which advertised is now the largest institution in the world devoted exclusively to trust business. No illness, incapacity or death has interrupted the administration of Estates and Trust Funds entrusted to it. For similarly responsible service and qualified counsel on how you may protect your family against the "casualties which no foresight can guard against," consult with a Trust Officer of the First Union National Bank. *Later, The Farmers Loan and Trust Company and now The First National City Trust Company.
