ARP's Held Open House

The Boyce Memorial Associate Reformed Presbyterian church formally opened its new educational building on Edgemont Drive with a special service of consecration at the morning worship hour Sunday and an open house in the afternoon from 3 until 5 p. m.

Dr. W. L. Pressly, pastor, delivered the sermon on "My Church".

Dr. Pressly defined the church as "the place where man and his Maker meet".

Referring to criticism the church has received, he spoke of some "good things about the church".

These he listed as:

School Transfers

The foundation of the church which is Jesus Christ. "Without Christ you might have a good organization, but not a church. It is founded on the pillar and ground of truth."

2 The Framework. "Every member is a brick of the church," Dr. Pressly said. "There is union with every member building on one another, moving forward, each making his own contribution, supporting each other with prayer and encouragement."

3 The future of the church. "Although the church has suffered persecution from without and indifference from within we remember the words: 'I will never leave thee or forsake thee.'"

Also included on the program were a Congregational Thanksgiving, an antiphonal reading; a Congregational prayer in unison and three anthems by the combined adult, youth and Cherub choirs, a group of 60 voices, under the direction of Mrs. Kenneth McGill.

Organist was Mrs. N. F. McGill and Mrs. Garrison Goforth was at the piano.

Guests at the Open House were welcomed at the entrance by Grady Patterson, chairman of the building program, and Mrs. Patterson.

Dr. Pressly received in his study, and teachers and superintendents of various departments welcomed guests throughout the

ARP's Begin Special Services

Dr. J. Calvin Smith of Clover, S. C. will lead a week of special services beginning Monday at Boyce Memorial ARP church.

Full evangelistic services will begin Monday and continue through next Sunday at Boyce Memorial ARP church, the pastor Dr. W. L. Pressly has announced.

Dr. J. Calvin Smith of Clover, S. C. will be the visiting speaker at services each evening except Saturday at 7:30. There will be a children's service on next Saturday morning at 10 a. m. and two services on next Sunday, October 14th.

Commenting on the special services, Dr. Pressly said, "Dr. Smith has served the denomination well, as a minister, as a member of boards and committees, and as a song leader in conference and Synods. We invite our friends to worship with us."
