Local Clubwomen Completing Plans For District Meeting, Tour Oct. 28

Clubwomen of North Carolina, and especially nearby counties, have been invited to join the women of District Four at the Kings Mountain Woman's Club building, 108 E. Mountain Street, on October 28 at 2 p.m. for a post-District Meeting tour of the Kings Mountain Battleground.

Mrs. Aubrey Mauney, past president of the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs, Inc., said the trip will include the short ride to the battleground, a visit to the museum, slide-lecture, and a visit to the monument in honor of the Mountain Men and their patriot leaders. These men fought in the hour-long battle on October 7, 1780 to secure the land from the oncoming British forces under Colonel Patrick Ferguson. They will also visit Ferguson's grave where the customary procedure is to add a rock to the grave.

The tour will emphasize the Federation Theme, "Our Heritage", and will follow the District Meeting at Central Methodist church. The Kings Mountain clubs will welcome the clubwomen from the 21 other clubs with hostess presidents dressed in Elizabethan English ball gowns reminiscent of the Revolutionary period. Four pages will be dressed as the mountain women of 1780.

During the luncheon Mrs. Barbara Allen, Junior Clubwoman,

Mrs. James Ronald Martin

Miss Myra Gail Gamble, Ronald Martin Wed Sunday In Church Rites At Shelby

Miss Myra Gail Gamble of Shelby and James Ronald Martin of Kings Mountain were wed Sunday in a 4:30 p.m. wedding in Webb Chapel of Shelby's First Baptist church.

Rev. Fred C. Crisp heard the exchange of pledges, hearing the double-ring service.

Mrs. E. T. Bailey was organist for the program of nuptial music and Yates Pearson was vocalist. Mr. Pearson sang "Whither Thou Goest" and "Oh Love That Will Not Let Me Go" before the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer" as the benediction.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of peau de soie styled with scoop neckline and elbow-length sleeves. The modified bell skirt had a band of crystal beads at the waistline, a narrow band of beading down the front and a chapel train. Her bouffant illusion veil was draped from a tiny crown of sea pearls and crystals and she carried a white prayer book topped with a cascade bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis.

Miss Rachel Smith attended the bride as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Becky Padgett, cousin of the bride, and Miss Kathi Martin, sister of the groom. Junior bridesmaids were Terri Lee Martin, sister of the groom, and Regina Padgett, cousin of the bride.

The attendants wore dresses of avocado green satin with bell skirts featuring sashes from the back of the shoulders. Their headpieces were matching pill-boxes dropped with veils and they carried clusters of autumn bronze chrysanthemums with brief cascades of yellow and bronze pom pons tied with amber-toned satin ribbon.

Mr. Martin was best man for his son and ushers were Olan Padgett of Shelby, uncle of the bride, Steve Henderson, Chalmers Johnson and Leonard Barnett, all of Kings Mountain.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Gamble wore a sheath dress of royal blue crepe with matching hat and a corsage of white phalaenopsis orchids.

The bridegroom's mother chose brown crepe with matching hat and a corsage of bronze cymbid-

Couple Honored After Rehearsal

Miss Gail Gamble and Ronald Martin, whose wedding took place Sunday, were honored Saturday night after their wedding rehearsal at a cake cutting held in the Ladies Parlor at First Baptist church of Shelby.

Hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Olan Padgett, Mr. and Mrs. Hartwell Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Padgett, Jr., aunts and uncles of the bride.

The bride's table, overlaid with white linen over green, was centered with a silver candelabrum holding burnt orange candles and epergnettes filled with baker tea; and bronze and yellow mums. A crystal punch bowl, its base wreathed with fern and mums, was on one end of the table and on the opposite end was a three-tier square wedding cake, iced in green and white and topped with wedding bells.

Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Olan Padgett cut and served the wedding cake and Mrs. D. D. Hambright poured punch. Mrs. Robert Padgett, Jr. served nuts and mints.

Miss Gamble and Mr. Martin took the occasion to present their gifts to their wedding attendants.

Clubwomen Announce Music Contest Date

Mrs. John Iuele of Winston-Salem has released the dates for the music contests of the Fine Arts Department of the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs, Inc.
